

MIRROR RECORD

158th Class
June 1932

THE IDEALS OF TODAY
FORM THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF TOMORROW

S. L. Fenskin

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-EIGHTH CLASS

RECORD

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-EIGHTH CLASS
CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

THE RECORD

MORRIS KIMELMAN, Editor-in-Chief

JACOB NEMIROFF, Associate

PHILADELPHIA » » JUNE, 1932

CHS

FEINSTEIN

RECORD

CHS

RECORD

TO THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-EIGHTH CLASS:

Every Central High School class likes to feel that it helped to make history in the old school, and that its undergraduate period was one of unusual significance. Whatever may be said of those halcyon days when you were Freshmen and Sophomores, your Junior and Senior years were spent here during a period of economic depression that was world-wide and profound in its effect. You had many real problems to face at home and in the school that were not faced by your predecessors. However, the experience has not been without some beneficial aspects. In various ways you are better prepared to take your place among your elders and to help to your utmost in bringing about better days. I take this occasion to express to you my sincere wishes for your success in all your undertakings.

John A. Haney

CHS

138 RECORD 32

CHS

RECORD

TO THE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-EIGHTH CLASS:

In saying "good-bye," I want to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to all who have contributed to the success of your class.

This indeed marks the happy consummation of your high school careers, and it is my earnest wish that whether you enter institutions of higher learning or the world of business you will so acquit yourselves as to reflect credit upon those who are responsible, in a measure, for the moulding of your ideals. It will be with no little satisfaction that I shall receive reports of your future successes.

Damon P. Vickers

CHS

158 RECORD 32 3

Samuel G. Lippencoff

CHS

RECORD

Morris Himelman

CHS

CLASS OFFICERS

C
H
S

Samuel Sopenoff president

Sidney Shore vice president

Jack Ovcharov treasurer

Arthur Gorelick secretary

3
2

158

CHS

RECORD

POPULARITY HONOR MEN

C
H
S

3
2

158

CHS

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

SAMUEL A. SOPENOFF.....President
 SIDNEY SHORE.....Vice-President
 JACK OVCHAROV.....Treasurer
 ARTHUR GORELICK.....Secretary

HAROLD METZGER
 MARTIN GROSSMAN
 AARON GROSSMAN
 SEYMOUR S. KETY
 SAMUEL L. FEINSTEIN

JACK KORMAN
 MORRIS KIMELMAN
 BENJAMIN STAHL
 OCTAVIUS REID
 CHARLES MEYERS

PROFESSOR VICKERS, Class Advisor

RECORD

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

SAMUEL A. SOPENOFF, Executive
 MORRIS KIMELMAN, Record Book
 ROBERT SHAPIRO, Pin
 MORRIS BROWN, Prom
 THEODORE SMITH, Photographic
 ROBERT CALLAHAN, Banquet
 SAMUEL L. FEINSTEIN, Class Paper
 DAVID KAUFMAN, Junior Day

HAROLD METZGER, Benefit
 BENJAMIN GELMAN, Benefit
 BENJAMIN STAHL, Pin
 JACK SEGAN, Prom
 NORMAN BLESHEMAN, Cap and Gown
 MORTON LEVY, Banquet
 PHILIP D. KATZ, Ad Book
 EDWARD BRESLER, Ad Book

AARON GROSSMAN, Elections

PROFESSOR VICKERS, Class Advisor

CHS

RECORD

With Sisyphus we turned our restless stones
Of toil. Unlike the fated Greek who ne'er
His goal did reach, to greatest heights our way
We forged from depths traditional. From heights
Attained, the path worn smooth by ceaseless strain,
We view; a road that dealt a heavy toll for its Creation. Once traversed no longer can
We backward turn upon the path now full
Well known, the path that in our former days
Was misty thought, that terrors manifold
Did hold, which now we know were figments of Mind's eye. In common bond no longer can
We each assist. Part now we must, the task
Is done, no longer can we run back o'er
The vintaged joys of days of yore. For this
We linger yet awhile upon the crest,
With saddened hearts we make our pause,
With final glimpse the olden joys to backward call.

CHS

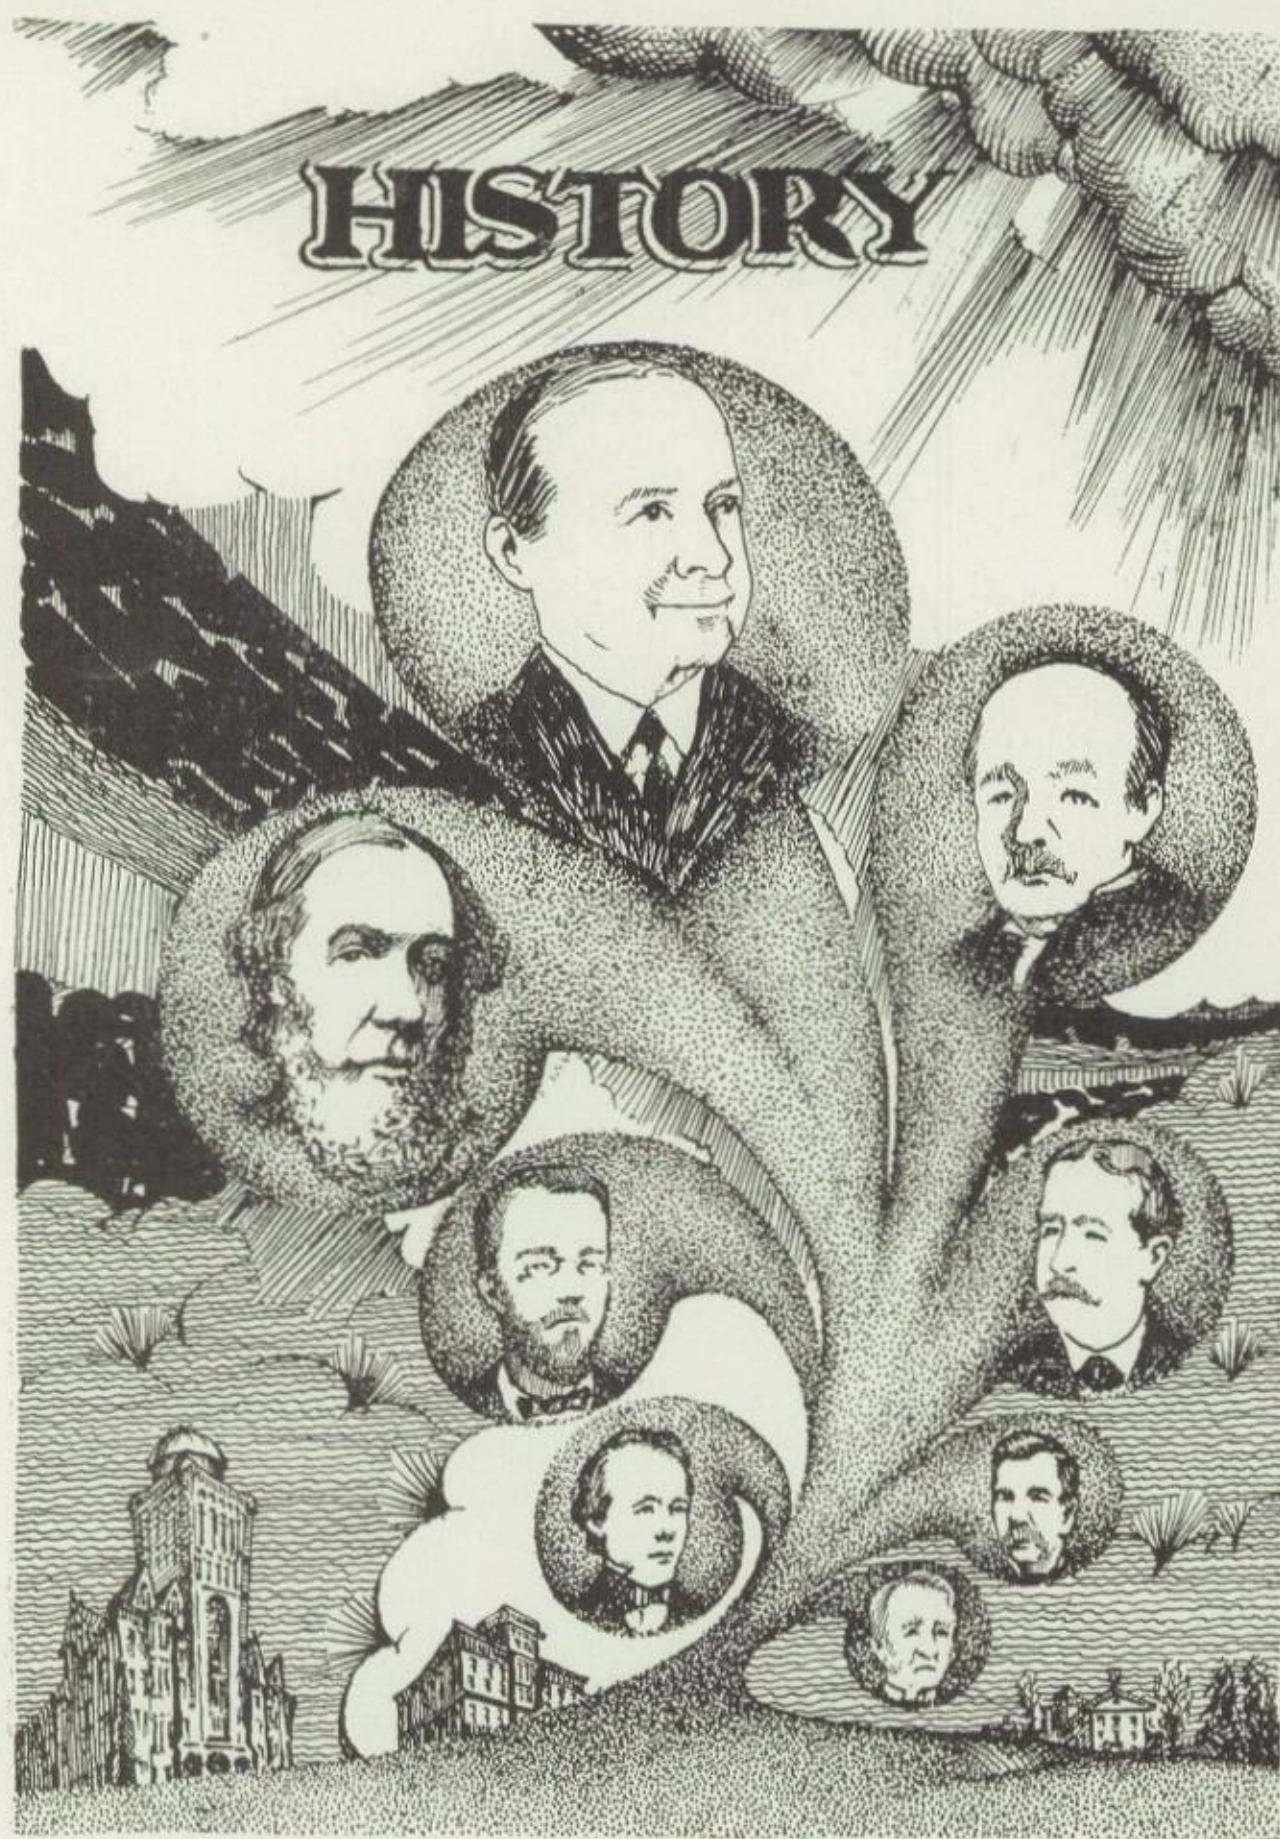

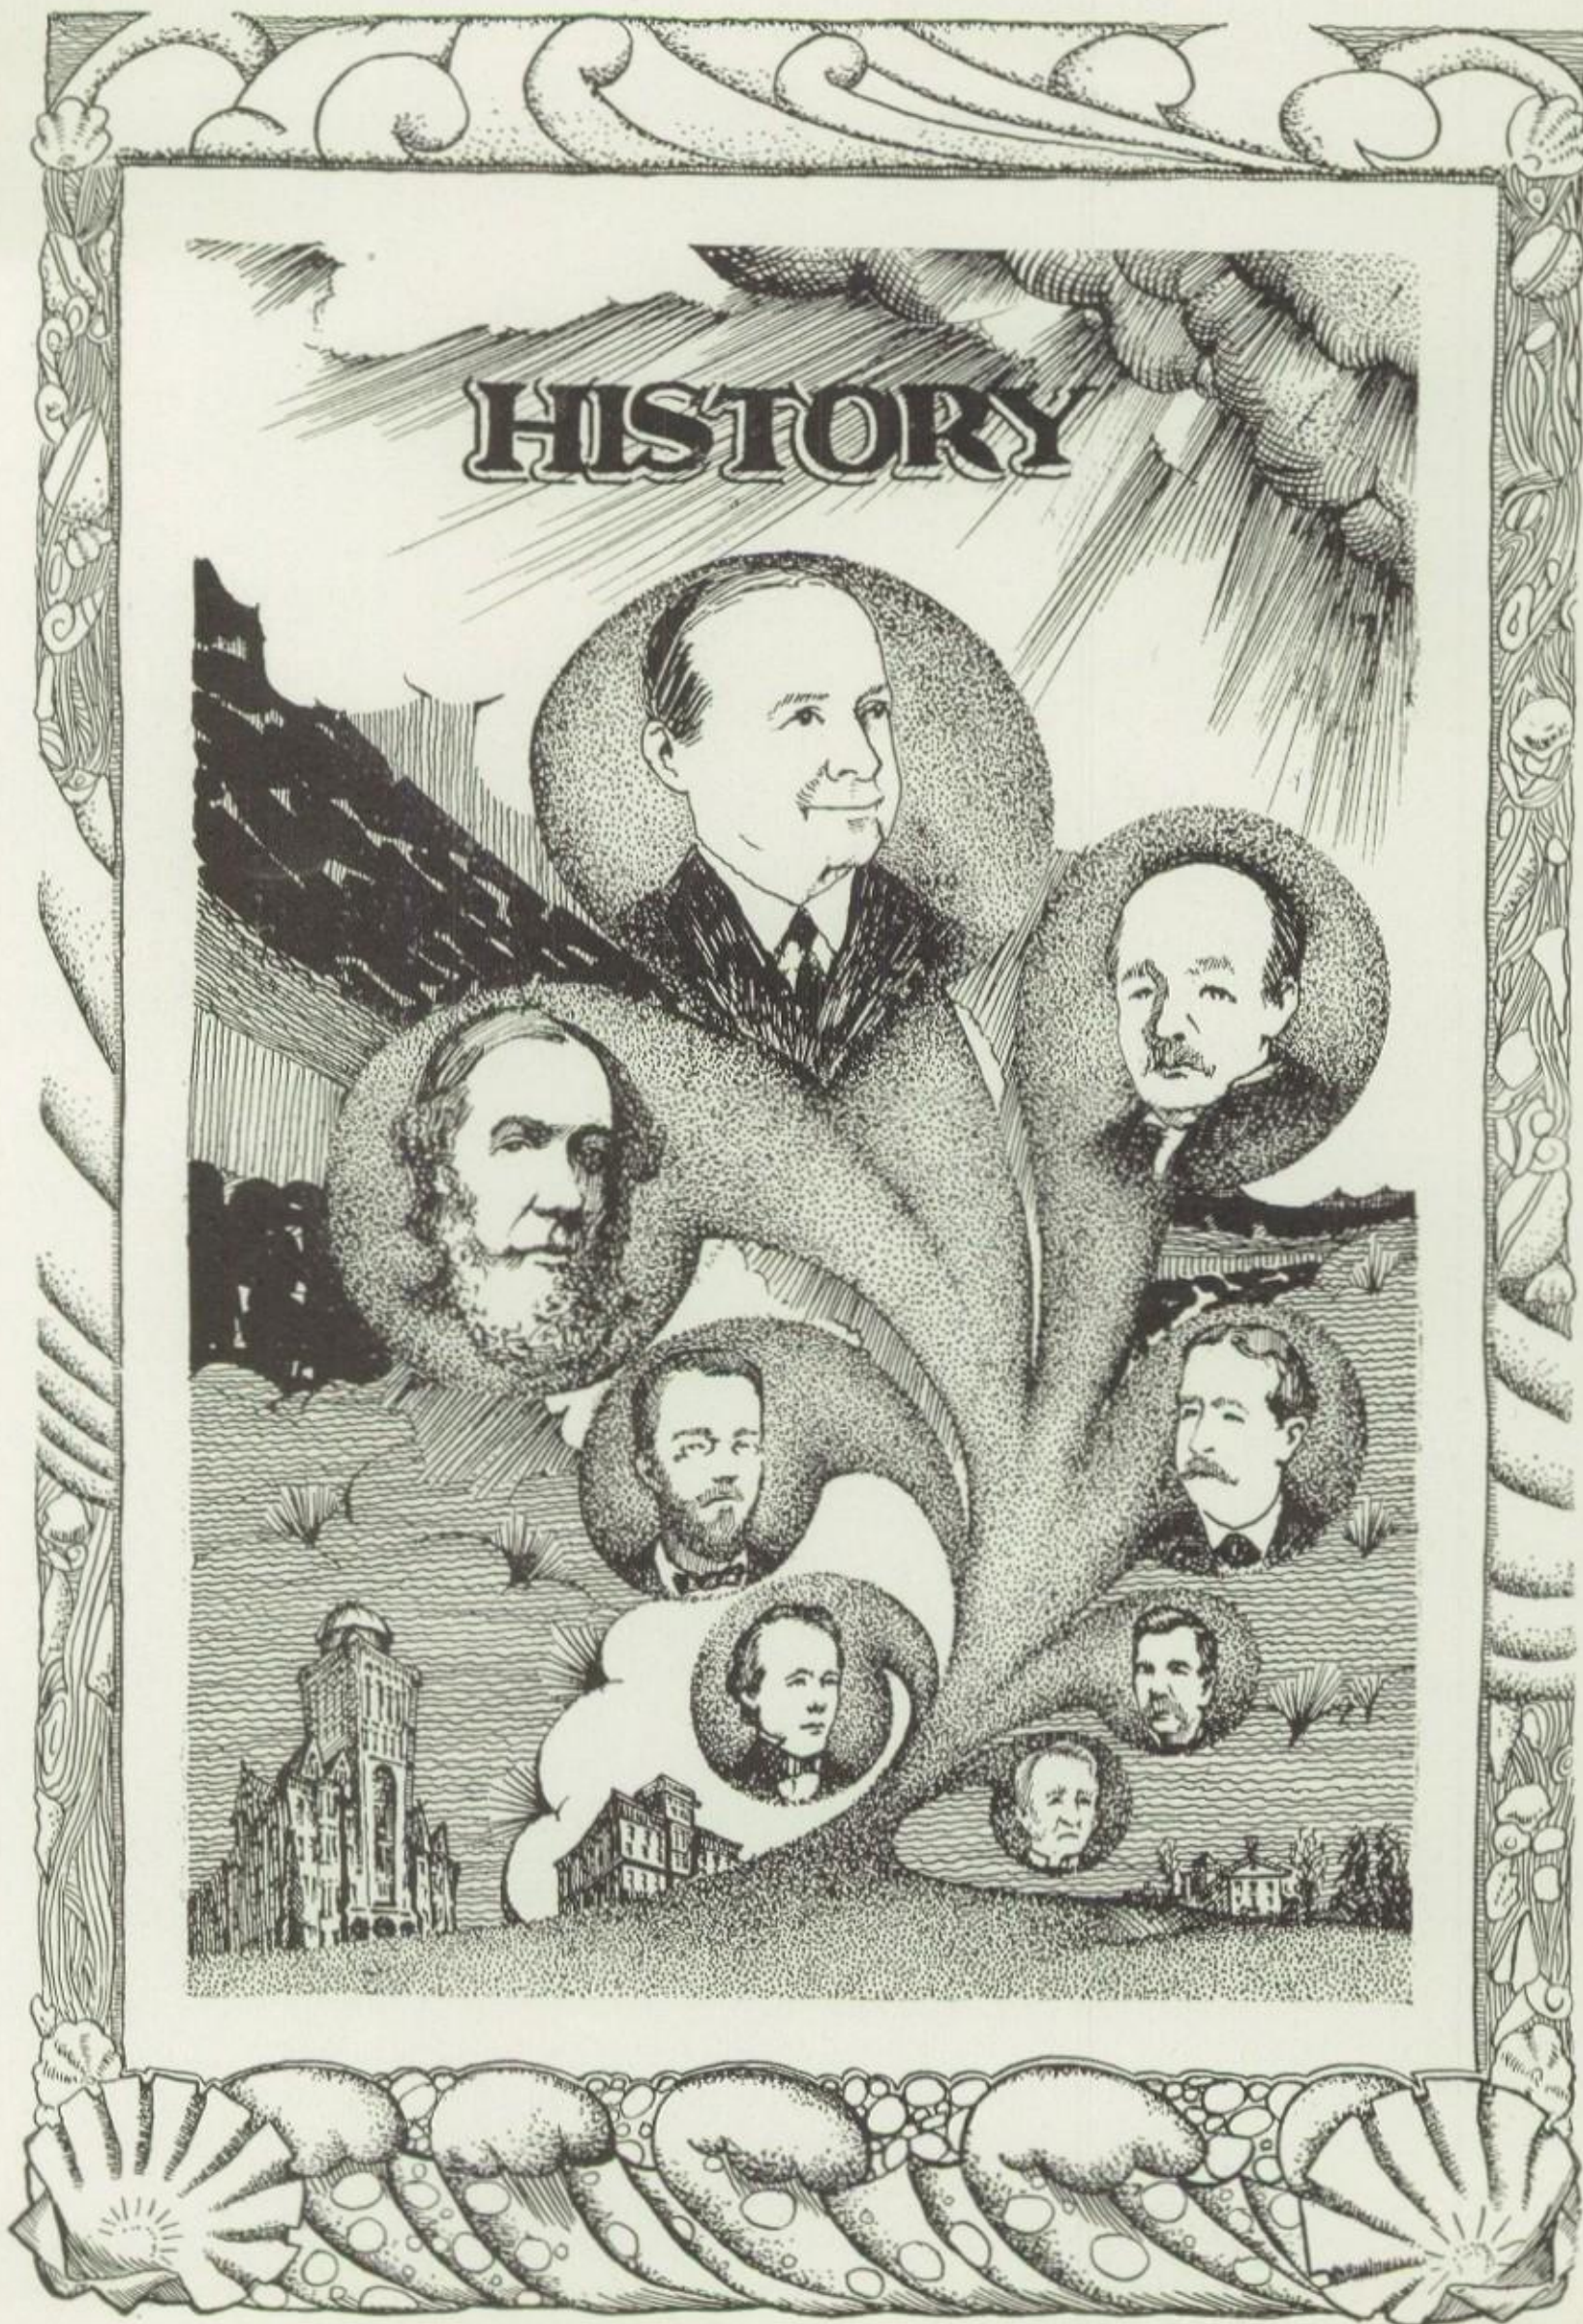

RECORD

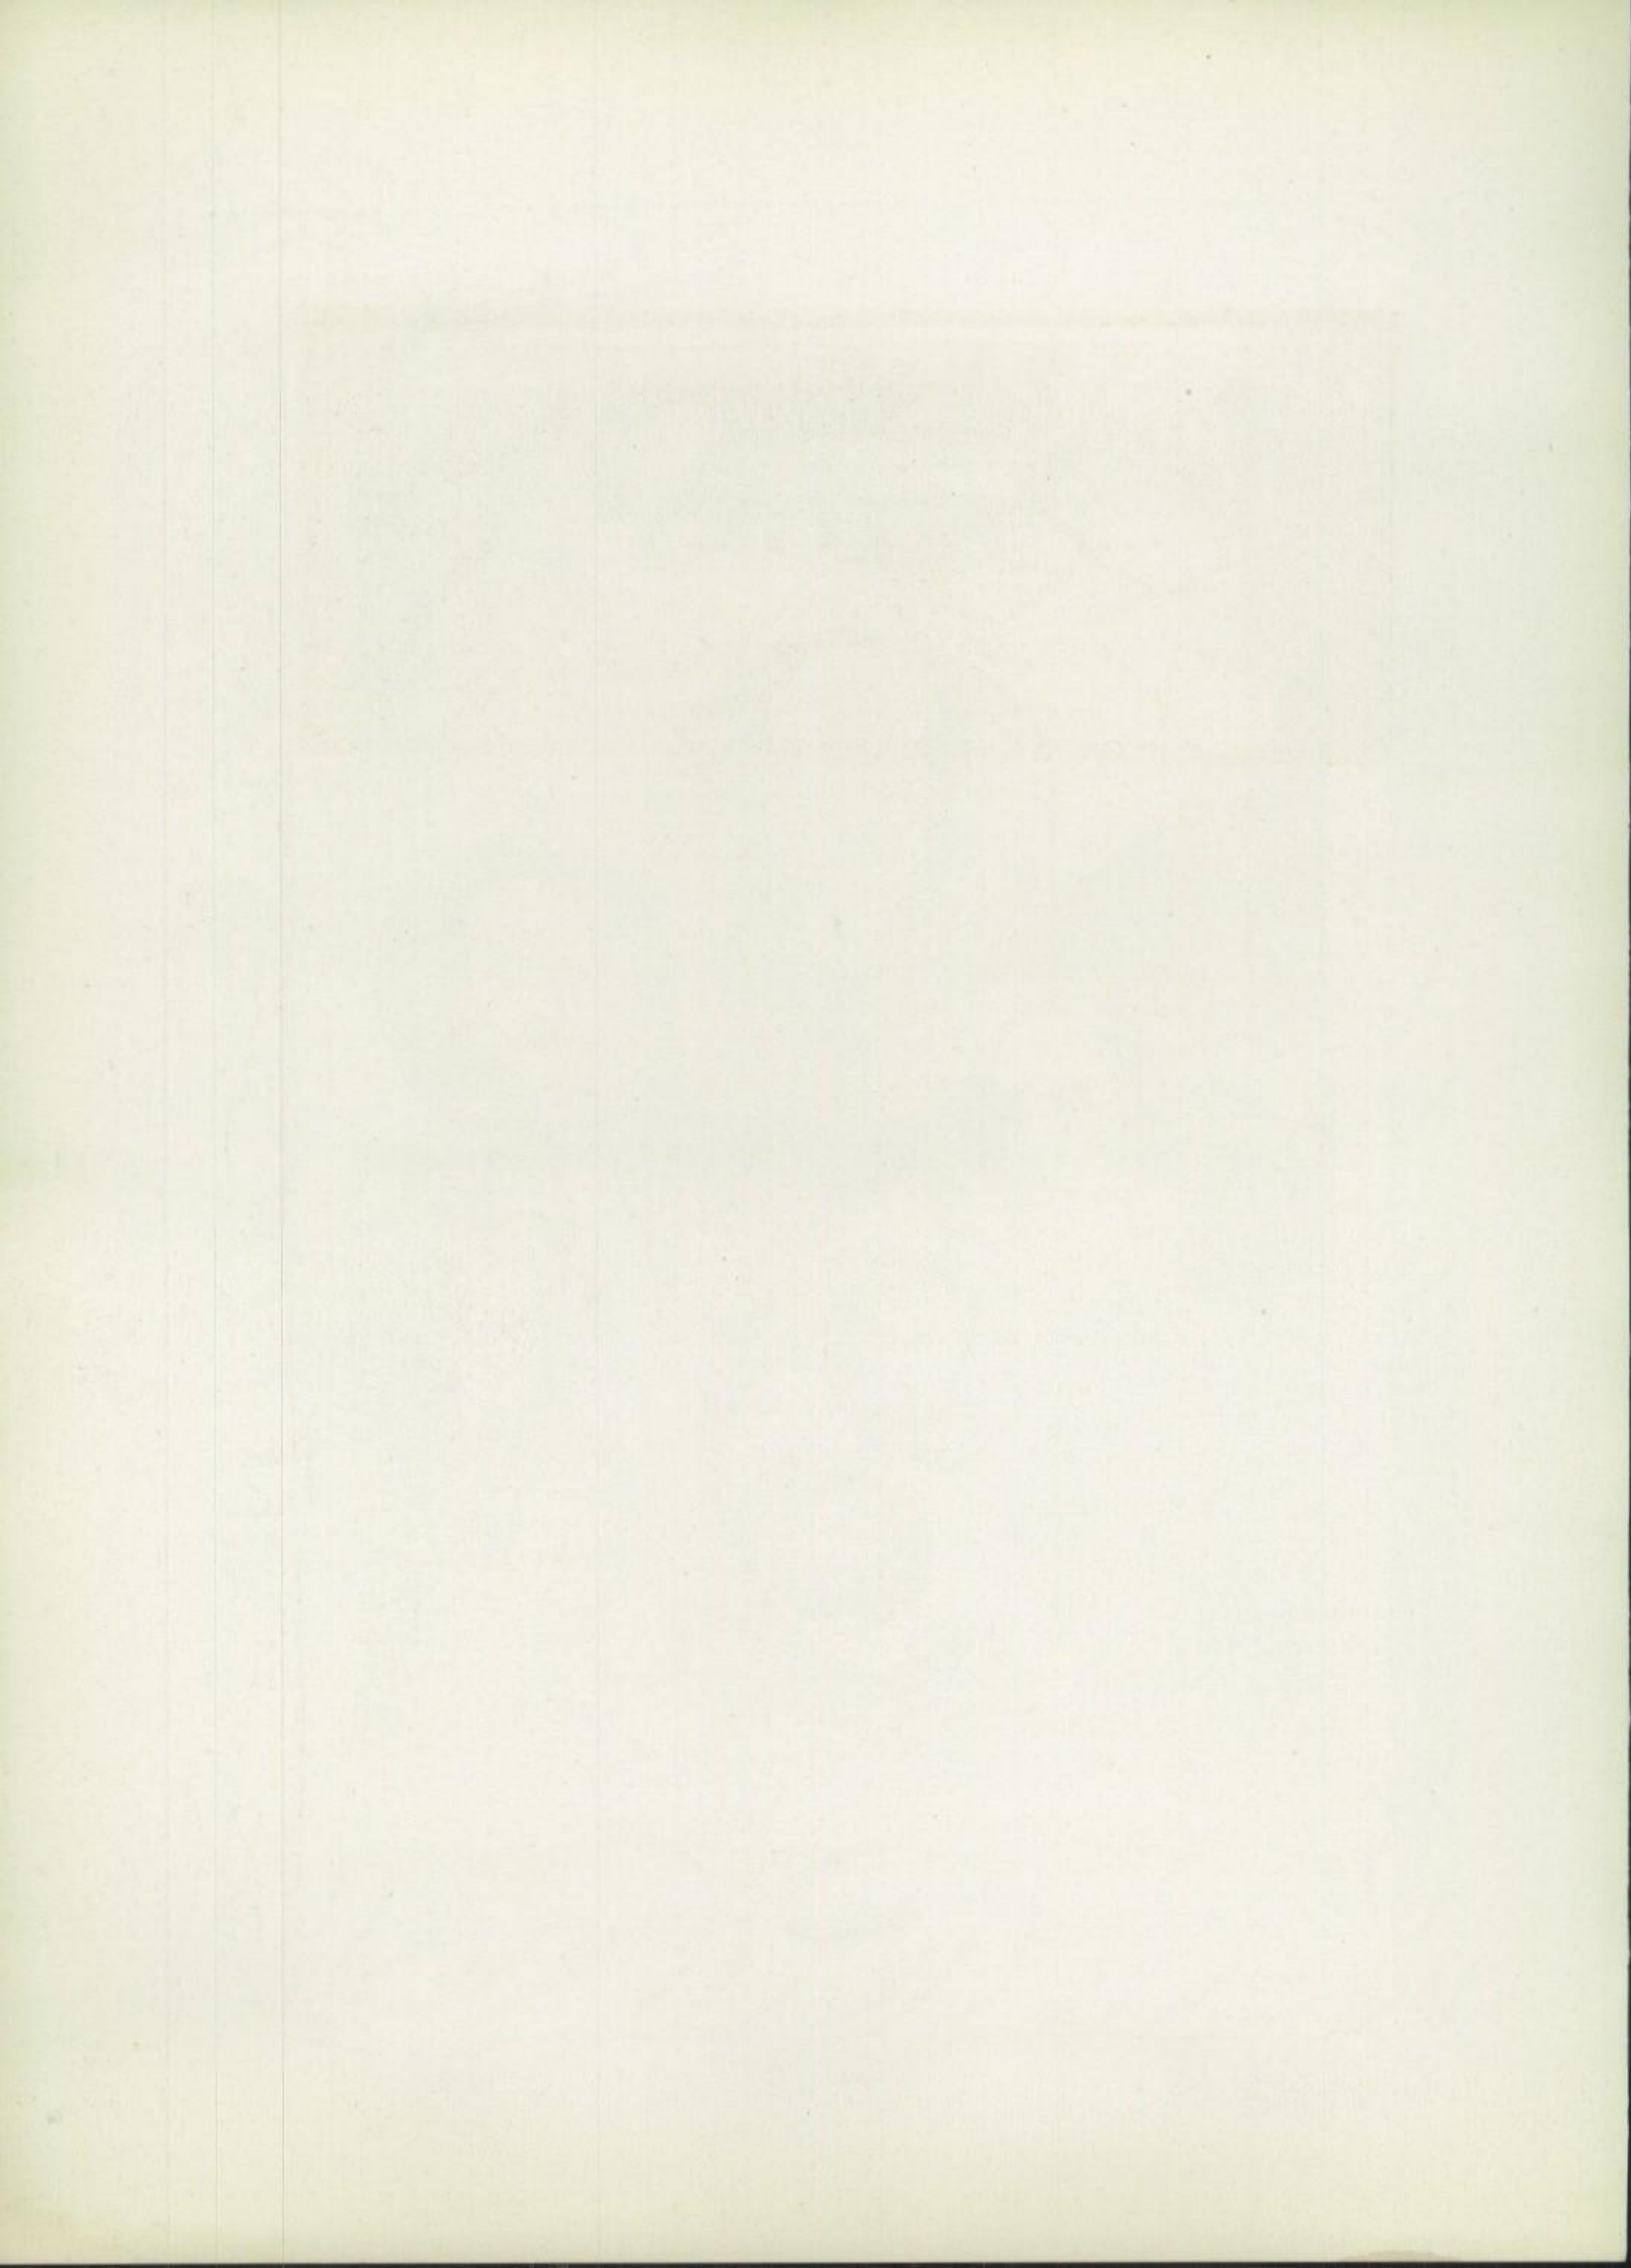

But yet awhile! Grief must not us beguile!
New trails before us lie, though sterner yet,
New toils, new thoughts, new friends, they offer as Before. These trails, the twisting roads of life,
A greater toll demand; wherefore thy shoulder to
The new stone put, wear smooth thy path assigned
Lest a Sisyphus the gods will fate thee, doomed
To lose thy hold when goal's in sight. So to
The last in making trails we'll e'er continue.

But what of thee, dear High? New friends we'll make,
'Tis so decreed; but can he, though he greatly search,
Another Pythias, Damon find? The head
Was not more native to the heart, the hand
More instrumental to the mouth than thee
To us; for ever didst thou us assist
And grant us of thy grace; of thy support
We all had need. For this we lived to thy Pleasure in word, thought, and deed.
But what in turn can we return for days
We'll ne'er forget? To live thy precepts taught
Will make thee proud; 'twill make men know
We come from thee, and thy bright fame shall on Our pinions fly, O dear, my Central High.

JACOB NEMIROFF.

CHS

AARON S. GROSSMAN, Historian

MEMORY is a great artist, and its paintings are among the finest and most beautiful things we carry with us through life. No matter where the stream of life carries us, whether it be through the streets of wretchedness and poverty or through the halls of fame and fortune, no misadventure can dim the brilliance of memory's masterpieces, for so finely etched are they that naught can harm them. And in the stress and strain of later years of contact with the world of realities, we shall find among our treasured things the memories of the school we are now leaving behind.

It has been a long, hard trail that has taken us through four years of our youth. They have been years filled with joys and sorrows. Many were the friendships that we have found in them, and they will stand the test of time after we have left the portals of Central. All of us are sorrowful as we realize that our high school days are over. Most of us would gladly relive them, but we must travel on, for there are many to come after us.

FRESHMAN YEAR

It was four years ago, a sunny day of September, 1928. We were seated in the spacious auditorium of Central High, gazing upon the wonders of a new world. In a short time we noticed a distinguished looking gentleman enter the auditorium, mount the platform and take his place behind the rostrum. After waiting a brief time for order, Dr. Haney, for it was he, proceeded to tell us of the greatness of Central. After talking to us for a while, explaining the rules of the school and impressing upon us the necessity of obeying them as citizens of it, he dismissed us, first telling us to report the next day at the same time. The next day we again presented ourselves and received our Pathfinders and some additional information from Dr. Haney.

We now were ready to begin our journey which was to take four years to finish, and upon which we were to come in contact with many strange things. Before long we found that the upper classmen were not as gentle and polite to us as was Dr. Haney, and that the professors had an entirely different conception of the meaning of the word "study."

The first review of the rolls convinced us that we would have to do real studying if we wanted to stay on the right road, which would ultimately lead to graduation. As a result, the days which followed brought us more satisfactory results in the way of marks, and by the time the second report period drew to a close we had accustomed ourselves to hard studying.

Our teams made no marvelous showings this term; we, however, ended the season in second place in the public high football league, being nosed out by West Philly, who took the title.

Near the end of the term an event occurred which saddened the entire school. It was the sudden death of a member of the faculty who was loved by all; namely, James Hugh Moffatt, head of the English Department. Although we were in the school only a few months, we had come to love Mr. Moffatt, and mourned his death greatly. After months of indecision, Prof. Gilmore was selected head of the English Department, and he has continued Mr. Moffatt's work marvelously, and deserves all the luck and best wishes which we of the class can tender him.

In a few weeks the third report period drew to a close, and with it our first term at Central.

After a week's rest, we returned to school to take our places as "high freshmen." This term found us continuing our energetic studying to obtain high marks. But occasionally, in the course of the term, we became "too wise," and were obliged to make trips to Mr. Faltermayer's office, where our names were entered in the "big, black book." At this time many of us proceeded to interest ourselves in various extra-curricular activities, such as Student Council, "Mirror," "Centralizer," and the various clubs which met after school.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

With heads high and steps steady, we again entered our Alma Mater. Gone were our freshman days and all the humiliations that came as a result of them. Our thoughts were now of the pranks we would play upon the incoming freshmen. With our experiences as a guide, we proceeded to get revenge. Ah! how they did suffer!

This term many of us became acquainted with the Barnwell Foundation and its purpose; and now wish to express our thanks for all the benefits it has given us.

It was, too, during this term, that the long sought for was procured; namely, a football championship.

This was the first football championship in nine years, and was accompanied by extensive celebrations. The team set out determined to win the championship which they had come so close to winning the previous year. Under the masterful coaching of Bert Barron and the brilliant leadership of Merrill Morrison, they could not be turned aside. They lost their opening game to Southern, but not losing their spirit they ploughed through the remainder of the schedule without a loss, ending up at the top of the league. In addition to this championship we received the Whitaker Sportsmanship Trophy for good sportsmanship during that year.

RECORD

During the latter part of the year the class was saddened by the death of one of its members, Kenneth Geisert, of the mechanics arts section. He was president of the section and a favorite of the entire class. We feel his loss greatly.

The term was drawing to a close, and we "wise fools" were ready to don the robes cast off by the retiring juniors. With our class slightly smaller than it was a year before we entered upon our vacation. After a lapse of three months, we returned for our final two years.

JUNIOR CLASS

Returning, we found an entirely new system in progress. A system of promotion by subject which replaced the traditional promotion by grade system. "Books" replaced "sections," and home-room periods came into effect. Each student was given a separate roster. The horrors of study hall were introduced this term, together with the Welfare Committee, which became custodian of the "Sacred Black Book," formerly kept by "Uncle Joe." This committee, although not loved, is headed by a loyal advisor and friend, Prof. A. J. Kaplan.

We doubted at first if this system would become permanent, but in a short time everything was working smoothly and the regular routine of the school began.

To get back to the immediate class affairs, we proceeded to establish our class organization which is to be started in the junior year. The first thing we did was to elect a class advisor. After a short delay the class decided to select Prof. Damon P. Vickers, the well-known cross-country coach, to lead us over the remainder of the trail to graduation. Elections for class officers were held soon afterward, and we elected the following to serve as officers in our first year of organization:

President, Samuel A. Sopenoff; Vice-President, Martin Grossman; Treasurer, Jack Ovcharov; Secretary, Sidney Shore.

We were now fully organized, known as the 158th Class, and proceeded to function as such.

President Sopenoff soon appointed his committees, which were headed by the following:

Executive, Samuel A. Sopenoff; Finance, Jack Ovcharov; Ring, Louis Goldberg; Benefit, Harold N. Metzger and Sid Sandler; "D" Paper, J. Milton Stander.

All the committees began working, and in a short time they all were producing results. The first issue of the class paper, entitled the "D" Tales, made its appearance and was enjoyed by all. This paper continued to make its appearance at frequent intervals during the term.

The Ring Committee was working hard, and in a short time announced that orders would be taken for class rings. A rush to order rings started, and before many months had elapsed we were sporting our new rings.

CHS

RECORD

The football team again upheld Central's traditions and brought home another championship. In spite of the fact that the occasion was not as marked as that of the previous year, there were many thrills and hard fought battles before the season finally ended with Central on top. This championship was also accompanied by such rejoicing and celebration by both the students and alumni, and for many days afterwards it was talked about.

Not long after this the "D" term came to an end and we left school, returning a week later to finish the last half of our junior year.

The Junior Day, B-C hop and "C" Paper Committees were appointed and were headed by David Kaufman, Phil Cohen and Milt Stander, respectively.

Junior Day plans were begun, and before long the sale of caps and ties was started. Although we did not make any brilliant showings in any of the events, we tried our best and put plenty of fight and spirit in the various games. These games will long be remembered by those of us who witnessed them.

The Hop Committee was organized by this time, and before long the Stephen Girard Hotel was selected as the ideal spot for the "May Frolic." Moe Saltz and his orchestra were engaged for the dance, which proved to be both a financial and social success.

The representatives to the council this term were: M. Grossman and Dave Cherry, while Aaron Grossman and Marty Grossman were selected as justices of the Tribunal.

Dr. Mitchell and Mr. Casner, two veteran faculty members, announced retirement this term as head of Language and Art Departments, respectively. They were succeeded by Dr. Eldridge as head of the Language Department, and Prof. Milliette as head of the Art Department.

THE SENIOR YEAR

The first thing we did upon our return to school was to hold elections for officers for the senior year. After the ballots were counted it was shown that we had chosen the following to lead us for the remainder of our stay at Central:

President, Samuel A. Sopenoff; Vice-President, Sidney Shore; Treasurer, Jack Ovcharov; Secretary, Arthur Gorelick.

President Sopenoff selected his committees, the chairmen of which were as follows: Executive, Samuel A. Sopenoff; Finance, Jack Ovcharov; Benefit, Milton Smith; B-C Hop, Mike Brown; Pins, Robert Shapiro; Picture, Theodore Smith; Class Paper, Samuel Feinstein.

The Benefit Committee was the first to get to work, and after many weeks of hard work by the committee a benefit was procured, which we are sorry to say proved to be a failure, netting us only a few dollars.

The Hop Committee soon began to work, and the Oak Lane Review Club was selected as the location for the annual Football Hop, with Al Pollack and his Elk's Orchestra furnishing the music for the affair. The dance proved a great success both socially and financially.

RECORD

The football team, continuing its good playing and hard fighting, annexed the third consecutive title. The greatest rival this year was Simon Gratz, and during the Gratz game it seemed that Central might lose the championship to this hard-fighting eleven. But Central spirit and fight forced the players on, and the game ended 12-6 in our favor. Central also won the mythical city championship by defeating West Catholic, champions of the Catholic League. The members of the team received rings and sweaters this term as a token of appreciation for their good work and energetic efforts. The cross-country and swimming teams also won the championships of their divisions this term and they, too, received sweaters from the Student Association as a token of its appreciation for their good work. The basketball team brought home another championship, winning every league game.

Central this year, for the first time in its history, won the Andrew J. Morrison Trophy, which is awarded to the school scoring the highest number of points in all sports for the year.

To return to our class affairs, Morris Kimelman was selected as Editor-in-Chief of the RECORD BOOK, and he proceeded to organize his staff, which soon began to work.

"Teddy" Smith was working hard, and soon we were notified to go down to Zamsky's and get our "mugs mapped," which we proceeded to do.

Sam Feinstein's "B"-quest made its appearance at frequent intervals during this term and contained news of great importance and interest to all of us.

Again the school was saddened by the sudden death of Prof. Lloyd M. Knoll, of the Science Department, which occurred on January 3, 1932. He was a friend to all who knew him.

In a few weeks the term came to an end, and after a week's rest we returned to finish our final term at our dear Alma Mater.

Things happened fast in these last few months. Council elections were held, and Harold N. Metzger, of our class, was elected president. The representatives of our class in council this term were: Sopenoff, Kimelman, Kety, A. Grossman, M. Grossman, P. Cohen, B. Stahl and Cook.

The council appointed Aaron S. Grossman as general chairman of the Student Patrol, and before long the School Police Force was fully organized and working superbly.

Morris Kimelman was selected as Editor-in-Chief of the "Mirror," with Aaron S. Grossman as business manager.

President Sopenoff appointed his final committees and created an executive committee. The executive committee consisted of Samuel A. Sopenoff, chairman, Sidney Shore, Jack Ovcharov, Arthur Gorelick, Harold N. Metzger, Aaron S. Grossman, Martin Grossman, Morris Kimelman, Seymour Kety, Samuel Feinstein and Jack Korman.

The "A" Committee chairmen were as follows: Executive, Sam Sopenoff; Finance, Jack Ovcharov; RECORD BOOK, Morris Kimelman; Prom, Morris Brown and Jack Segan; Cap and Gown, N. Bleshman; Banquet, Morton Levy and Robert Callahan; "A" Paper, Samuel Feinstein.

CHS

RECORD

The class paper, under the name of "A" Men, appeared frequently, containing class news of great importance.

The other committees were now working hard to get everything ready for the greatest events of our high school days, the prom, banquet and commencement.

One day elections were held for Class Day officers, and after the ballots were counted it was shown that the following were elected:

Class Historian, Aaron S. Grossman; Class Poet, Jacob Nemiroff; Class Prophet, Samuel Feinstein; Class Presenter, Robert Shapiro.

About a month later elections for popularity honor men were held, and after the ballots were counted it was shown that the class had selected the following as its four most popular members.

First Honor, Harold N. Metzger; Second Honor, Martin Grossman; Third Honor, Seymour Kety; Fourth Honor, Samuel A. Sopenoff.

Spurred on by the triumphs of Central's athletes, the debating team this year won the Philomathean Cup, emblematic of the City Championship. Our class representatives on the team were: Kety, Melnick, Stander and Hollander.

The Dramatic Club presented Merry Madness, and it proved to be a huge success, providing many a laugh for those who attended. Jack Korman, Si Gilbert and Harold N. Metzger, of our class, were among the stars of the cast.

Returning to our immediate class affairs, preparations for the prom and banquet were now about completed, and in a few weeks (to be exact upon the evening of June 3rd), the prom, our greatest social event, was held in the beautiful new ballroom of the Stephen Girard Hotel, with Gene Batt and his Musical Commanders furnishing the music. The affair was a splendid success, and Chairmen Brown and Segan are to be congratulated for their good work in making it so.

On the evening of June 17th, our banquet was held, and to the tune of "soup music" presentations were made. None of us who attended this affair will ever forget it.

Thus the history closes upon the greatest social events of our high school life. As we leave our school we cannot help but feel a pang of sorrow and regret when we think of our leaving her familiar halls. However, we must travel on for there are others to follow us. Many were the joys and sorrows which we experienced, and many were the cherished friendships which we found at Central.

And as we leave we look with a different light upon our various Student Government Organizations, and came to the realization that their primary purpose was to better prepare us for contact with the world of realities. We also come to the conclusion that the professors, although inclined at times to give us bad marks, did their best to impart to us knowledge which would aid us in later life.

And so the history closes with just one hope from the historian, a hope that the class will long continue to meet after graduation and frequently read over this history, so that the various happenings of the "good old days," when we were Central students, can be talked about.

CHS

CLASS DAY OFFICERS

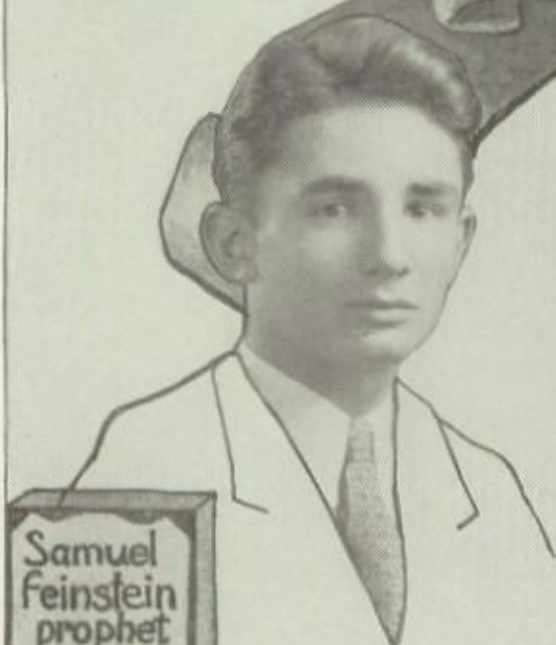

Aaron
Grossman historian

Jacob Nemiroff poet

C
H
S

Samuel
Feinstein prophet

Robert Shapiro presenter

3
2

158

CHS

RECORD

LITERARY

CHS

Morris Kimelman
editor-in-chief
"MIRROR" and
"RECORD"

seymour kety editor-in-chief
"CENTRALIZER"

samuel Feinstein
"MIRROR"
"CENTRALIZER"
"RECORD"

Jacob
Nemiroff
"MIRROR"
"RECORD"

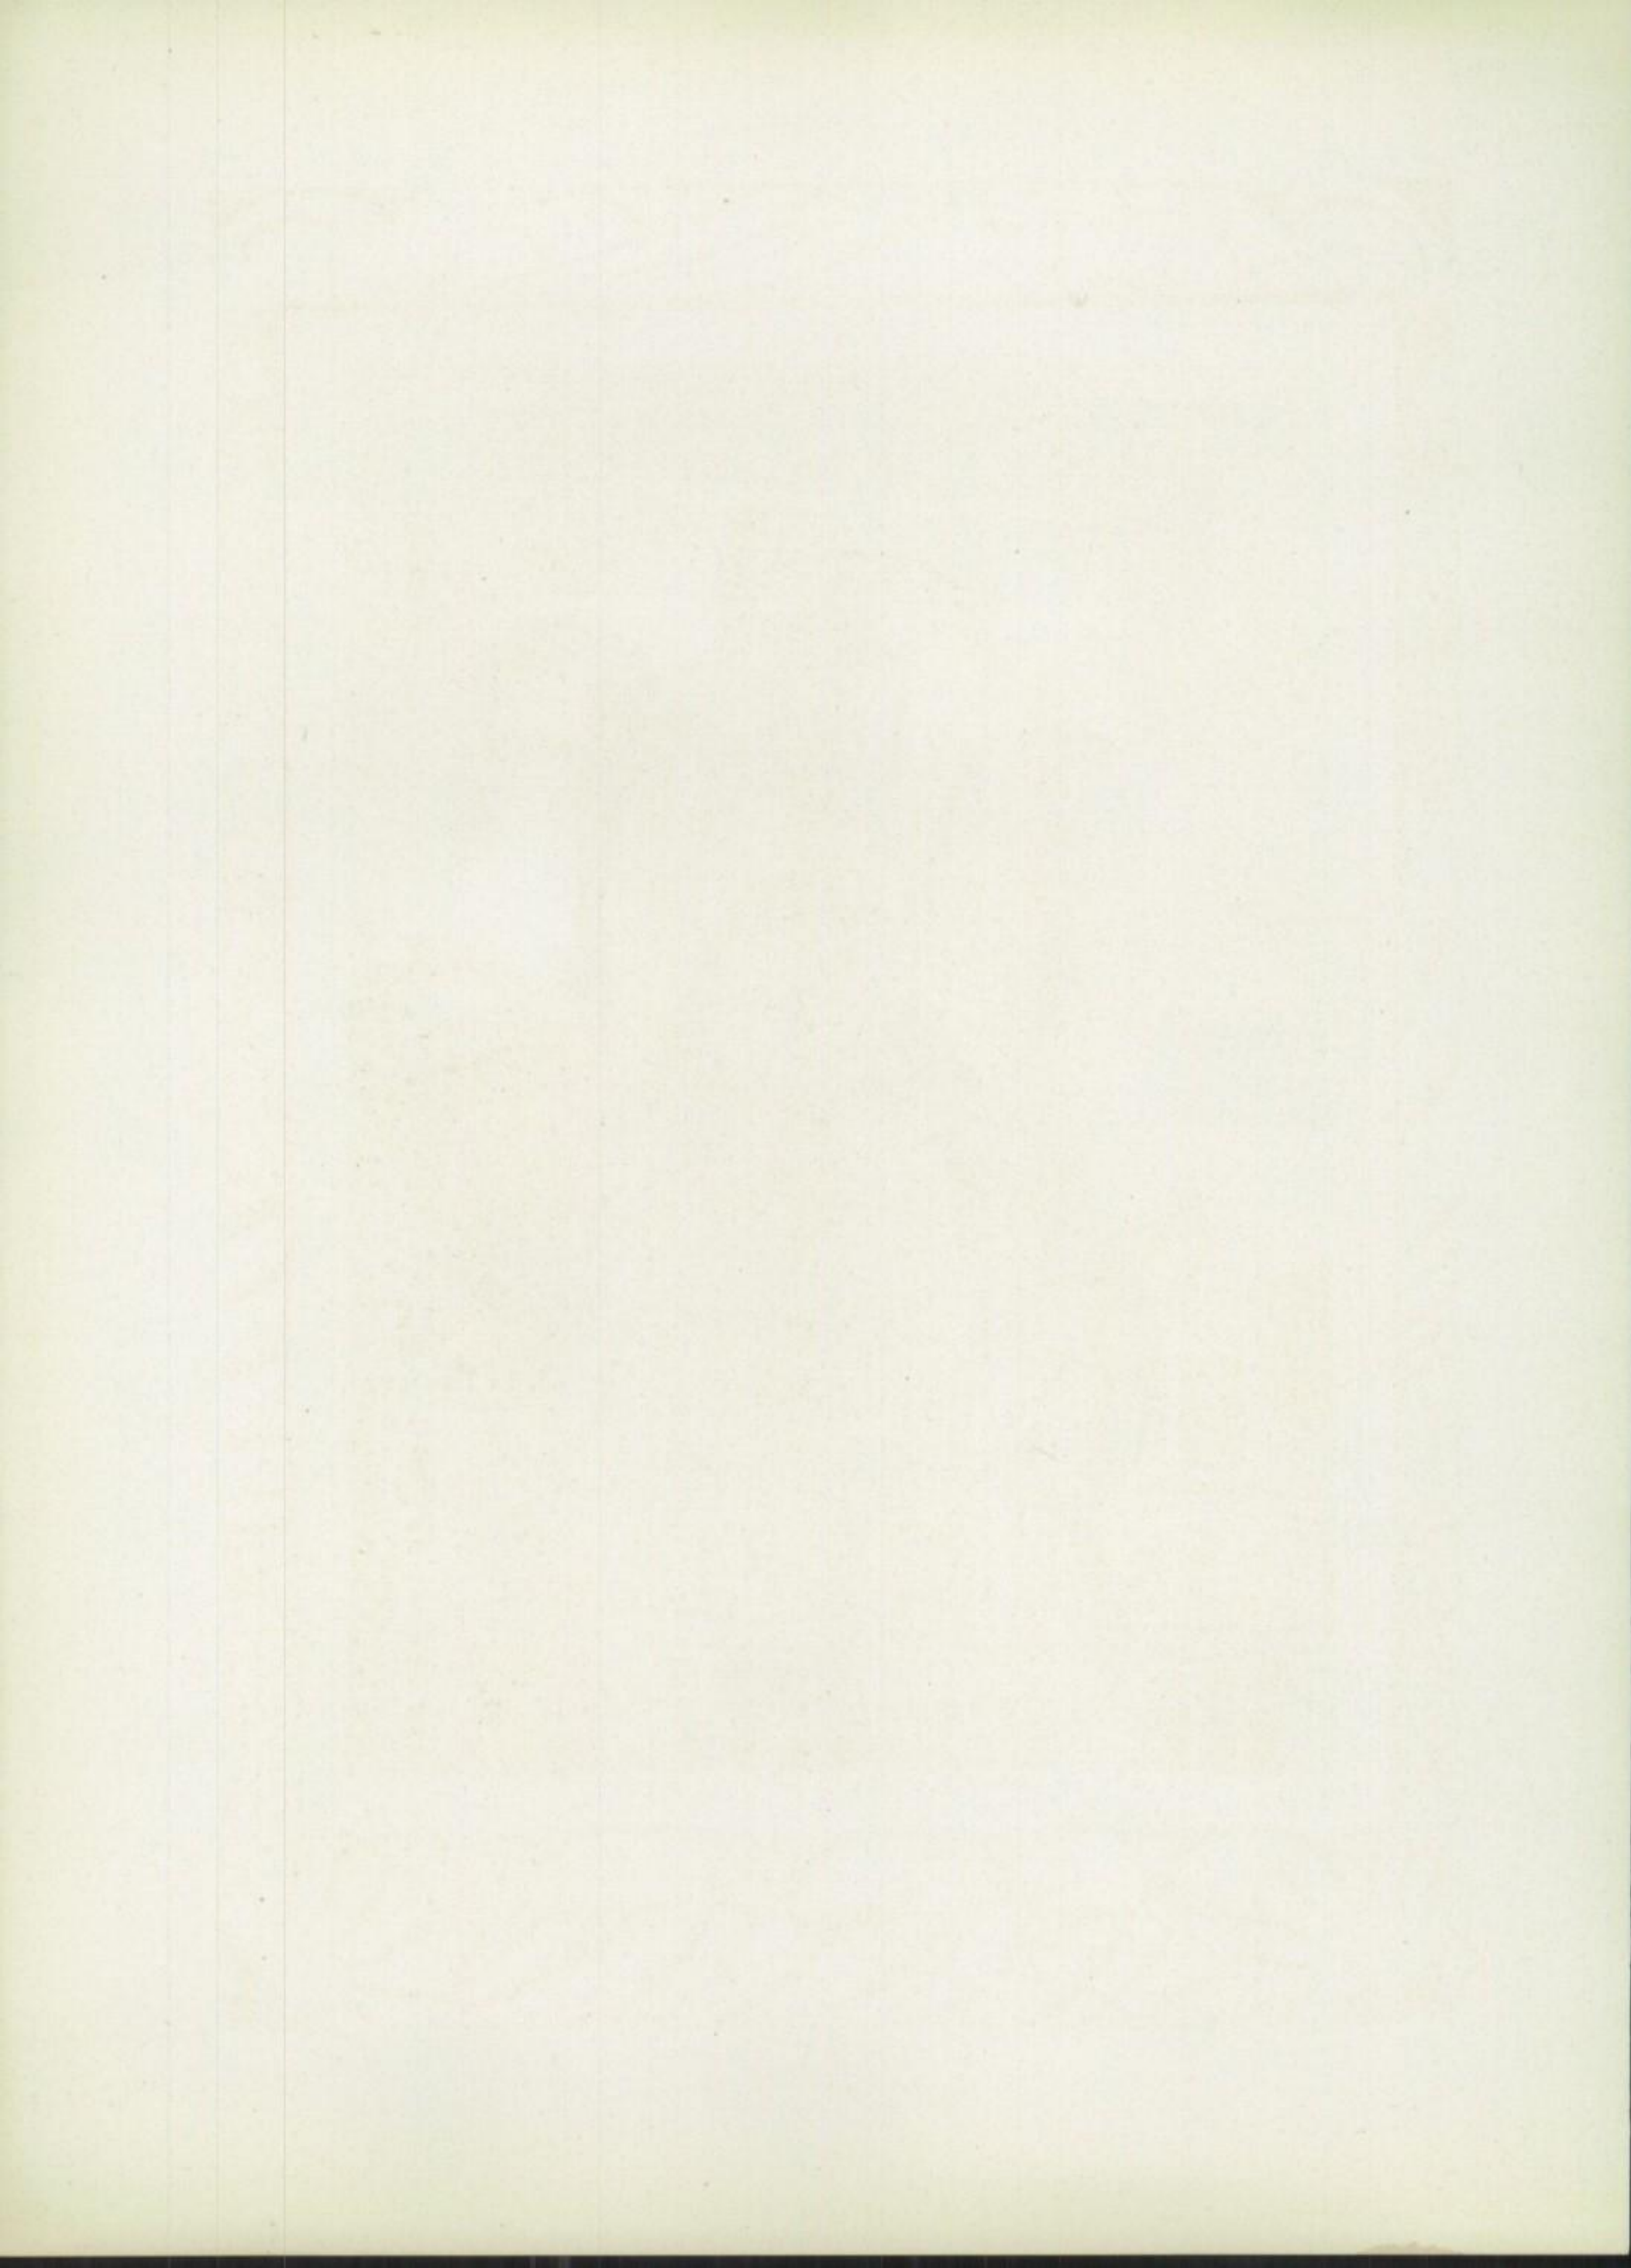

158

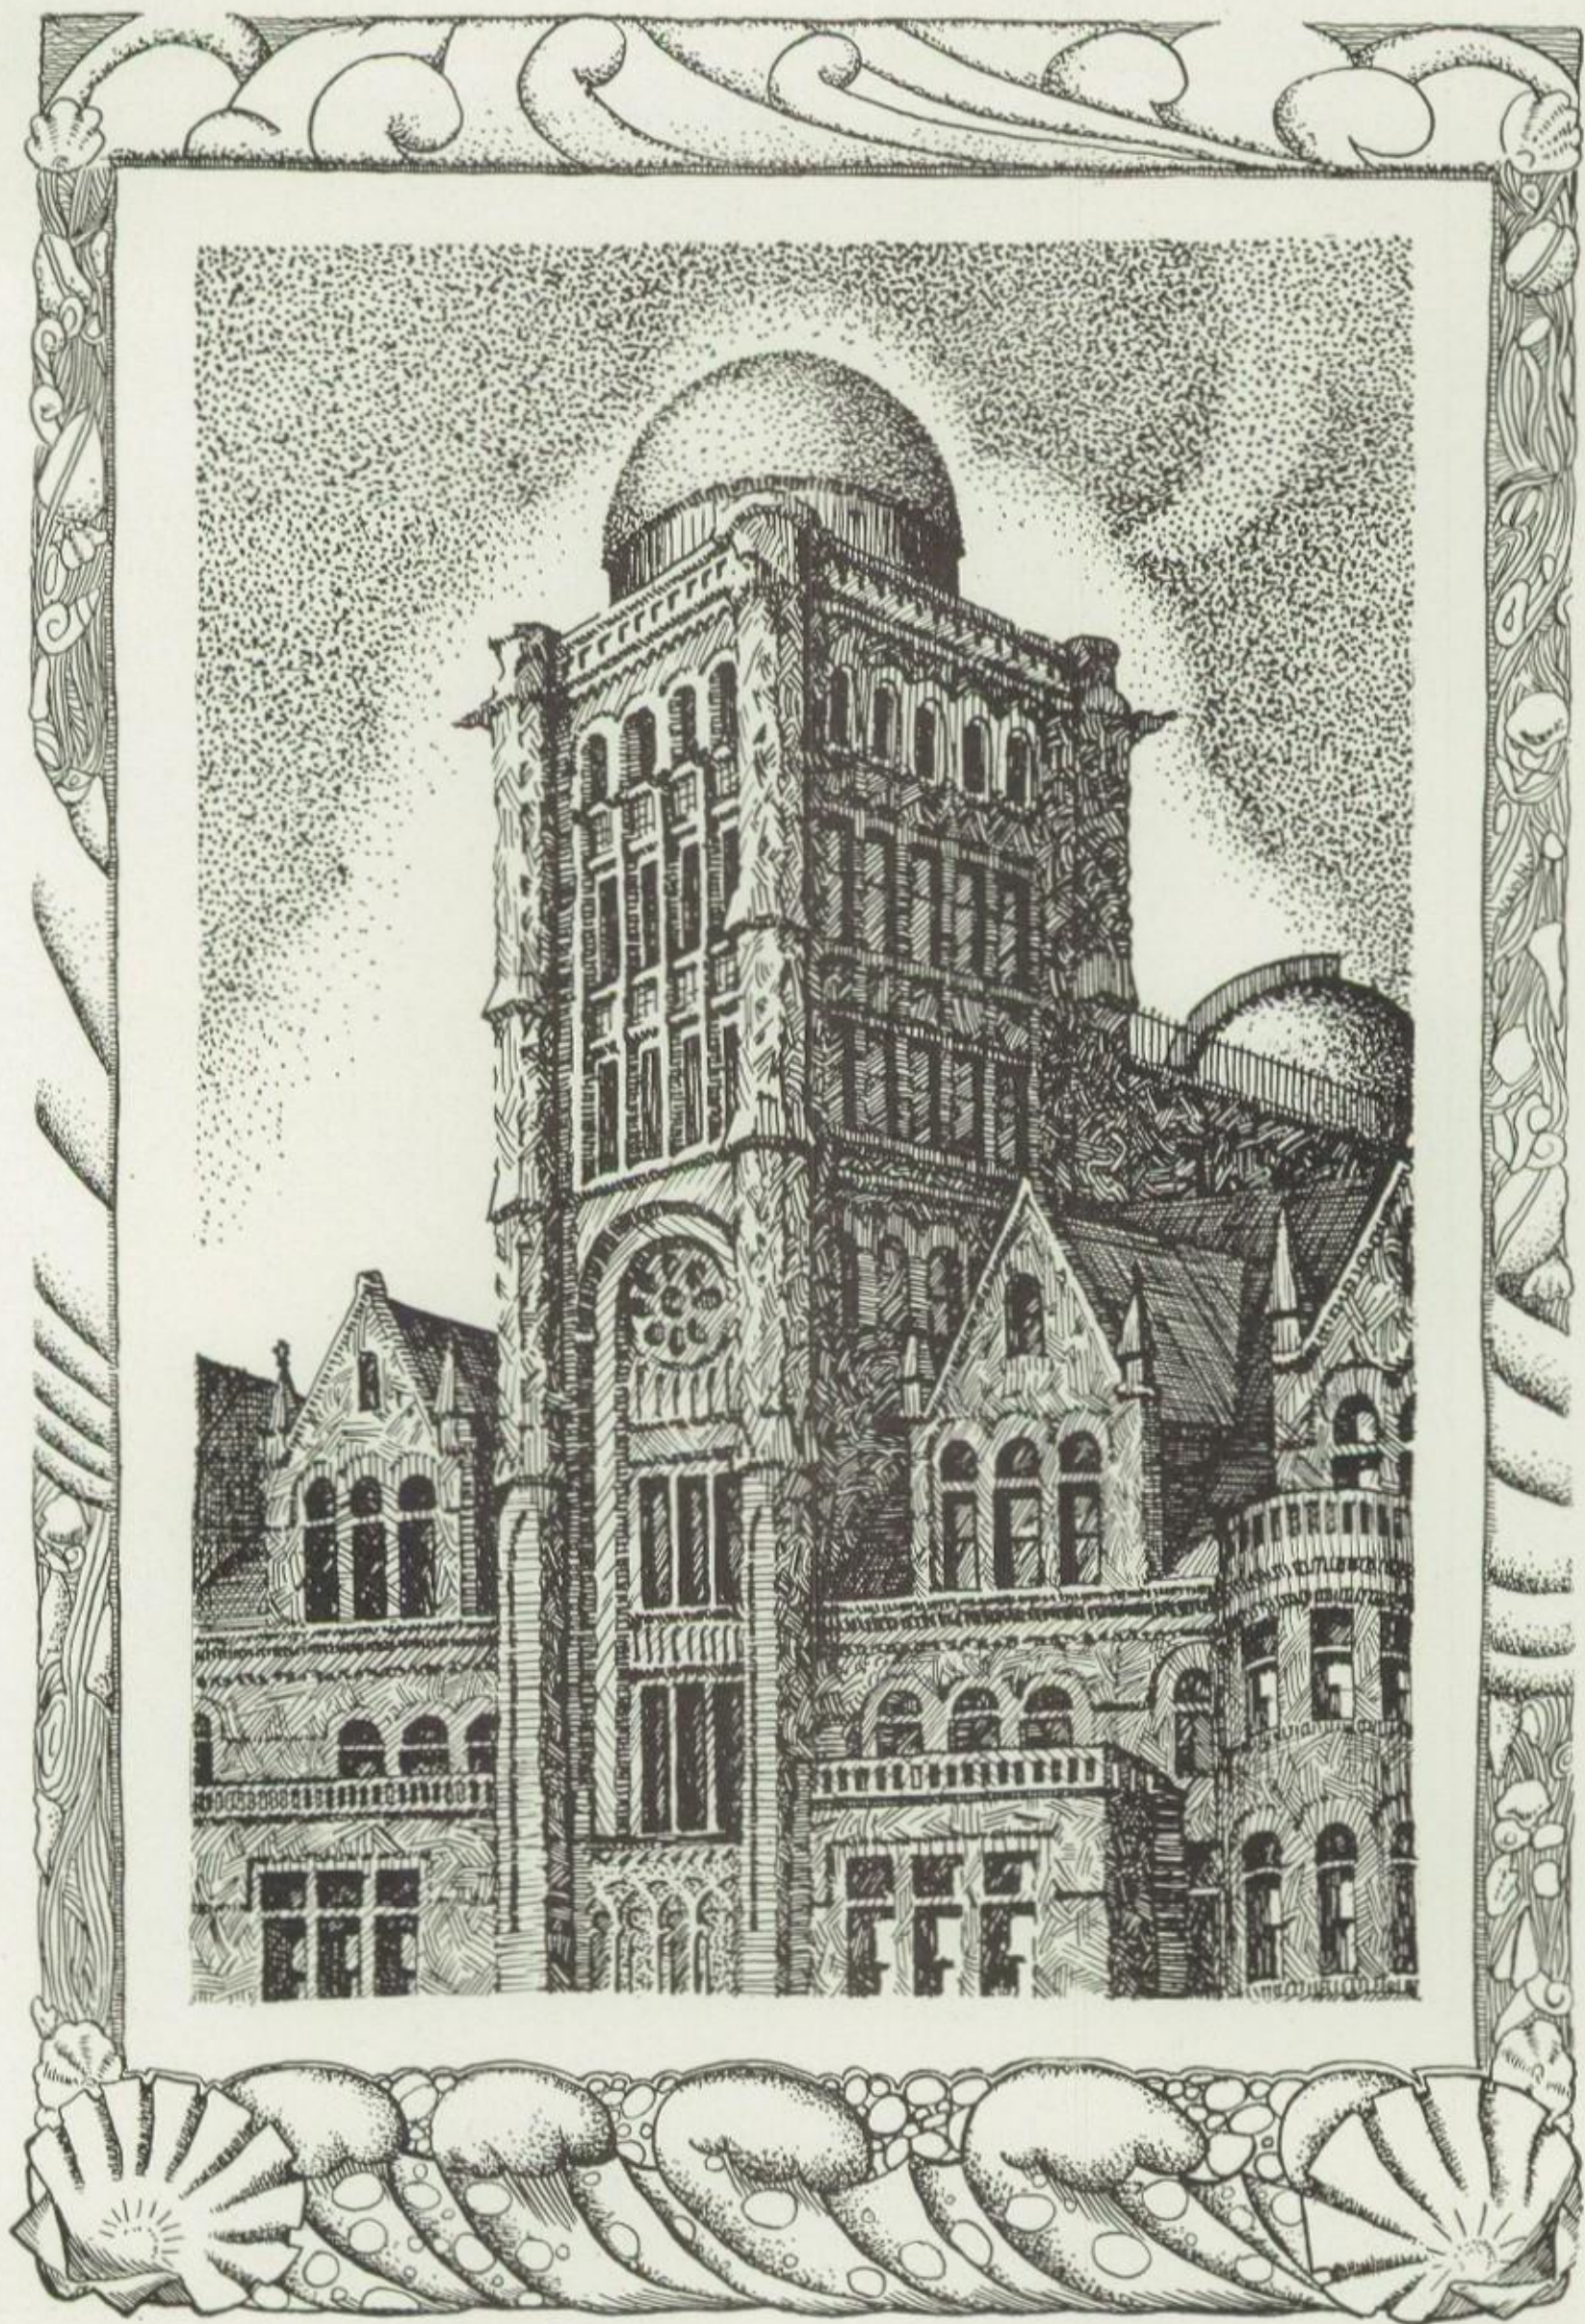

CHS

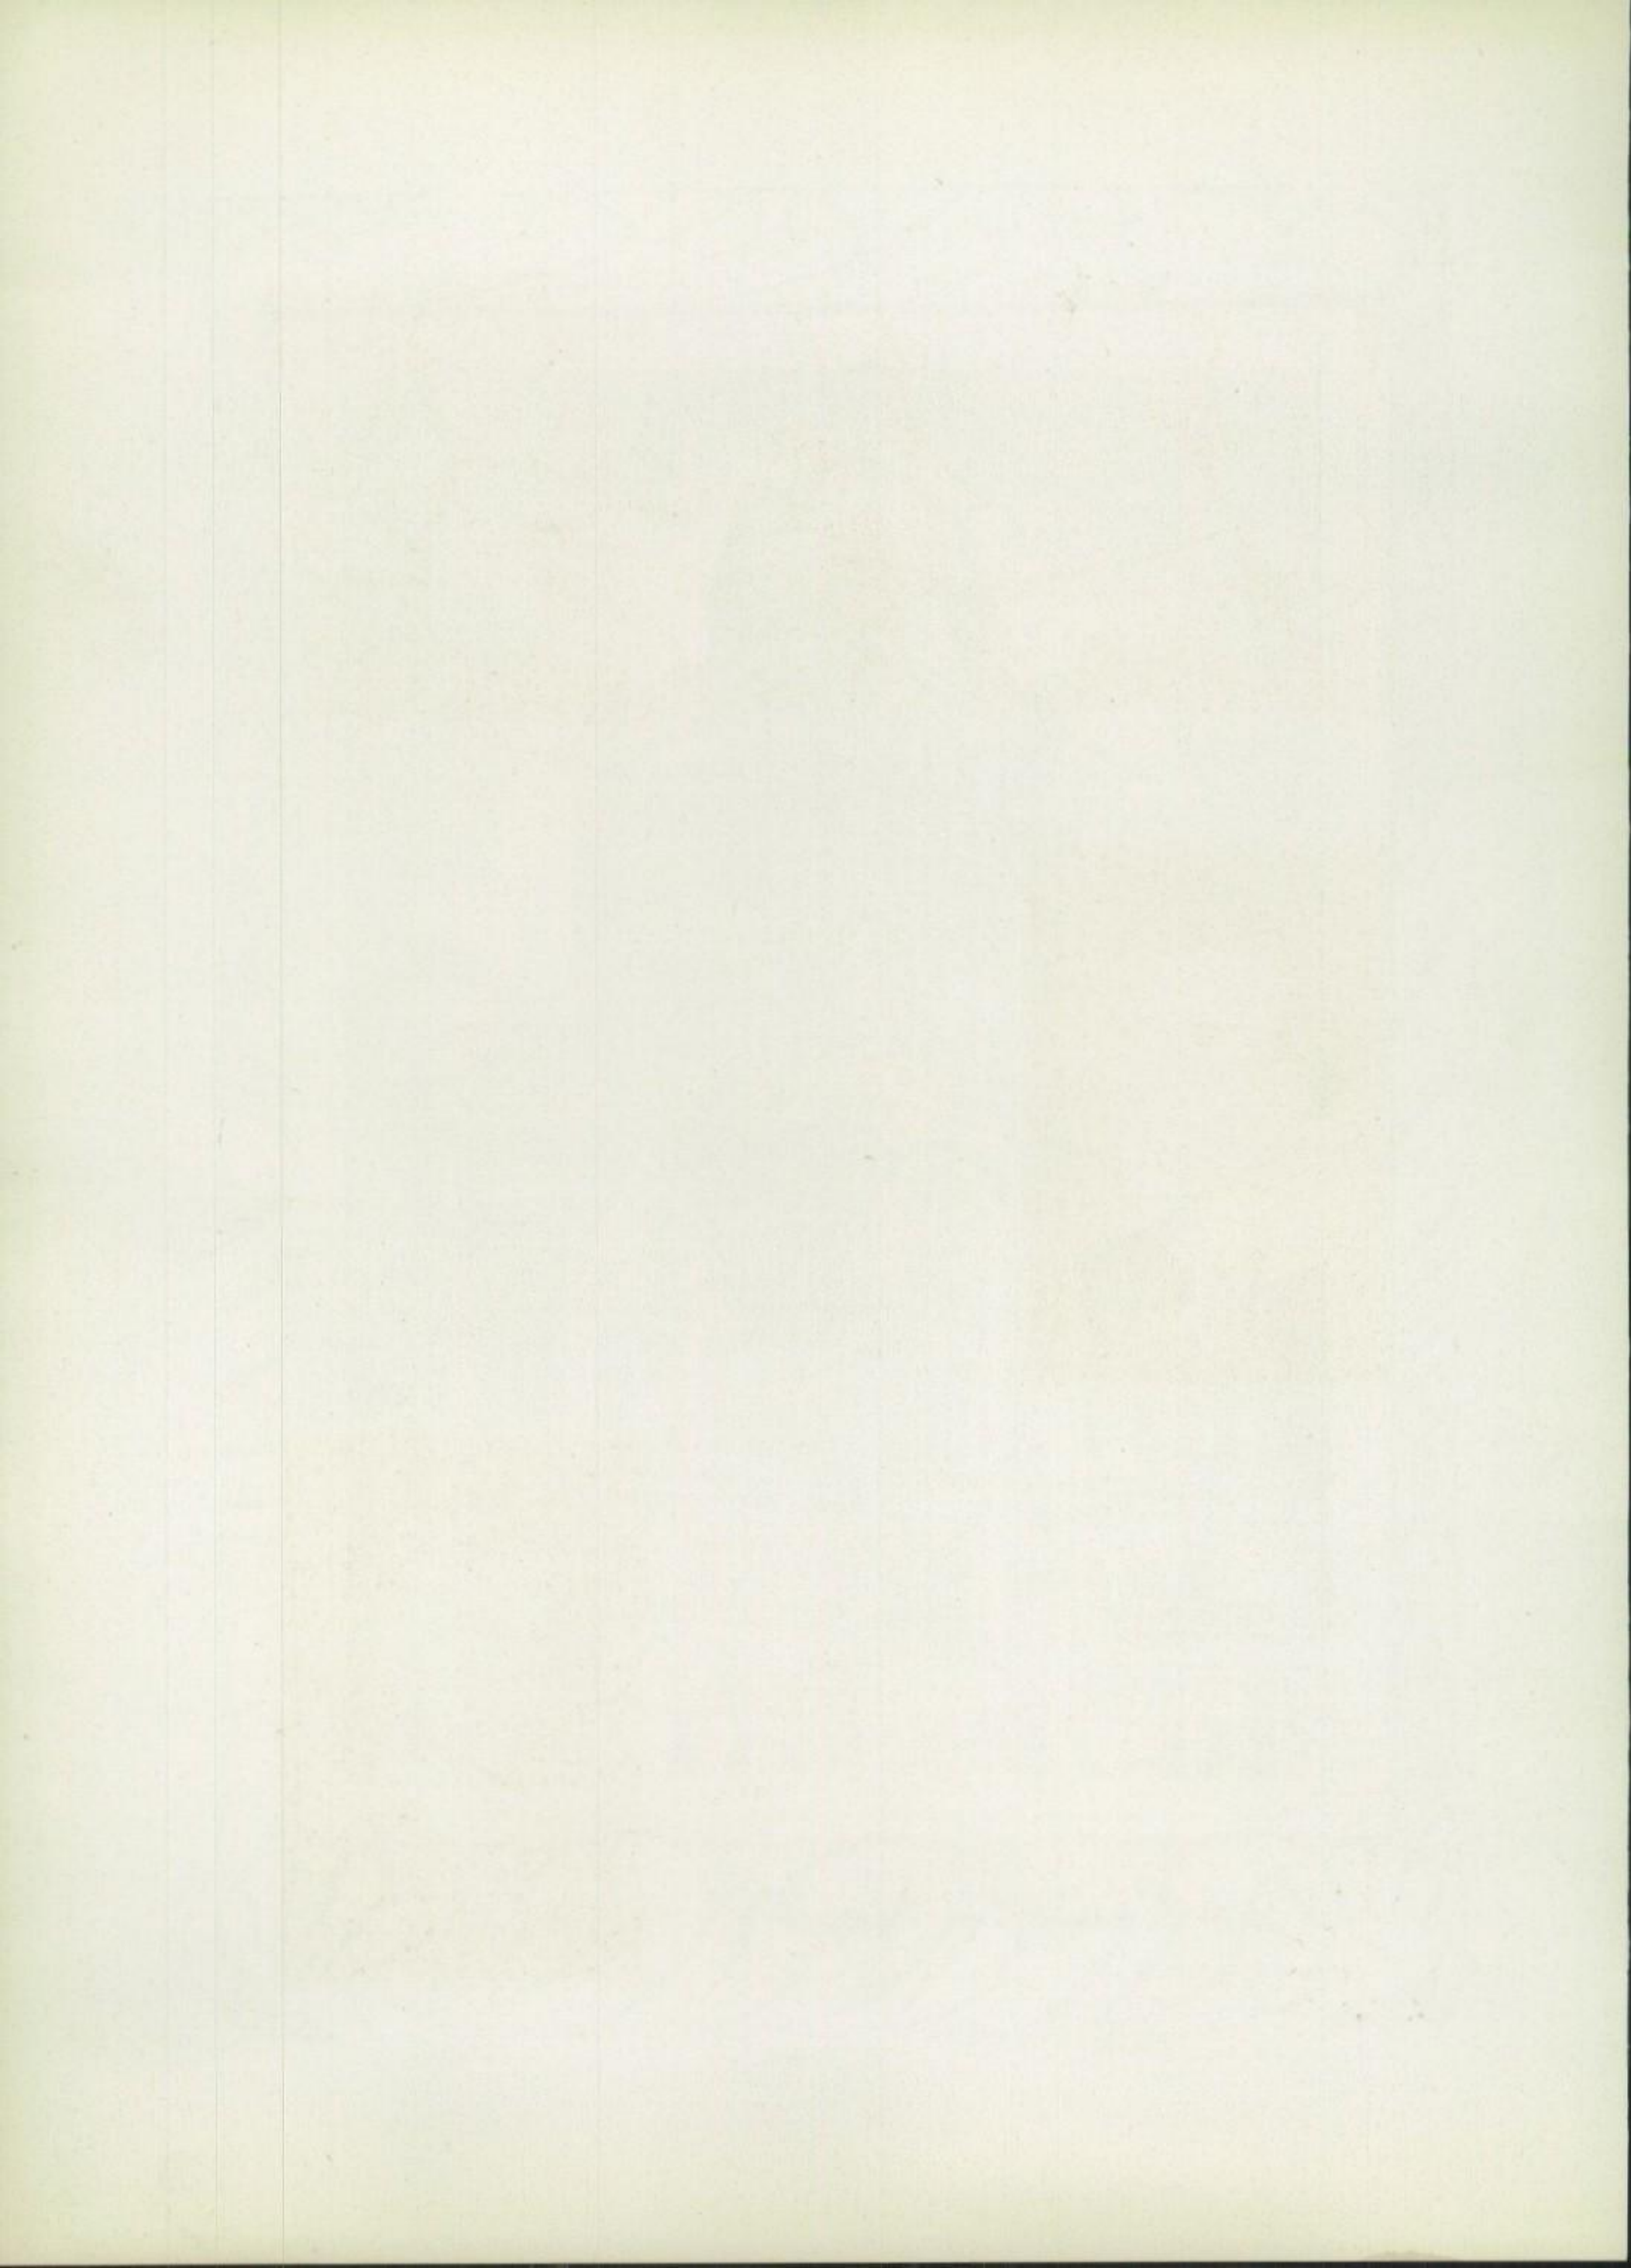

RECORD

CHS

Record

MORRIS J. ACKERMAN

"Moish"

1810 N. SEVENTH ST.

JOSEPH FERGUSON SCHOOL

(Industrial Arts Course)

"This is indeed a man!"

—All's Well That Ends Well.

"Moish" might well be called the ideal class member and a good man to begin the class roll. He is active, co-operative and studious. He makes a specialty of games of mental contest and has been able to hold his own against many of the pros. Architectural drawing standards have been increased by "Moish's" example and his reputation as a budding architect has become widespread. The brass plate which he has designed for the skyscrapers of the future reads:

BUILT BY MORRIS J. ACKERMAN, ARCHITECT EXTRAORDINARY

ACTIVITIES: Industrial Section President (D); Industrial Mirror Representative; Barnwell Honor Roll; Student Patrol.

HOBBY: Automobiles.

FUTURE: Architect.

FREDERICK APPEL

"App"

1629 GERMANTOWN AVE.

JOHN MOFFET SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Our remedies oft in ourselves do lie
Which we ascribe to heaven."

—Hamlet

"Whoever hears 'App's' voice knows he is affected by 'growlingitis'." However, it didn't scare the pros. Evidently "App's" mind was too high up to be appreciated by them. This may explain why a certain social science prof was always bombarding "App" with questions. However, "App" looked cool and nonchalant and thus he passed. If basketball has anything to do with his magnificent frame, then it's just the game for "Doc" Haimovitz.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Basketball; Baseball; J. V. Basketball (D, C); Chemistry Club; Astronomical Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Driving.

FUTURE: World's speed record.

ISADORE AXLER

"Iz"

829 N. SIXTH ST.

GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Here's gold for thee."

—Timon of Athens

Some observant contemporary has suggested that William Shakespeare got his idea of Shylock on a visit to C. H. S., but he missed much of the inspiration because Shylock is a mole hill by comparison. Shylock made his money "breed as fast as ewes and goats," but "Iz" got our's without any stock to start with. That was a good book treasurer. He is the answer to Ovcharov's most fervent prayer. He has been just as bad with the profs, for he made them hand over the E's without so much as a struggle.

ACTIVITIES: Book President (D); Book Treasurer; Chemistry Club; Camera Club.

HOBBY: Clock Ticks.

FUTURE: Law.

JOSEPH BARBAGALLO

"Barb"

2123 MORRIS ST.

VARE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"And him! O wondrous him!
O miracle of men!"

—King Henry IV

If you want to ask "Barb" about radio ask him to tell you what he doesn't know, for if you ask him what he knows and he takes the question seriously, you will have a long session of listening. In the hands of this wizard of radio the most thoughtless static becomes a Vallee croon. He aims at radio chief of the S.S. Leviathan. Well, where will they find a better?

ACTIVITIES: Study Hall Radio Operator; Radio Club; Camera Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Radio.

FUTURE: Radio operator.

HERMAN BASSMAN

"Reds"

627 POPLAR ST.

CENTRAL EVENING HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"I know his gait, 'tis he."

—Coriolanus

When you gaze at this fellow's handsome physiognomy, we feel sure that one out of one is not going to say, "Who the heck is this guy?" "Reds" made certain that it shouldn't happen, for he roamed all over the football field to show that No. 37 stood for "Reds" Bassman—football player de luxe. "Reds" was also famous for the original turkey trot he introduced on the field to distinguish himself from the other players. And when he took up wrestling it was just too bad for his opponents.

ACTIVITIES: Football Team, '30-'31; Wrestling Team, '30-'31; Track Team, '31-'32; Baseball Team, '32; Junior Day Track; Baseball.

HOBBY: Athletics.

FUTURE: Football.

CHRISTIAN BAUER, JR.

"Chris"

613 N. SEVENTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Gay hope is his by fancy fed."

—Ode on Eton College

Action pictures! Right down on the sidelines, camera in hand, and eyes on the play, that's the way "Chris" got the pictures. And were they "Chris" pictures that took the prize in the Centralizer? Get the editor's word for that. No matter how ugly the objective, Bauer always manages to get some kind of negative, even if it's the results. One might expect "Chris" to have quite an exhibit.

ACTIVITIES: Senior One-Mile Team, Northeast Relays; Camera Club; Craftsmanship Club; Interclass Athletics; Centralizer Photographer; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Fords and Riders.

FUTURE: Photography.

DAVID V. BELLACE

"Dan"

1334 RINGGOLD ST.

G. S. BENSON SCHOOL

(Industrial Arts Course)

"His greatness is a-ripening."

—King Henry VIII

Latent power! Why "Dan" fully convinced most of his profs that he has latent power; vast, vague, but hidden talents that some day will bring him into the places of the mighty. His well cultivated habit of thoughtful silence has brought forth a harvest of professorial commendation, as his records show. A winning personality and his versatility are the reasons for his circle of inseparable companions.

ACTIVITIES: Book Treasurer; Industrial Mirror Representative; Library Assistant; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Books.

FUTURE: Aeronautical Designer.

ARMAND LOUIS BERNABEI

"Bern"

1025 CHRISTIAN ST.

CAMPBELL LYONS SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Thou shalt not outwit me

Or outpersuade me."

—The Iliad

"Bern," the man with immovable hair, is with us because the fame of the old institution has spread to the distant climes and called this ambitious student from the very shadow of South Philadelphia High School. A dear friend suggested that "Bern" prefers his girls from distant places, so he looks to Girls' High and Wm. Penn rather than those from the provincial school near his home. In class, he has always managed to get along without too much effort and with great calmness (except before the test).

ACTIVITIES: Camera Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Fun.

FUTURE: Unprognosticable.

HYMAN BLASK

"Hym"

944 N. SECOND ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"In all he speaks truth and candor shines."

—Essay on Criticism.

Confidence like "Hym's" is worth having. He is always full of information and readily willing to impart it to his erring classmates. Needless to say, we welcomed all of it. However, this weighty knowledge did not make "Hym" a grind. He is one of the most enjoyable and congenial classmates it has been our pleasure to meet. He is one of the best for keeping up the good spirits in general. It is his quiet nature and good-heartedness that are contributing factors for his popularity.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Basketball; Section President, (F, E); M. S. R. (H, C, F, E); Junior Day Committee; B-C Hop Committee.

HOBBY: Football.

FUTURE: Dr. H. Blask.

NORMAN BLESCHMAN

"Nuni"

925 N. SIXTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"No man that is right minded could make light of thy doings."

—The Iliad.

No effort exercised to ensnare E's with equanimity—that's the story of "Nuni's" scholastic career. It's just an old family custom. It's true that our subject is a portion of a combination, Bleschman and Borenstein, but on what basis they divide the spoils no one has yet determined. When "Nuni" flunks his exam (he hasn't done so yet), close observers suppose that Borenstein will flunk also. Sort of sympathy, we suppose. The combination decides to be teachers, but we'll not hold that against them until they flunk our sons.

ACTIVITIES: Chairman, Cap and Gown Committee; House of Representatives; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: College Professor.

ALFRED BOLDEN

"Bo"

325 QUEEN ST. MT. VERNON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"You know the very road into kindness."

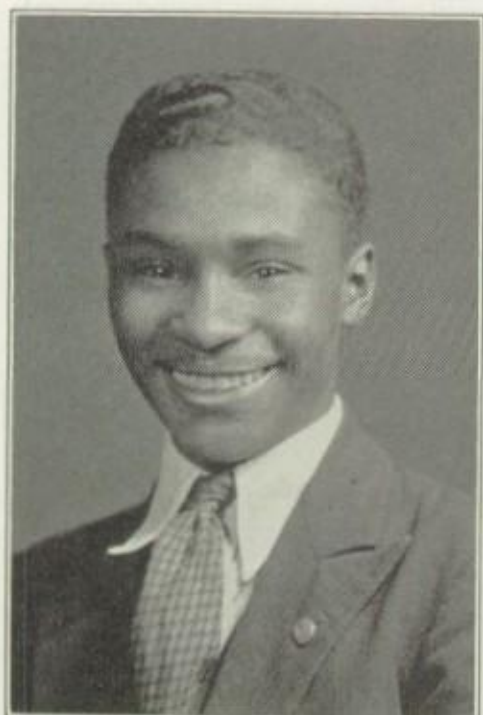

—Coriolanus

"Bo" is one of the high flyers a la miniature. In fact, he or his latest hope, to be exact, is always up in the air. His famous Austin plane was a mighty contraption which proved to be "good to the last drop." He managed to come down to earth long enough to attend some classes and get some very good marks. He has been a good Student Counsellor, giving the other fellow a lift.

ACTIVITIES: Book President (D); Executive Committee; Aero Club; House of Representatives; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Swimming.

FUTURE: Engineer.

MAX BORENSTEIN

"Mac"

914 N. MARSHALL ST. J. H. WIDENER SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Trust me, gentlemen, I'll prove more true
Than those who have more cunning to be strange."
—Romeo and Juliet.

As a scholar "Mac" can be rated not below Plato and Aristotle, for neither of those gentlemen ever passed with E's under our faculty. Borenstein has. He was a good running mate for Kety in Chemistry and for Bleshman in everything else. As we mentioned before, these young men have worked splendidly together. Out hats are off to them. "Mac" hasn't decided definitely whether he will torture his contemporaries as a dentist or teacher, it's about 50-50.

ACTIVITIES: Book Officer; Wrestling Team; Chemistry Club; Chess Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Math.

FUTURE: Teaching.

GEORGE BORRIELO

"Knight"

1824 DICKINSON ST. BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts)

"With a snatch of grace beyond the reach of art,
He gains our hearts."

—Essay on Criticism

As an 18-karat pal, "Knight" is the real goods. This boy never allows a scowl to cover his face, for it was always smiling at one of his jokes or someone else's. He has the reputation of being a carefree lad, much to his good luck, for the profs reward him amply, not only for his cheerfulness but also for his brain matter, which is at its best all the time. "Knight" is also known for his ability to take apart an engine and trying to put it together again.

ACTIVITIES: Section President, (F); Athletic Representative; Section Baseball; Math Club; Chemistry Club.

HOBBY: Airplane Mechanics.

FUTURE: Aeronautics.

MAX BREE

"Breezy"

1827 N. THIRTY-FIRST ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"I can give humor in the free bent."

—Julius Caesar.

Max is another of our happy boys. He has a good joke ready to brighten each of the dull moments of the day. He has a number of tricks that have had very startling results upon the profs, and which have, as a result, had some startling results upon Ma. Max insists that we tell you that he is one of the operating vice-presidents of the "Club Kibitzer," a union under the care of one I. Fisher. "Breezy" has supplied the dirt for some of these write-ups.

ACTIVITIES: Library Assistant; Chemistry Club; Philatelic Club; Craftsmanship Club; Astronomy Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chemical Combustion.

FUTURE: Veterinary.

HARRY BREGMAN

"Har"

532 MOORE ST.

SOUTHWARK SCHOOL

(Commercial Course)

"This is the noblest Roman of them all."

—Julius Caesar

Hail, Harry! He is king of the kibitzers. At any moment a classmate might expect to find him selling hair oil to a bald headed professor or Caesar ponies to the Classical Seniors. But this mountain of mirth is not only a kidder, but a serious-minded scholar. He is a scholar by the dint of professional pressure and an artist by choice. Harry has been accused of spending part of his time as a suit salesman, the remainder as a plain suitor.

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committees; B-C Hop Committee; President, Philatelic Society.

HOBBY: Sketching.

FUTURE: College.

EDWARD LOUIS BRESLER

"Eddie"

1006 N. SECOND ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Alas, poor Romeo! He is already dead; stabbed
With a white wench's black eye."

—Romeo and Juliet

To the women "Eddie" has said, "One-half of me is yours and the other half belongs to soccer." He seems to have the two fairly well mixed. He doesn't allow the women to interfere with the soccer, and you can be sure that the soccer is not allowed to interfere with the women. Well! what healthy, sound-minded young man isn't interested. So "Eddie" plays his soccer to keep healthy so that he'll have an excuse for being interested. To complete the biography, we shall say that the young man is affable, sociable, half-witty and intelligent.

ACTIVITIES: Soccer Team, '30, '31; Interclass Athletics; Benefit Committees; Senior Prom Committee; Current History Club.

HOBBY: Seeking a future.

FUTURE: Seeking a hobby.

MARTIN AARON BRODSKY

"Marty"

1427 S. NINETEENTH ST. BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"How now! no school today?"

No.

A blessing on your heart."

—Merry Wives of Windsor

When it comes to the grand bluff at the recitation time, quick action on "Marty's" part makes Solomon look like a freshman. And it got him through. Study or bluff, what's in the name, they both serve the same purpose. A near neighbor in the classroom has exposed "Marty's" method of making up sleep, but the profs never got wise, they were looking the other direction. At Central High he lived the life of a sensible he man—eating and sleeping.

ACTIVITIES: Orchestra; Track Team; Camera Club; Senior Prom Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Anything.

FUTURE: Everything.

BERNARD BROWN

"Bernie"

921 N. FOURTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"He has the strength of twenty men."

—Romeo and Juliet

When Prof. Nicolai heard of "Bernie's" irresistible power with les femmes, he signed him up with the gym team. From then on, the gallery was chiefly female, for in a gym suit "Bernie" is an Apollo in a rag. His geometric figures in the gym meets had it all over his geometric figures for the Department of Mathematics. He has made all the gymnastic contortions, but the square circle.

ACTIVITIES: Record Book Staff; Class Paper Staff (D); Freshman Advisor; Freshman Basketball; Gym Team; Penmanship Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBIES: Autos and riders.

FUTURE: Business.

C. MOORMAN BROWN

"Brownie"

1524 CHRISTIAN ST. WALTER G. SMITH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Thou art as swift
As mountain winds."

—The Tempest

"Brownie" ran all over Fairmount Park to get to the top of the athletic ladder, and when he reached the top he found little there but the rest of the Championship Cross Country Team. We all excuse his dust. In order that he would be prepared, in case he met with some other knight errant on his runnings abroad, Moorman polished up his chivalry by practicing with the Fencing Club.

ACTIVITIES: Track Team, '30, '31; Cross Country Team, '30, '31; Tennis Team, '30, '31; Wrestling Team; Fencing Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Athletics.

FUTURE: Medicine.

JAMES F. BROWN

"Jake"

1608 S. BROAD ST. BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Thou hast a grim appearance and thy face Bears a command in it."

—Coriolanus

Athletic prowess stands out all over this fellow. He has all the earmarks of inheriting the aquatic complex of Jonah and his record with the swimming team has profited thereby. A he-man needs sleep, in fact, Jake often felt the need of sleep more than the need of the material which was being covered in the lectures, and he acted accordingly. Soon "Jake" will be able to hibernate for the summer, and that's a contortionist's job anywhere.

ACTIVITIES: J. V. Swimming, '29, '30, '31; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Freehand Drawing.

FUTURE: Real Estate.

MORRIS BROWN

"Mike"

837 N. FRANKLIN ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

*Rome's best champion;
Successful in the battles he fights.*

—Titus Andronicus.

Brown is a bairn of brawn and brain. He has been active in the athletic circles of the school and his classroom record is not so bad by any means. When he entered the ring in the boxing bouts the result was not a question of who, but when. He repeated his former successes in the management of the Senior Prom, which was one of the great occasions in our little lives.

ACTIVITIES: Chairman Senior Prom Committee; Interclass Athletics, Basketball, Track, Boxing, Baseball; Chairman B-C Hop Committee; Book Treasurer (A); Track Team; Penmanship Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Boxing.

FUTURE: Medicine.

MORRIS BOB BROWN

"King"

1301 N. MARSHALL ST. JOHN MOFFAT SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Where be your gibes? your gambols? your songs?"

—Hamlet.

"King" is the wise-crackedest wise-cracker, jokester and funster of all. He laughs at the slightest provocation and possesses a nifty falsetto. There is no trouble in telling "King" apart from the other Browns. Like the famous brand of "AA," he leads the class in the art of spreading cheer, even to the pros. As one of the "158th" quippers and jesters, "King" resuscitated many a weary session in class with a timely wise-crack.

ACTIVITIES: Section President (H, G, F); Freshman Baseball; Junior Day Baseball; Interclass Soccer Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: College.

ARTHUR BRUCK

"Art"

2104 PINE ST. TEMPLE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Thou art a fellow of a good respect."

—Julius Caesar.

"Art" has always been one of our more quiet classmates, but not so quiet that you can always hear the proverbial pin drop in his presence. With the professors he has observed the rule, "speak when you are spoken to." His outstanding displays of genius have been enacted in the physics classes, where he has been a wonder. He always took an active part in the Stamp Club meetings.

ACTIVITIES: Philatelic Society; Camera Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Philatelics.

FUTURE: Medicine.

NATHAN M. BUGMENKO

"Bugs"

1337 N. SEVENTH ST. JOSEPHINE H. WIDENER SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"His powers in equal ranks and fair array are shown."
—Essay on Criticism.

"Bugs" is one of the class husky "bugs." He has a muscular physique found only in the magazine strong man advertisements. He got that way by wrapping and unwrapping himself about the gym bars. Naturally, he joined the Wrestling Team, and certainly looked like a clinging grapevine when wrestling with another fellow. "Bugs" also had a grapevine hold on quite a few E's. His own name shows the good fellow he is—one bug of a man and K. O.

ACTIVITIES: Cross Country Team, (H, G, F); Wrestling Team; Gym Team; Track Team; Astronomy Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Collecting Dollar Bills.

FUTURE: Doctor.

SAMUEL BURT

"Sam"

319 FAIRMOUNT AVE. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"For I have sworn deep oaths of thy deep kindness."
—Love's Labour's Lost.

And in the midst of the depression "Sam" comes smiling through with a "God's in his heaven, all's well with the world" attitude, which has won for him the name of Smiling Sam. As a result of the jovial disposition, "Sam" has the corpulent stature of the man who refuses to worry needlessly. We can give you only a glimpse of this unusual fellow here.

ACTIVITIES: Wrestling Team; Camera Club; Astronomy Club; Chemistry Club; House of Representatives; Book Treasurer (C); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Photography.

FUTURE: Pharmacy.

ROBERT CALLAHAN, JR.

"Irish"

2220 S. FIFTEENTH ST. VARE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Wild wit, invention ever new And lively cheer of vigor born."
—Ode on Eton College.

"Irish" is the bird with the laugh that makes even the profs feel sociable. When he and the prof start a confab, time is called on studies and the class listens in. In Professor Henwood's room, Callahan is most at home. Within a few months after starting the course, he had learned that sugar melts in coffee and that nitric acid is not the most palatable drink.

ACTIVITIES: Interclass Athletics; Freshmen Advisor; Section Offices; Banquet Committee Chairman.

HOBBY: Getting Graduated.

FUTURE: A Graduate.

STANLEY HERBERT CARPEL

"Herb"

1721 N. THIRTY-THIRD ST. TILDEN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Hereafter shall goodly gifts come to thee, Yea, in threefold measure."

—The Iliad.

Stanley, being a resident of the Strawberry Mansion region, is a natural tennis player. He has built up quite a reputation as a "raqueteer," but a much more respectable reputation as a baseball player. Although we did not require him to take a ten thousand cut for this season, he insisted on being a central figure on the diamond. His varsity record is O. K. by us. What's more, "Herb" hasn't made up his mind to desert the profession of his youthful choice.

ACTIVITIES: Varsity Baseball; J. V. Tennis Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Baseball.

FUTURE: Medicine.

GEORGE WILLIAM CERULLO

"George"

1110 CROSS ST. BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

*"A merrier man
I never spent an hour's talk withal."*

—Love's Labour's Lost.

"Smiling George" was always in good with four professors. We know not whether that explains or is explained by his high marks in such courses as History, Geometry, Trigonometry and Chemistry—just four, no less, no more. His feature on the athletic field was slinging the bat, although he was good in all branches of sport. In the shops he contented himself by taking Fords apart and assembling the parts to form a Rolls-Royce. Sometimes he had parts left over, but the Rolls did run anyhow. "George" hopes to work among the higher things in life.

ACTIVITIES: Book Treasurer (C); Book Secretary (D); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Airplanes.

FUTURE: Aviation.

ROBERT A. CERUCCI

"Bob"

615 S. DELHI ST. CAMPBELL LYONS SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

"You were ever good at sudden commendation."

—King Henry VIII.

"Bob" is the sheik of the Industrial Arts' gang. He is always much sleeked and well groomed. His personality as registered with the girls is above 212 Fahrenheit. In spite of the fact that he burned the midnight oil at matters other than lessons, he was able to show his ability as an all-round student and as a landscape artist of no mean taste.

ACTIVITIES: Section President (H, G, F, E); Athletic Representative; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Dancing.

FUTURE: Architectural Drafting.

REUBEN H. CHATZKEL

"Rube"

1627 N. FRANKLIN ST. JOSEPH C. FERGUSON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

*"The past and present wilt—I have filled them
And proceed to fill my next fold of the future."*

—Walt Whitman.

Since "Rube" has piled up a healthy "nest egg" average, he can afford to solve puzzles in the classroom. The crossword puzzle mania has "Rube" fast in its grip, for "Rube" without his puzzle is like a prof without his rollbook. The puzzles kept his brains in trim shape, for he was as much a success in class as he was solving puzzles. The only place where "Rube" was too busy speaking to indulge in his hobby was in the Current History Club.

ACTIVITIES: Class Paper Staff; Ring Committee; Current History Club; Camera Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Cross-word puzzles. FUTURE: Veterinarian.

HORACE COHEN

"Reds"

2400 W. HARLAN ST. ROBERT MORRIS SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"One science only will one genius fill."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Reds" has a wonderful head—of hair. His rebellious hair refuses to stay smoothened, and is of the kind that attracts bulls (?). Especially does it attract the chemistry one, for "Reds" is a whiz in that subject, and is to be depended upon for the majority of answers to all chemistry problems. If he isn't blown up by the time he becomes successful, he is sure to become one of the country's famous chemists. "Reds" is a genial fellow, and is well liked and popular with all.

ACTIVITIES: Chemistry Club; Science and Philosophy Club; Astronomy Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chemistry.

FUTURE: Chemistry.

PHILIP COHEN

"Pete"

933 N. EIGHTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He hath done famously."

—Coriolanus.

Well, boys, here is the book boy of his home book. He has held all the political jobs that lead up to the book presidency and that is where he finally landed. He is a student of repute, a leader with inspiring qualities, and a friend of sociable, helpful nature. He is going forth into the cruel world with our best wishes and our faith in his good humor and integrity.

ACTIVITIES: Interclass Athletics; Book President (B, A); Chairman, B-C Hop Committee; Student Council; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Single Blessedness. FUTURE: A Gentle Husband.

OSLEA T. COOK

"Cookie"

1141 OGDEN ST.

DOWNINGTOWN SCHOOL, PA.

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"'Tis sport to maul the runner."

—Antony and Cleopatra.

The girls are mighty attentive to "Cookie"; first they think he is related to the famous candy king, then they fall for his manly majesty, and, finally, they are won by his athletic prowess. What could the Football and Track Teams do without "Cookie"? What a blend of determination, good nature and sportsmanship he is. "Cookie" is the acme of popularity, for, after being section president for three terms, he was elected to the Student Council.

ACTIVITIES: Varsity Football Team; Track Team; Section Treasurer (B); Section President (F, E, C); Student Council; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBIES: Track and Football. FUTURE: Football Coach.

ELMER GEORGE CORYELL

"Cory"

916 N. AMERICAN ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Relax thy ponderous strength."

—Deserted Village.

Anyone interested in minor sports will immediately recognize "Cory" as an ace in the field of wrestling. This husky Adonis aided largely in the winning of the city's unofficial wrestling crown. When "Cory" and another fellow get on the mat, it's just a matter of seconds. In interclass wrestling "Cory" was the undefeated "champ" of his weight.

ACTIVITIES: M. S. R. (C, D, E); Track (F, C); Cross Country (F, C); Wrestling Team (A, B, C, D); Junior Day Sports; Interclass Soccer Team.

HOBBY: Collecting ($) Prints. FUTURE: Wage-earner.

MANUEL CRANE

"Shylock"

608 RODMAN STREET

CAMPBELL LYONS SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"His nature is too noble for the world."

—Coriolanus.

Mr. Crane is the outstanding specimen of the genus of Central High School student who does homework. He qualified for the distinction by proving his preparedness in class after class. He had little difficulty in speaking German as well as Bismarck ever did in one of our German classrooms. "Shylock," as he is sometimes called, prefers to carry his lunch, but he never lets it get out of his sight. The more wisdom say we.

ACTIVITIES: Interclass Athletics; Italian Club; Chemistry Club; Penmanship Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Counting Candy.

FUTURE: Pharmacy.

ALFRED DAVIS

"Chief"

604 S. TWENTY-SECOND ST. LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

"In the sphere, Power and fortune will reward him there."
—Gay's Fables.

Seldom do the portals of the Central High School have the distinction of welcoming Indian-blooded boys. "Chief" is one such and he certainly is well informed in the lore of the original Americans. He is a demon on the gym apparatus and has a sense of humor that must not be tampered with. He intends to build bigger and better skyscrapers, so look for a new Philadelphia sky line.

ACTIVITIES: Captain, Freshman Baseball Team; Barnwell Honor Roll; Student Patrol.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Architect.

JOHN THOMAS DE MARCO

"Johnny"

814 S. EIGHTH ST. CAMPBELL LYONS SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"The hand that hath made you fair hath made you good."
—Measure for Measure.

"Johnny" spends some of his spare time getting the low-down on the barber trade, and he certainly works a transfer control. As soon as he gets time to grow a muzzy, if she permits it, he will be the death of William Powell's career. "Johnny" is proud of his abilities as a jay-walker, at which profession he had better not get caught too often. He might practice going down the back stairs when the S. P.'s are out to lunch.

ACTIVITIES: Interclass Athletics; Penmanship Club; Italian Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Jay-walking.

FUTURE: Business.

MORRIS DENKIN

"Moe"

238 VINE ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Hail king! For so thou art."
—King Henry V.

Sergeant Denkin, of the Central Police force, front and center! This gentleman is one of the most industrious and efficient of all the long line of high police officials of the patrol. "Moe" is one cop whom we respect, because he has made the lunchroom a more pleasant place in which to consume beans. He was zealous in rounding up the violators who threatened the continuance of open recess.

ACTIVITIES: Associate General Chairman of the Student Patrol; Member of the Student Tribunal; Associate Chief Justice (A); Camera Club.

HOBBY: Science.

FUTURE: Medicine.

PETER DI PAUL

"Moby Dick"

1622 S. NINETEENTH ST. VARE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

"He reconciles to form and grace."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Moby Dick" is an all-rounder, for he did well in his studies, athletics, and social life. His favorite game is bowling, for "Moby" knows how to make strikes (the good kind, not the kind in baseball). He is always a source of fun for the class, because of his frequent joking moods. Everyone likes "Moby," for he is always the one to show the others "how" in the shop.

ACTIVITIES: Bowling Team; Class Athletics; Aero Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Bowling.

FUTURE: Aviation.

MAX DONDE

"Monty"

1546 N. FRANKLIN ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"His parts and ready wit Showed him for every business fit."

—Gay's Fables.

Well! Well! Here's Don Juan in the flesh. The only serious objection that Max ever voiced to the dear, old Central High School is that it is so depressingly non-co-educational. Perhaps Max knows more members of the student bodies in the neighboring high schools than he does of Central's. And he always picks the intellectuals — no wonder he has good marks.

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committee; B-C Hop Committee; Penmanship Club.

HOBBY: Algebra.

FUTURE: Business.

CHARLES ROBERT DUGAN

"Chubby"

2957 KENSINGTON AVE. ANNA HALLOWELL SCHOOL
(Classical Course)

"An excellent pass!"

—The Tempest.

DuGan was the veteran member of the Junior Varsity Football Team. Football became a habit with him and he was a mainstay of the second outfit. He was light on the ball field, being about 140 pounds in weight, but he certainly did tackle the lesson heavily. Being a connoisseur of gridiron mud, Duge was placed upon the Banquet Committee.

ACTIVITIES: Junior Varsity Football Team, '29, '30, '31; Freshman Cross Country; Banquet Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: The girls.

FUTURE: Medicine.

BERNARD ETTENGER

"Bernie"

1114 W. COLUMBIA AVE. JOSEPHINE H. WIDENER SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"O brave new world that has such people in it."

—Pericles.

Almost everyone is acquainted with "Bernie." Being a fellow of delightful personality, he has made many a friend since his grammar school emigration. At first he was obscure, but after a second bowl of Mrs. Smedley's soup he was transformed into a social lion, attracting male and moll alike. As a tennis player, Bernie certainly knows his racket inside of school and out. Probably he got his system of making friends while on the bowling team, for he knocked us for a row of houses.

ACTIVITIES: Class Paper Staff; Bowling Team; Class Basketball; Benefit Committee (B-C); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Basketball.

FUTURE: ? ? ?

WALTER FEDYNA

"Walt"

2540 MEREDITH ST.

LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"In prospects attained he pleases our eyes."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Walt" is the proof of Darwin's Theory. He feels at home among the bars in the gym. His skill in wrapping himself about them is amazing. In the same manner is he skillful in clinging to the good marks wrested away from the profs. His unassuming nature made the profs respect him, and it was for this that he was amply rewarded.

ACTIVITIES: Varsity Baseball Team (A); Physics Club; Craftsman Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Baseball.

FUTURE: Physical Education.

SAMUEL LAWRENCE FEINSTEIN

"Pep"

409 S. SEVENTH ST.

HORACE BINNEY SCHOOL

(Classical Course)

"He tried every art."

—Deserted Village.

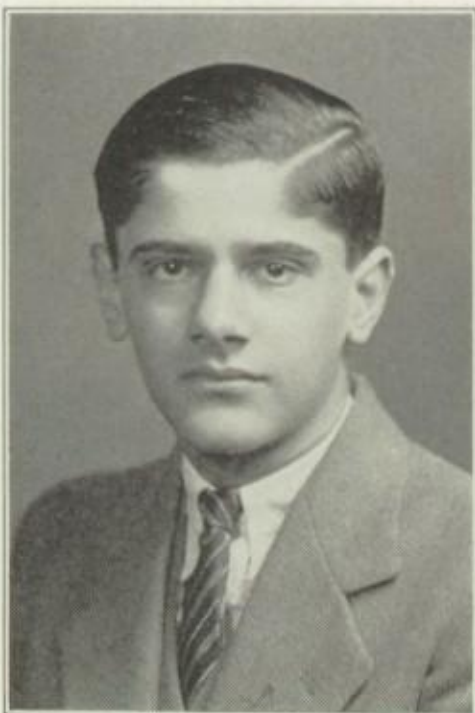

Here's "Pep," folks. Need we say more? Athlete, artist, scholar, linguist, orator, prophet, actor, journalist, Sam was perhaps the most versatile member of the class and one of the most advertised artists who ever drew Mirror covers. Whereby hangs a tale.

ACTIVITIES: Mirror Staff (D, C); Art Editor (B); Associate Editor-in-Chief (A); Centralizer Staff (D, C, B, A); Associate Editor-in-Chief (A); Art Editor, Record Book; Editor-in-Chief, Class Paper; Class Prophet; Executive Committee, 158th Class; Freshman Advisor; Director, Student Patrol; Interclub Council; Junior Oratorical Contest; Senior Oratorical Contest; Interclass Soccer Championship Team; Art Club; Latin Club; President, Poster Club (C, B, A); Cross Country Team; Barnwell Honor Roll (H to A).

HOBBY: Art Models.

FUTURE: Art School.

ELLIOT LEON FELD

"Lee"

3217 W. MONTGOMERY AVE. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He sees and knows more, much more than he unfolds."
—Othello.

This is the rare specimen that is reputed to have suffered not one D-next at the hands of Professor Howes. Such intellectual exclusion must be deserved. We are awaiting the glorious seance in which we shall call into Room 110 the departed spirit of Publius Vergilius Maro to take "Lee" by the hand and say, "Thou hast done me noble justice." And he has played himself into tennis fame and lends the Barnwell Honor dignity.

ACTIVITIES: Varsity Tennis; Latin Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Literature.

FUTURE: Professor of Latin.

AUGUST FILLIPONE

"Filly"

1401 S. FIFTEENTH ST. BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Modestly bold and humanly severe."
—Essay on Criticism.

"Filly" is a master worker in shop. Everything that he makes there is done with the greatest skill and ingenuity. In his other subjects he is just as competent. In English he leads a merry life because he thinks he knows it all. His teasing and joking nature has gotten him many friends.

ACTIVITIES: Section President (H, C); Craftsman Club; Class Sports; Athletic Representative; M. S. R. (B, C); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Shopwork.

FUTURE: Shop Teacher.

I. IRWIN FISHER

"Fish"

2627 S. ELEVENTH ST. THOMAS JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He is as merry as the day is long."
—Much Ado About Nothing.

From the eastern extremity of Borneo to the western end of Strawberry Mansion, a bigger kibitzer than Fisher has not been found. He once persuaded a caterpillar to adopt kittens and has been known to sell a dog fleas, as well as Centralizers to many of the student body. We have been wondering about some of the E's that appear on his report; he must be selling the faculty something. As chief of the megaphone boys he has been using the language rather roughly at the field.

ACTIVITIES: Centralizer Staff (D, C, B, A); Business Manager (B); Assistant Editor (A); Captain, Cheerleaders (A); Junior Varsity Basketball, '32; Class Paper Staff; B-C Hop Committee; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Shylocking.

FUTURE: Dentistry.

ISADORE M. FIXMAN

"Fix"

719 W. GIRARD AVE. JOSEPHINE H. WIDENER SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"He is a better scholar than we thought he was."

—Merry Wives of Windsor.

"Fix" is the financial wizard of the class and our best bet against the Ford millions. He has been moving about among us, making little effort to be one of the political big shots of the class. He rendered his service as a patrolman and made it his business to see that his classmates were supplied with Mirrors and Centralizers. Although his interest in the extraridiculous activities of the school has been limited, he is, without question, one of our outstanding scholars. He has specialized in learning something and his report cards have spoken unlimited success.

ACTIVITIES: Barnwell Honor Roll; Penmanship Club.

HOBBY: Mathematics.

FUTURE: Accounting.

JACOB MAX FLEISHMAN

"Fleish"

853 N. TENTH ST.

J. W. COOPER SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"And still they gaz'd, and still the wonder grew,
That one small head could carry all he knew."

—The Deserted Village.

"Fleish" is one of the biggest of the big shots of chess circles in and around our institution of learning. He has been called by his ardent admirers, "the chiseling Central chess champion." His knowledge of check and check-mate, always applied with a cheery smile, is but a sample of the qualities that have put him in right with his profs and his classmates.

ACTIVITIES: Chess Team; Chess Club; Mathematical Society; Astronomy Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Chess Champion.

WOODROW WILSON FORBES

"Woody"

1907 MT. VERNON ST.

RUFFNER JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"With honor and with fortune may he return."

—Titus Andronicus.

"Woody" came all the way from Norfolk, Va., to take courses in our school. That's where the Ruffner Junior High is located. We have some urgent rumors that Forbes has amassed a fortune selling stories, which condition would tend to indicate that he is on the way. Some day the former president will be known as the man after whom the Forbes baby was named. Here's hoping. When you've come into your literary millions, "Woody" old boy, remember the poor RECORD editor who is wishing you well.

ACTIVITIES: Sculpture Club; Poster Club; Philatelic Society.

HOBBY: Gymnastics.

FUTURE: Engineering.

HOWARD FORST

"How"

2425 SEVENTY-SEVENTH AVE. LOWER MORELAND SCHOOL
(Classical Course)

*"Procure me music
To make a heavenly and a dulcet sound."*
—Timon of Athens.

"Howie" is one of the most classical of the classicals. He can whistle all the great symphonies and comment upon them at the same time. He is one of those fortunate persons who can enjoy culture rather than sweat under its tyranny. He is the chief promoter of the classical journal idea and he certainly showed classical judgment in appointing Professor Howes Roman censor of the paper before the marks were entered in the office records. In fact, the only lowbrow thing he has ever done is to snoop after news for the Centralizer.

ACTIVITIES: Centralizer News Editor; Class Paper Staff; Science and Philosophy Club; Latin Club.

HOBBY: Classical Music.

FUTURE: Medicine.

OSCAR H. FRAND

"Frandy"

1945 N. PATTON ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Thou art as swift as breathed stags."
—Timon of Athens.

Veteran, that's the very word for "Frandy" as a track star. He started as a mere freshman to build a hardy laurel wreath that is now a burdensome shrub. Nor did he spend all of his youth upon the cinders, he was usually his book's representative in the circulatory system of the Mirror and Centralizer organizations. "Frandy" has been too busy taking care of the present to decide in what field of professional endeavor he will lead the race.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Track; Freshman Cross-country; Track Team, '30, '31, '32; Cross-country, '29, '30, Championship Team, '31.

HOBBY: Running.

FUTURE: Accounting.

RALPH M. FRATKIN

"Frat"

3125 WHARTON ST. G. S. BENSON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

*"That man that hath a tongue, I say, is no man
If with his tongue he cannot win a woman."*
—Two Gentlemen of Verona.

Since the days of Bobby Burns the women of the world have been awaiting the advent of such another. The women will walk a mile for just one look at "Frat." Such popularity is unquestionably deserved, for after all he is the noblest work of God in its extremest form. Well, I guess we're jealous enough, but we must give the boy his due. His scholarship is quite becoming the good fellow that he is.

ACTIVITIES: Debating Society; Current History Club; Junior Day Committee; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Basketball.

FUTURE: Engineering.

ALBERT FRIEDMAN

"Al"

1004 N. RANDOLPH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"There was not such a gracious person born."
—King John.

"Al" likes traveling and so has decided to become a salesman. We hope that the stories had nothing to do with the case. The ever-ready smile that has won its way into our hearts will furnish excellent capital for the career. "Al" is the first of the long line of Friedman people in the class, and heads the parade because he was called Albert. As we said before—first in peace, first in marks, and first in the hearts of his classmates.

ACTIVITIES: Junior Day Committee; Benefit Committee; Philatelic Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Travel.

FUTURE: Salesmanship.

DAVID A. FRIEDMAN

"Dave"

1852 N. TWENTY-EIGHTH ST. WILLIAM KELLEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Vouchsafe to show the sunshine of your face,
That we, like savages, may worship it."
—Love's Labour's Lost.

"Dave" supplied the most of the mirth which bubbled from the young men of the race of Friedman. His carefree life was fronted by a perpetual smile, so that we all took our troubles to him and he forgot them for us. He was fond of the courts, that is the tennis courts, and he could easily master most of us. His greatest fun in life was derived from getting the pros all balled up in the society of Friedman.

ACTIVITIES: Tennis Team; French Club; Astronomy Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Tennis.

FUTURE: Professor.

DAVID EDWIN FRIEDMAN

"Dave"

2236 E. CLEARFIELD ST. JOHN PAUL JONES SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

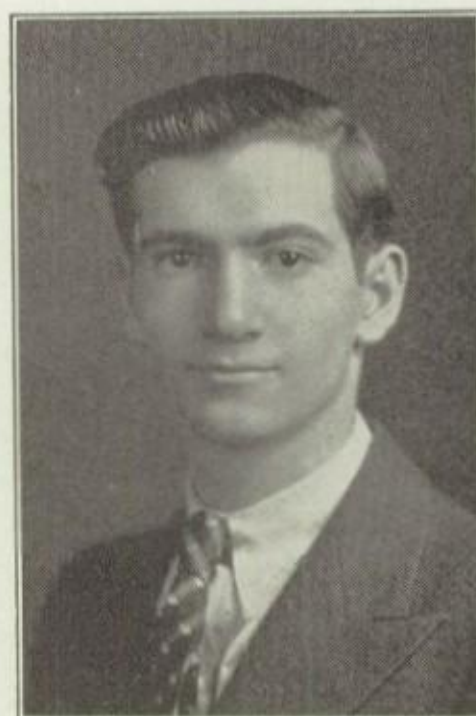

"There is no voice more worthy than thy own."
—Julius Caesar.

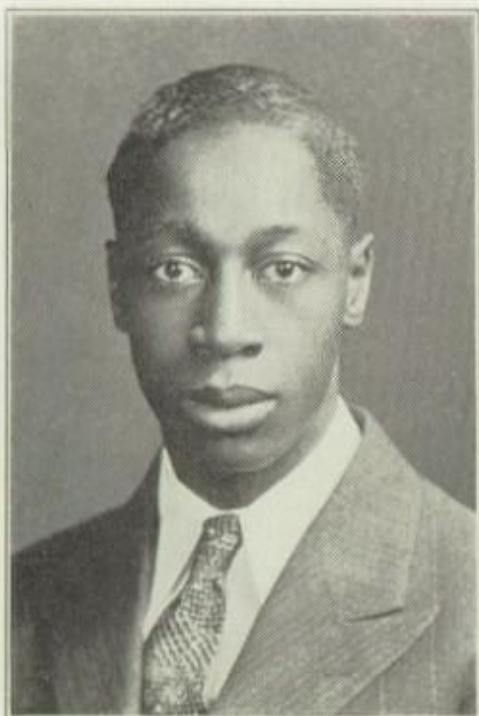

"Dave" is one of the important stars of the class; in fact, he is a complete constellation in himself, being a literary star, a journalistic star, a disputatious star, and a scholastic star. The RECORD BOOK is better for his services, the Centralizer depends upon "Dave" for its best news, and he confounds the judges for the debating team. His gifted voice and eloquent hand make listening a rare privilege. He is a Jack of many trades and master of each.

ACTIVITIES: RECORD BOOK Staff; Centralizer Staff; Debating Society; Championship Debating Team; Current History Club; Picture Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Kibitzing.

FUTURE: Medicine.

RALPH ALEXANDER FULLER

"Ski"

2345 N. COLLEGE AVE.

JOHN HANCOCK SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"He has most favorable and happy speed."

—Othello.

Unfortunately, we can show only "Ski's" upper regions in the photograph, but his feet are quite as important in his rise to fame as is the head. Not that the head hasn't been doing its stuff about the old lot, but after all, "Ski" is one of Vicker's vigorous victors who explored all the hills and dales of Fairmount Park and other courses. But as we say, the glory of the track has not prevented good scholarship, with honorable mention in Latin.

ACTIVITIES: Championship Cross-country Team; Track Team; Latin Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Speed.

FUTURE: Medicine.

HERMAN M. GELLMAN

"Hym"

974 N. SEVENTH ST.

GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL

(Commercial Course)

*"I hold it by that we shake hands and part:
You, as your business shall point you."*

—Hamlet.

"Hym" is a quiet chap, but once he gets started there is no stopping him. For this reason he can argue the pros into giving him the benefit of the doubt, and he certainly had a penchant for plucking the marks from them. "Speech is silver, silence is golden"—"Hym" mingled the two and got a bimetallic effect. He keeps his quiet demeanor for the pros and his good jokes, fun, and pep for his classmates.

ACTIVITIES: Vice-President, Section (H, G, F, E); Director, Student Patrol; M. S. R. (C, B); Penmanship Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Politics.

FUTURE: Business.

BENJAMIN GELMAN

"Ben"

821 N. SIXTH ST.

GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Honor and fortune keep with you."

—Timon of Athens.

"Ben" has been playing the part of all work and no credit in our school life. He has been active in all the branches of class athletics, and has worked for all the committees, whether he was a member or not. He has been a member of the hard-working committees too, and chairman of the money-makers when money was hard to get. His sense of humor, which has been a delight to his classmates, killed many a monotonous moment. He loves his teachers, and wants to be one some day.

ACTIVITIES: Interclass Athletics; J. V. Football, Basketball; Freshman Basketball; Benefit Committee (D); Chairman (C); B-C Hop Committee.

HOBBY: Athletics.

FUTURE: Professor.

JOSEPH GINSBURG

"Ginsy"

237 W. THOMPSON ST.

LIBERTY HIGH SCHOOL, LIBERTY, N. Y.

(Academic Course)

"Patient of labor."

—Essay on Criticism.

A fellow of few words is "Ginsy," that's why he does a lot in the classroom. As a result, he always works hard, always comes through, and does his best in everything he attempts, and his best is certainly good enough, as his standing will testify. "Ginsy" is one of the reasons for Rockefeller's millions. What the Standard Oil Company would do with all its oil if there were no "Ginsy" to burn the midnight lamp, is a matter of speculation. It is enough to say that the company would go bankrupt if "Ginsy" stopped his diligent effort.

ACTIVITIES: Camera Club; French Club; Junior Day Committee; Benefit Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Star Gazer.

JAMES J. GIRARDO

"Jimmie"

933 WASHINGTON AVE.

CAMPBELL LYONS SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"He has each human virtue in his heart."

—Essay on Criticism.

The fellow that said valuable articles come in small packages surely must have had "Jimmie" in mind all the time. Little though he may be, he overwhelms the pros and us with his flow of words, his steady stream of speech, and clear logic. "Jimmie" is a boy who is never worried over "exams." In fact, he likes them, and the harder they are, the better he likes them. The best thing a prof could do for "Jimmie" is to give him a special "exam" all by himself for a Christmas present. However, "Jimmie's" cerebellum has often helped many a classmate out of a tough predicament.

ACTIVITIES: French, Latin, Ernest Lacy Literary Societies; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sight Seeing.

FUTURE: Teaching.

WALTER H. GIZA

"Dutch"

1733 SPRING GARDEN ST.

ALEXANDER DALLAS BACHE SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Large was his bounty and his soul sincere."

—Elegy in a Country Churchyard.

"Dutch" is the nonchalant and debonair member of the class. Practically nothing can disturb his unruffled calm. His favorite expression is "Who the heck cares." Even before a test he is never afflicted with the chronic uneasiness that so many studes fall heir to. Worry and "Dutch" are perfect strangers. His marks showed that he had no need for worry. When "Dutch" gets out, he expects to be a big tooth and cavity man out West.

ACTIVITIES: Interclass Sports; Junior Day Baseball; Cap and Gown Committee; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Dentistry.

SIDNEY E. GLAUSER

"Sid"

1736 DIAMOND ST.

JAMES L. CLAGHORN SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"He was ever precise in promise keeping."

—Measure for Measure.

We discovered recently that the original unknown quantity is "Sid." That is a probable cause of his knowing his X's in the "math" classes. He was no unknown to the faculty at the review of the rolls, for the profs always remembered him with a series of E's. "Sid" is the middle man in the triumvirate, "Glasser, Glauser & Goldberg," the elements of which are as separable as the Siamese triplets. "Sid" is the most elongated member. He combs his hair about six-foot-three above the boudoir floor.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Advisor; Current History Club; Aero Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Reading.

FUTURE: Medicine.

LOUIS M. GOLDBERG

"Pat"

2953 W. NORRIS ST.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"So well your words, his noble virtues praise."

—John Milton

"Pat's" section presidency has been decreed perpetual. His popularity and versatile nature has affected other lines of endeavor. That's why he's on the Student Council and has a flock of important activities under his belt. Also, his unfailing good humor has placed him in our high esteem. "Lou" is always there, either with a good word and smile, or the right answer to the conundrums flung at us by our Reverend (?) "Phassers."

ACTIVITIES: Chairman, Ring Committee; Student Council; Section President (A, B, C, D, E); Baseball Team, '32; RECORD BOOK Staff; French Club; Senior Advisor; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Baseball.

FUTURE: College.

BENJAMIN GOLDFARB

"Ben"

727 N. ELEVENTH ST.

JOHN HANCOCK SCHOOL

(Commercial Course)

"I know by his face there's something in him."

—Coriolanus.

When the two "golddust twins" get together (Goldfarb and Goldberg) the profs are in for a hectic period. "Ben," when away from Goldberg, is a likeable fellow, and enjoys a friendship reign in Central. He is one of the veteran members of the Sigma Milka Kow frat, which has its headquarters in the Dutch Kitchen. "Ben's" greatest ambition is to be an alumnus of Central and the Dutch Kitchen combined.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Football; Track; J. V. Basketball, '28, '29; Benefit Committee; Penmanship Club; Math. Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Reading.

FUTURE: Financier.

Record

ARTHUR NATHANIEL GORELICK

"Archie"

1838 N. THIRTY-SECOND ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"O it is excellent
To have a giant's strength."

—Measure for Measure.

"Archie" is a real surprise package. Small though he is, he has done a number of remarkable things about the school lot. He has exercised the duties of Secretary of the 158th Class with dispatch, exercised his muscles in the gym in a most contortionate manner, and exercised the muscles of his head in a manner which netted some honors and high marks. He seems to know something about most everything; perhaps we should say everything about everything.

ACTIVITIES: Secretary of 158th Class; Executive Committee; Millard Herzberg Prize Winner; House of Representatives; Chess Club; Gym Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: E's.

FUTURE: Veterinary Medicine.

ALVIN GORIN

"Art"

6531 N. SIXTEENTH ST. WAGNER JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Now cracks a noble heart."

—Hamlet.

Al is reputed to have a most voluminous address book in which the addresses are not all those of classmates. His manly contours while in the process of delicate exercise caused Coach Nicolai to spot him immediately for the gym team. He was held over on a three-year contract because of his ability to attract cheering sections from our neighboring schools.

ACTIVITIES: Track Team; Gym Team; Penmanship Club; German Club; Astronomy Club; Archery Club.

HOBBY: Drawing.

FUTURE: Art.

JACK B. GORSKY

"Jack"

408 FAIRMOUNT AVE. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"I know thou art not ignorant."

—Hamlet.

"Jack's" one ambition seems to be the production of evidence that all the smart boys do not take the classical course. In the classroom he was rarely, if ever, caught unprepared. His chief sports were the gym team and beat-patrolling, from which latter exercise he was promoted to the rank of director. He is a scholarly commercial, athlete and patrolman. Where is such another?

ACTIVITIES: Gym Team; Director, Student Patrol; Penmanship Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Studying.

FUTURE: Business.

EDWARD GOTTLIEB

"Ed"

2201 VINE ST.

HOLMES JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"We honor and love him."

—Julius Caesar.

"Ed" and his brother, "Hank," are even more alike in school ability than in personal appearance. Both their reports are always as one so far as marks are concerned. "As easy as German" is "Ed's" simile. In fact he knows his German so well that he usually does his next day's lesson during lunchtime. In this way he keeps a week ahead of the class. As a result, we find a lunchroom combination of "Ed" and "Butz" Gross—translators de luxe.

ACTIVITIES: Junior Orchestra; Current History Club; Benefit Committee; Pin Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Doing German with "Butz." FUTURE: Pharmacist.

HENRY REUBEN GOTTLIEB

"Hank"

2201 VINE ST.

HOLMES JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"To know a man well were to know himself."

—Hamlet.

This "half-pint" spends most of his time showing up the big eggs by mere dint of gray matter. Although "Hank" sprechens his Deutsch like a native of good old Bremen, he has sufficient intelligence to get good grades in the other classes. He mixed his club activities, one part Latin and another part chess, accompanied by an afternoon with the orchestra.

ACTIVITIES: Orchestra; Latin Club; Chess Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Music.

FUTURE: Surgery.

WILLIAM LOUIS GRANATIR

"Granny"

1701 S. RINGGOLD ST.

VARE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"By doctor's bills he intends to play the doctor's part."

—Essay on Criticism.

In learning his three R's (reading, riding, etc.) "Granny" is most proficient in the second pastime in 110. He uses a horse to make sure the Latin writers keep to the right text. However, the "Granny" in the House of "Reps" is quite different from the one in 110. In the former, as bill clerk, we find him far more eloquent over the entering of a bill than over a page of Horace (pronounced Horrors). Probably he is training for doctor's bills.

ACTIVITIES: House of Representatives; Class Paper Staff; Benefit Committee; Picture Committee.

HOBBY: Horseflesh.

FUTURE: Doctor.

WALTER GRANDE

"Wally"

767 S. SEVENTH ST.

CAMPBELL LYONS SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"A perfect judge will hear his words of wit."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Wally" to us fellows means a smile and good cheer. A good joke at the right moment is always sure to come from his quarter. However, "Wally" has his serious moments in class, and it is his quiet and open demeanor that makes him popular with the pros. In French especially does he show his brilliance. Probably that's why "Wally" wants to be a Parisian doctor.

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committee; French Club; Class Paper Staff; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: French.

FUTURE: Doctor of Women.

JOHN MARSHALL GRAY

"J M"

1831 BELFIELD ST.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"All know his virtue"

—Essay on Criticism.

"J M" has the honor of coming from the farthest place, attracted by the seductive glory of Central. This happened because he hadn't heard of the Student Patrol. However, "J M" got quickly adjusted in his new surroundings, and now we find him a dyed-in-the-wool, genuine Central student. While "J M" is impatiently waiting to be an aviator, he is a "high flyer" in marks.

ACTIVITIES: Aero Club; Craftsman Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Aviation.

FUTURE: Engineer.

BENJAMIN GREENBERG

"Greeny"

1429 N. SEVENTH ST.

HORATIO B. HACKETT SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"A man of sense."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Greeny," although small in form, has a great mind. His ability in gathering in healthy averages is amazing. He is of a "deductive" nature—he never bothers with the fowls. In class he prefers to remain quiet, but outside "Greeny" is quite a different lad. Lunch time will find him corner-balling. After school he exercises his vocal ability in the House of Representatives.

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committee (B); Current History Club; House of Representatives; M. S. R. (C, D); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Corner Ball.

FUTURE: Horse Doctor.

GEORGE GREENSPAN

"Pow"

1219 N. EIGHTH ST. JOSEPHINE E. WIDENER SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"We see you vigorous, strong and bold;
We hear with joy your triumphs told."

—Gay's Fables.

"Pow" is a long, lean, narrow-contracted athletic scholar, who shone with brilliance both on the track and in the classroom. Of course, it isn't so much that George is tall, it's just that his legs are long and they move him about most skilfully. When the young man moves among us he seems to be hurrying, when he is hurrying he seems to be breaking records.

ACTIVITIES: Varsity Track Team ('31, '32); Speaker, House of Representatives; Interclub Council; Executive Committee; Chemistry Club; Latin Club.

HOBBY: Philately.

FUTURE: Biology.

CYRIL GROSS

"Butz"

4946 N. BROAD ST. JAY COOKE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"For, even tho' vanquish'd, he could argue still."

—The Deserted Village.

Winding up his meteoric career, "Butz" found a large number of fleeces hanging to his belt. He entered the police force early and landed in court as clerk of the sessions. His knowledge of the law raised him to be a ruler among the people and he is one of the judges. He prolonged the meeting of the House of Representatives with his arguments, so to reduce his energy the House sent him into the finals of the Junior and Senior Oratorical Contests.

ACTIVITIES: Student Patrol, Director; Student Tribunal; Centralizer Staff; Class Publications; Book Treasurer; House of Representatives; Gym Team; Manager of Championship Second Baseball Team, ('31).

HOBBY: Germanics. FUTURE: University of Michigan.

AARON S. GROSSMAN

"Aaron"

3207 W. DIAMOND ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Is it the king?
Ay, every inch a king."

—King Lear.

Although burdened by a multitude of the most important school and class activities, "Aaron" has managed to display remarkable judgment in the execution of his duties and has remained a leader in the classroom. He has been a great chief of police and a great success as Business Manager of both the Mirror and RECORD BOOK.

ACTIVITIES: General Chairman, Student Patrol; Class Historian; Mirror Staff (C, B, A); Business Manager (B, A); Business Manager, RECORD BOOK; Student Council; Student Tribunal (C, B); Executive Committee, 158th Class; Class Paper Staff (B, A); Manager, Varsity Tennis ('32); Benefit Committee; Ring Committee; Chairman Elections Committee; Current History Club; German Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Student Government.

FUTURE: Journalism.

BENJAMIN GROSSMAN

"Ben"

876 N. MARSHALL ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"I would I knew his mind."
—Two Gentlemen of Verona.

"Ben's" calmness and cool manner mark him as a student of depth. His classroom results give evidence that the marking is not amiss. In his speech he mixes a most dignified seriousness with a gentle but insinuating humor which have gained him the admiration of his fellows as well as of his teachers. He has perused his books seriously to the point of depriving the extra-curricular activities of his support.

ACTIVITIES: Class Papers; Barnwell Honor Roll.
HOBBY: Sports. FUTURE: College.

JULIUS GROSSMAN

"Jule"

6117 LOCUST STREET H. J. WIDENER SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"He leapt therewith into the deep sea."
—The Iliad.

"Jule" is another splashy member of the class, and largely responsible for the swimming championship. He seems quite at home in the pool and equally at home in the Barnwell Library, where he looks after the books with tender care. His marks in the classroom, too, are of the championship type because he insists upon E's—and gets them. "Jule" is one of the gentlemen who helps enhance the glory of the commercial course.

ACTIVITIES: Swimming Team ('30); Championship Team ('32); Basketball Team ('31); Library Assistant; Penmanship Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.
HOBBY: Movies. FUTURE: U. of P.

MARTIN GROSSMAN

"Marty"

1351 N. TWENTY-NINTH ST. G. S. BENSON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Kneel not to me!
The power that I have on you is to spare you."
—Cymbeline.

And here, gentlemen, is the calm, collected, suave, political boss. In his selection of class and school officials he has done well, appointing himself to the position of Chief Justice on a non-partisan ticket. He was also ward leader of Book Two, and, as far as we know, no constituent has ever paid a fine. His policy has been to mete out no punishments unless the defendant is guilty of the charge, which, writes "Marty," is an innovation. "O upright judge, O learned judge, a Daniel come to court."

ACTIVITIES: Student Tribunal (C, B); Chief Justice (A); Vice-President of the 158th Class, Junior Year; Student Council (F, E, D, C, B, A); Secretary (B); Book President, usually; Executive Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll; Second Popularity Honor Man.

HOBBY: Politics. FUTURE: Pharmacy.

✓
JOSEPH ANTHONY GRUDA

"Joe"

2715 POPLAR ST.

ROBERT MORRIS SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"He works without show and without pomp presides"

—Essay on Criticism.

"Joe" is one of the founders of golf. We were certainly surprised when we learned that such a small chap like "Joe" was a golf enthusiast, bar all. However, his hefty swing showed that he was a veteran in the game.

He may be small, but he has the right make-up, and when the time comes he displays it. "Joe" is one of those happy and cheerful fellows, the type that can't be beat, and he is rarely gloomy or angry.

ACTIVITIES: Book Treasurer (D); Chairman, Student Patrol; Aero Club; Craftsman Club; Golf Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBIES: Woodwork, Golf.

FUTURE: Engineer.

LOUIS HAIMOVITZ

"Doc"

1518 RIDGE AVE.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Small show of man was yet upon his face."

—The Lover's Complaint.

"Doc" is our outstanding boy wonder and the smallest parcel of humanity in the class. He made one of the exhibits in the 110 side show, Levy and Kapp winning distinction as the heavyweights and "Doc" as the paperweight. Of course, the modern educationalist of 110, after much testing and examination, discovered that most of the weight is lodged between the ears. The little lad was often mistaken for a pawn by his teammates of the class warriors.

ACTIVITIES: Interclub Council; President of the Chess Club; Captain of the Chess Team, '31, '32; Latin Club; Natural Science Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chess.

FUTURE: Chemistry

SOL HARKER

"Sol"

1833 S. FIFTH ST.

ATLANTIC CITY HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Here's a man who counsel can bestow."

—Essay on Criticism.

Although "Sol" came to Central at the beginning of this year, he has established a sincere friendship with almost everyone in the class. His pleasing nature and his marvelous ability to study has convinced the profs that "Sol" is indeed a student in the true sense of the word. But once outside of school "Sol" will be found only in the swimming pool.

ACTIVITIES: Junior Varsity Basketball Team; Swimming Team; Debating Society; Mathematics Club; Track Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Swimming.

FUTURE: Business.

✓
JACK S. HEDRICK
"Jake"

2733 POPLAR ST.

ROBERT MORRIS SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Out of nature's common order rise!"
—Essay on Criticism.

If all Latin scholars were like "Jake," then Leary's would make a hundred per cent loss on ethical guides to Latin literature. "Jake" finds the guides inferior to his own translations and thus wisely refrained from narcotic translations. For this reason "Jake" is on the last row (a row of distinction) in 110. In German, "Jake" was even better. The translation of Latin into German is a simple matter to him.

ACTIVITIES: M. S. R. (B); Student Patrol; German Club; Current History Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Good books.

FUTURE: Pharmacy.

RAYMOND HOROWITZ
"Ray"

1865 N. TAYLOR ST.

WILLIAM D. KELLEY SCHOOL
(Classical Course)

"He's one honest enough,
Would all the rest were so."
—Coriolanus.

Here is the twentieth century reincarnation of the "glory that was Greece and the splendor that was Rome." He never inherited, however, that legacy of all the Greeks and Latins of 110, the venerable and time-honored D-next. "Ray" had the invaluable knack of de-horsing all of his translations, that's reason enough for his stellar role. He has served as one of our most efficient news getters.

ACTIVITIES: Centralizer Staff; Chemistry Club; Astronomical Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Biology.

FUTURE: Medicine.

PAUL HURVITZ
"Hur"

2434 COLUMBIA AVE.

W. D. KELLEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He learned with coolness."
—Essay on Criticism.

This outstanding quality that "Hur" possesses is ability. He is efficiency all through. With amazing capability he can finish an assigned job. "Hur" is a fighter and has fought many successful battles with his lessons. However, "Hur" is not a perpetual grind. To him we owe much of our relaxation from the daily grind. He is always ready with a joke or a new story and causes much laughter to escape from us. "Hur's" favorite sport is keeping the class quiet with his jokes.

ACTIVITIES: Second Varsity, Soccer; Second Team, Football; Camera Club; Current History Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chasing Women.

FUTURE: ? ? ? ?

JOSEPH INSELBERG

"Joe"

2121 N. TWENTY-NINTH ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"His hours in cheerful labor flew."
—Gay's Fables.

"Joe" is the Spanish slinger of the Commercials—he can throw the bull like a native. He has always been a mystery in Professor Del Guercio's classes, for he recited, but never studied. He has been very active in interclass athletics, playing on the Freshman Baseball Team, the Junior Day Baseball Team, and on the Class Soccer Team.

ACTIVITIES: Junior Day Committee; Oratorical Contest; Class Soccer Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Business.

ARTHUR L. JACKSON

"Artie"

2412 N. FIFTEENTH ST. LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

"My master, has your instrument been In Naples that it speaks i' the nose thus?"
—Othello.

A harmonica is the instrument that sent "Artie" forth upon the road to high repute. We still remember that first concert in the Auditorium before the old hall was turned into a house of detention. The musicians flocked about him immediately and formed the orchestra, well-famed as "Artie's" Sophomores. Listen in on the radio, get his crooning harmonica, breathing forth his own sweet compositions. We have always enjoyed his rich humor.

ACTIVITIES: Conductor of the Sophomore Orchestra; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: His Harmonica.

FUTURE: Musician.

JOSEPH JANKELA, JR.

"JoJo"

2816 W. COLUMBIA AVE. WILLIAM D. KELLEY SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

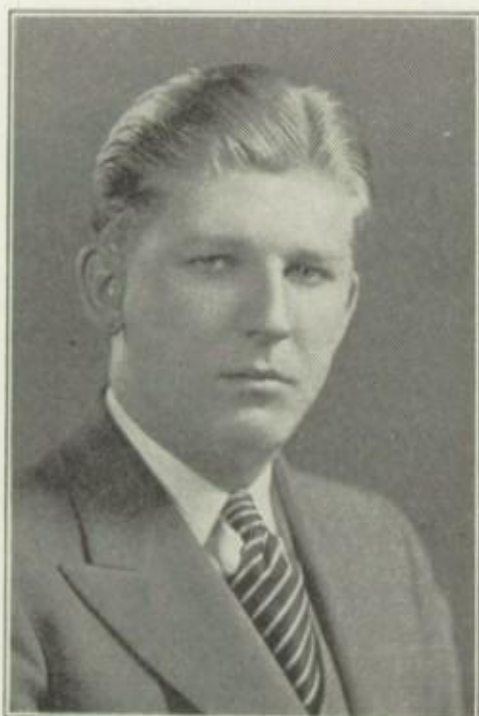

" 'Tis he will direct the naval flights."
—Gay's Fables.

In a class manned by a whole host of merry-makers, "JoJo" managed to be foremost when the competition was keenest. In fact, we suspect that the "JoJo" means the Jolliest among the Jolliest. With his 57 varieties of jokes, he managed to get even the pros off the subject, which was not always a difficult task. Silence may be golden, but humor proved a very valuable asset in the absence of silence.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Soccer; Freshman Baseball; Section President (E, D); Ernest Lacy Literary Society.

HOBBY: Horses.

FUTURE: Naval Survey.

DAVID H. JARRET

"Davy"

1924 CAMBRIDGE ST.

LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL

(Commercial Course)

"You launched not beyond your depth but was discreet."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Davy" is quite an ambitious fellow and is fond of doing work; in fact, he can be depended upon not to shirk. This studious young man takes a lively interest in school activities and athletics. But because "Davy" is studious, don't get the impression that he is a somber youth; quite to the contrary, he has a full supply of jokes, and although some are quite ancient, most of them are full of glee.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Cross-country; Chairman, Student Patrol (A, B); Interclass Basketball; Mathematical Club; Penmanship Club; Astronomy Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Character Reading.

FUTURE: Lawyer.

RALPH JUNG

"Ralph"

213 N. TENTH ST.

NORTHWEST SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Ask him the cause; he's wiser still they say."

—Essay on Criticism.

Like all Chinese, "Ralph" is very adept with his fingers. For this reason you may find him in the Art Club painting with artistic skill, or in the Sculpture Club modeling delicate and carefully formed statues. "Ralph" is a fellow after every prof's heart, for his unassuming and attentive nature in the class made life a pleasure for them.

ACTIVITIES: Art Club; Sculpture Club; Craftsman Club; Junior Day Committee; M. S. R. (G, F); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Baseball.

FUTURE: Civil Engineering.

FREDERICK JOSEPH KACZOR

"Freddy"

752 N. TWENTY-THIRD ST.

LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Be sure yourself and your own reach to know."

—Essay on Criticism.

A bee minus the buzz. "Freddy" was always doing some work, either classroom or school activity. He is one of those likable fellows who never causes anyone trouble and is always willing to help the other fellow out of his difficulties. Ever a hard worker, he finds it unprofitable to talk excessively. Yet, with all to his credit, he manages to be witty. Also, "Freddy" is just the right combination of fun and seriousness, and that contagious grin of his is enough to make a friend of anyone exposed to it.

ACTIVITIES: Varsity Baseball Team; Section Baseball; Art Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Baseball.

FUTURE: Chief Engineer.

FREDERIC KAPP

"Fred"

1919 N. BROAD ST.

OAK LANE SCHOOL

(Classical Course)

"No, no, I am but a shadow of myself;
You are deceived, my substance is not here."

—Henry VI.

Although slightly corpulent, "Fred" is certainly not fat, for he glides into the Latin room with a youthful and majestic bearing that would make certain of the faculty green with envy. His report card gives silent evidence that he was not broken in health, and many think that his excellence in the classics can be explained only by an equestrian complex. "Fred" is our far traveler. He praises the Germans for their beer and the French for their wine, their women, and their Folies Bergere.

ACTIVITIES: Assistant Editor-in-Chief of the Centralizer; Mathematics Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chess.

FUTURE: Medicine.

JOSEPH ELI KATEN

"Joe"

1514 N. EIGHTH ST.

JOSEPHINE H. WIDENER SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"There's matter in 't if he be angry."

—Othello.

"Joe" has a fiery nature and when he gets his Herculean build inflamed, the mere opponent is better at a distance. But such characteristics handled with a sense of justice are friendship tonics, wherefore "Joe" is one of our most popular fellows. To be one of his close friends is to be one of a selected circle. His activities tell the story of his devotion to the old pile of granite.

ACTIVITIES: Centralizer Staff; News Editor (A); Junior Day Committee; B-C Hop Committee; Picture Committee; Bowling Team; House of Representatives; Latin Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Dancing.

FUTURE: Teaching.

IRVING KATZ

"Irv"

628 S. TWENTY-FIRST ST.

ANNA HALLOWELL SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"He's cunning past man's thought."

—Anthony and Cleopatra.

This is one of the stellar lights of the German classes. He has been running neck and neck with "Hank" Gottlieb for supremacy, but as yet—well, both are supreme. He has been very successful in all of his classes, showing much interest in Chemistry and English. From his displayed interest in the languages we suspect that his intention to teach will land him in a linguistic chair at some modern university.

ACTIVITIES: Latin Club; German Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Literature.

FUTURE: Pedagogy.

PHILIP D. KATZ

"Phip"

944 N. FRANKLIN ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

*"His hand unstained, his uncorrupted heart,
His comprehensive head! in our int'rests weighed."*

—Essay on Criticism.

In catering to the interests of school and class, "Phip" has reached an unusual record. Since "Phip" knows the ways of women and the art of dancing, he was made one of the big shots on the Senior Prom Committee. His skill in making a success of the B-C Hop also was an important factor in the class history. Because the profs recognized that he was a serious youth, they made him one of the Freshman advisors.

ACTIVITIES: Section President (H, G, F); M. S. R. (H, F, E, D); Section Treasurer (D); B-C Hop Committee; Freshman Baseball; Chairman, Study Hall Patrol; Penmanship Club; Freshman Advisor; Assistant Chairman, Senior Prom.

HOBBY: Women's Fashions.

FUTURE: Business.

DAVID KAUFMAN

"Dave"

2135 N. SIXTEENTH ST. JAMES L. CLAGHORN SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

*"A fellow of infinite jest;
Of most excellent fancy."*

—Hamlet.

"Dave's" is the face with the perpetual smile. He wears the same mask no matter how tragic the classroom scene, so that we somehow feel that there is indeed comedy in life itself when he is near. He has an insatiable appetite for Latin, and sitting next to Koch in 110 insured more fun than Latin. He has given us an accurate valuation on our rings, pins and other official jewelry, having been bred to the task.

ACTIVITIES: Bowling Team; Book President, Junior Year; Chairman, Junior Day Committee; B-C Hop Committee; Freshman Advisor; House of Representatives; Latin Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Anglicizing Latin.

FUTURE: Translations, Inc.

HOWARD M. KESSLER

"Kess"

1256 S. TWENTY-SIXTH ST. G. S. BENSON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"In his praise let every voice be joined."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Kess" never sat still a minute. He was always on the go. "Kess" was an athlete in his way, as he played on most of the section teams. By his good nature and sunny disposition he won the hearts of most of his classmates. His store of knowledge and studious habits have made him a friend of the faculty. His good looks are sufficient in attracting the girls. So, in reality, "Kess" was popular with all.

ACTIVITIES: Camera Club; Debating Society; Junior Varsity Football Team; Class Basketball; Current History Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Doctor.

SEYMOUR SOLOMON KETY

"Pussy"

3215 W. COLUMBIA AVE.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL

(Classical Course)

"Go, wondrous creature, mount where science guides,
Go, measure earth, weigh air, and state the tides;
Instruct the planets in what orbs to run,
Correct old time and regulate the sun."

—Essay on Man.

We can spare but room to call to your attention that "Pussy" is the scientific genius of the place. He presides at all scientific club meetings, sets the profs straight in the science class, writes obscure scientific treatises for the Mirror and spends his spare time debating and writing up the news.

ACTIVITIES: Editor-in-Chief of the Centralizer; Third Popularity Honor Man; Student Council; Captain, Championship Debating Team; Executive Committee; President, Chemistry Club; President, Science and Philosophy Club; President, Astronomical Society; Gold Medal, Junior Oratorical Contest; Gold Medal, Senior Oratorical Contest; Valedictorian; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Science.

FUTURE: Scientific Research.

MORRIS KIMELMAN

"Mar"

1627 N. THIRTY-SECOND ST.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL

(Classical Course)

"Of a truth he has wrought goodly works without number."

—Homer's Iliad.

Not satisfied with making a good job of the RECORD BOOK, Kim consented to tackle the job of publishing the most popular Mirrors ever sent to press. And what success! We'll always remember the most humorous Mirrors of all time. In addition, "Mar" was a member of the Student Council and assistant to the general chairman of the patrol. His chivalrous nature led him to enlist for the Fencing Team, as a member of which he battled for the old school.

ACTIVITIES: Mirror Staff (C, B, A); Editor-in-Chief (A); Editor-in-Chief of the RECORD BOOK; Student Council; Associate General Chairman, Student Patrol; Associate Editor, Class Papers; Executive Committee of 158th Class; Current History Club; Fencing Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Parading the Boards.

FUTURE: College.

NATHAN KLEIMAN

"Nat"

954 N. SIXTH ST.

GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL

(Commercial Course)

"He has no equal."

—Coriolanus.

"Nat" is good at basketball, baseball and, as a matter of interest, with any other game that is played with a ball. He has been just as good at cornering the best of marks in his classroom activities. Meanwhile, he has been entertaining us with a splendid store of jokes that have been far more popular with his fellows than with the profs. We shall see many days when a few minutes' clubbing with "Nat" would set the world right again. He has all his Barnwells.

ACTIVITIES: Library Assistant; German Club; Chess Club; Chess Team; Penmanship Club; Shorthand Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Considering the Future.

FUTURE: Business.

HARRY KOCHMAN

"Koch"

204 E. ALLEGHENY AVE. STETSON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

*"Full well they laughed with counterfeited glee
At all his jokes, for many a joke had he."*

—The Deserted Village.

We fear that "Koch" was the ringleader of laughing at the teacher's jokes, and frequently he added to the situation himself. He is the sort of fellow that laughs at the teachers more often than with them. For a' that he is a champion blues chaser. Even the pros joined in at times, and so we find that Harry has been heir to many E's. He served his class as athletic representative and brought them their Mirrors and Centralizers during his Frosh and Soph years.

ACTIVITIES: Latin Club; Barnwell Honor Roll; M. S. R. (G, E, F).

HOBBY: Piano lessons.

FUTURE: Medicine.

BOHDAN KOCIUBINSKY

"Koch"

731 BROWN ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"With speed arose he from the grey sea."

—The Iliad.

"Koch" is one of the chief factors responsible for the championship that the Swimming Team towed home. In the water he is a fish, on the land he is a flying fish, for he winged his way over hill and dale with the Cross-country Team. He helped bring home the championship in that branch of the winter's sports. And now he is doing his bit on the baseball diamond.

ACTIVITIES: Swimming Team, Champions; Cross-country Team, Champions; Baseball Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Athletics.

FUTURE: Pennsylvania.

STEPHEN KONOTOPSKI

"Topsky"

874 N. JUDSON ST. LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Give thy thoughts no tongue."

—Hamlet.

The non-talkers of the class are increased by the addition of "Topsky." He probably is that way so he can indulge in his pet hobby—psychology. In fact, his brains are weighed down by such heavy thoughts that he is never considered light-headed. The only time "Steve" is light-headed is in the "Astro" Club, where his thoughts are billions of light years away on some planet. This pastime put "Topsky" on the right side of the pros.

ACTIVITIES: Astronomy Club; Science and Philosophy Club; Mathematics Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Psychology.

FUTURE: Philosopher.

JACK ZACHERY KORMAN

"Jack"

3956 WYALUSING AVE.

OVERBROOK HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"I hold the world

As a stage, where every man must play a part."

—Merchant of Venice.

"Jack" takes pride in being useful. So he was invited to be the governor in "First Night," the Dramatic Society's fall production, just to prove that a useful man can be a governor. "Jack" was such a useful governor that in the next play they cast him as a doctor. He has been useful also by staying off the Student Patrol, on which score he also prides himself.

ACTIVITIES: Dramatic Club; Cast of "First Night"; Cast of "Merry Madness"; Mathematics Club; Book President (A); Centralizer Staff; Student Counselor; Advisor of Freshman Book.

HOBBY: Dramatics.

FUTURE: Dentistry.

ROBERT LEWIS KRAUSS

"Kraussy"

7217 N. TWENTIETH ST.

ROBERT MORRIS SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Who art thou? Say that I may honor thee."

—King Henry VI.

Robert Lewis, as the family named him, is a youth of the most gentlemanly qualities. His quiet, unassuming ways have conquered all of us, and like the folks at home, we, too, are proud to have him in our midst. He is the last of the 158th Class Krausses, having failed to break the law of the survival of the fittest. The faculty members have shown appreciation of his qualities, and rewarded his scholastic successes with excellent marks.

ACTIVITIES: German Club; Astronomical Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Professor.

HERBERT GEORGE KRUTZKE, JR.

"Herbie"

1625 E. PASSYUNK AVE.

BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Believe me for mine honor, and have respect to it."

—Julius Caesar.

"Herbie" is a mainstay on many occasions. Having seen successful service on the Cross-country Team, he naturally joined the Track Team. He is just as efficient and necessary as before. But the place where "Herbie" is his own mainstay every day is in the classroom. Very seldom is he caught scholastically napping, of which fact his report is proof.

ACTIVITIES: Cross-country Team; Track Team; Radio Club; Mathematical Society; Chess Club.

HOBBY: Women hater (hate to be without them).

FUTURE: Engineering.

Record

JACOB JACK KUSHNIR

"Jack"

1815 N. SIXTEENTH ST. JAMES L. CLAGHORN SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"And what is he?
Forsooth a great arithmetician."

—Othello.

"Jack" is unusually active about school and yet he manages to be one of those "E'sy" students. He probably works it out in mathematical equations, for "Jack" is a past master in "math" problems. "Jack" was put on the Centralizer because he was able to figure out next week's lunch menu. His skill in "math" makes him a hit with the girls, probably those who are weak in "math."

ACTIVITIES: Mathematics Club; Centralizer Staff (A, B); Class Paper (D, C); Interclub Council; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Pinochle.

FUTURE: Mechanical Dentistry.

ISRAEL LAKEN

"Lake"

1039 N. THIRD ST. FITZSIMONS JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

" 'Tis meet that noble minds keep ever with their likes."

—Julius Caesar.

To some it is as easy as pie, but to "Lake" it is as easy as Latin. The professors always gave him a good mark and set him down quickly, so that he would not ask embarrassing questions about the lesson. So great is "Lake's" knowledge of Latin that he spends his time making difficult Latin cross-word puzzles. He was an element in the Laken-Kety School of Latin correspondence—or was it the correspondence school of Latin. He hopes to spend much of his future on the throne in the front of 110.

ACTIVITIES: Publications Correspondent; Latin Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Cryptograms.

FUTURE: Professor of Latin.

JOSEPH LALLI

"Joe"

1012 DICKINSON ST. BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

"His words had weight and consequence."

—Gay's Fables.

Coursing the precious crimson stream of "Joe's" veins is the germ of thoroughness. All of his work, and much there is of it, is done most conscientiously. But do not suppose that he spends all of his time bending carefully over the printed page or the shop task, for "Joe" has carried his splendid habit into his recreation with a work-when-you-work, play-when-you-play attitude. He remembers that President Roosevelt once said from our fire escape, "Hit the line hard," so Lalli does that very thing even in the fire drills. We must also mention "Joe's" capacity for friendship, we all appreciate it.

ACTIVITIES: Aero Club; Astronomy Club.

HOBBY: Aviation.

FUTURE: College.

DAVID LANG

"Dave"

3834 W. GIRARD AVE. WAGNER JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Remember
What I have said to you."

—Hamlet.

"Dave" was the other inseparable member of the Lang-Kochman duo. "Dave" also supplied the merry element and the brains. He should become a millionaire in early life, since he was a wizard in the study of economics. The art of love was also one of "Dave's" pet subjects. In this he was extremely successful, for his motto was "no foreign entanglements." In this way he saved many a sad student in distress.

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committee; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Girls.

FUTURE: Advisor of the lovelorn.

FRANK LANGWORTHY

"Frank"

2107 GREEN ST. LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Firm and sound of heart."

—King Henry V.

"Frank" is the Langworthy boy who always arrived with the bell. His brother came in earlier so that we could tell them apart. The morning sprint seemed to get the day started right for "Frank," because he was much the more brilliant in the morning hours. "Frank" was a demon in the clubs, and if his attendance at their meetings were perfect he never got home on time. His tonsils have had their exercise regularly with the Glee Club.

ACTIVITIES: Glee Club; Radio Club; Science and Philosophy Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Radio.

FUTURE: Law.

HAROLD LANGWORTHY

"Langy"

2107 GREEN ST. LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"As if a man were author of himself
And knew no other kin."

—Coriolanus.

"Langy" was the brother who represented the family upon the athletic field. It was he who kicked the sphere about the lot trying to score a point or two for the Soccer Team. While Brother Frank was practicing for the Glee Club, Brother Harold practiced for the Orchestra, thus making life more pleasant for the neighbors. He also upheld the family reputation in the classroom.

ACTIVITIES: Orchestra; Soccer Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Music.

FUTURE: Music.

ALEXANDER LOUIS LASZLO

"Al"

1038 N. THIRD ST.

JOHN MOFFET SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"He intends

To teach vain wits, a science little known."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Al" is a walking paradox. He is too kind-hearted to do a fellow a single ill, but he intends to spend the hours of his manhood as a prof. Perhaps he is saving up his spleen. Perhaps it is his purpose to do his slave-driving in the art rooms, for he is a crackerjack in his art work. He has worked in all of the art clubs in the school.

ACTIVITIES: Art Club; Sculpture Club; Poster Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Art.

FUTURE: Professor.

IRVING LEVIN

"Irv"

411 S. SIXTH ST.

HORACE BINNEY SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Sir! thou art music's master."

—Pericles, Prince of Tyre.

When it comes to getting the most out of the "sax" (that's s-a-x), "Irv" is the boy who can come through with the moanin'. His results are most moving—to or from, we shall not specify. He had no more difficulty hitting "G" or "E" in the classroom than he did on the B-flat alto. Levin has warned us that he is preparing to be a professor—but, "Irv" boy, not one of those chorus teachers, please.

ACTIVITIES: Orchestra; Band; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Music.

FUTURE: Teaching.

LOUIS LEVIN

"Blackie"

2444 N. THIRTIETH ST.

JAMES L. CLAGHORN SCHOOL

(Industrial Arts Course)

"And when he chose to sport and play,

No youth was e'er so gay."

—William Wordsworth.

"Blackie" developed a remarkable facial contortion which made him look clever. His laugh was built on generous proportions—not a stingy, little snicker that made you wish you had saved your joke for someone else, but a great, hearty guffaw. In class "Blackie" is pre-eminent, for the slope of his penmanship and his ability to fix the professors' cars put him in demand everywhere. He is an all-round good fellow in sports, studies and social life.

ACTIVITIES: Student Patrol; Class Baseball; Class Representative; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Swimming.

FUTURE: Successful life.

SYDNEY LEVITAN
"Syd"

1545 S. SEVENTH ST.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NO. 48, BRONX, N. Y.
(Academic Course)

"A youth of labor with an age of ease."

—The Deserted Village.

This young man was heading direct for Mirror fame when many other activities directed his attention. And the Mirror no longer received his blood-and-thunder stories. "Syd" got his materials gazing at the warfare on Mars or in his recovering from the explosions in the chemical laboratory at club time. He was once a reporter for the Centralizer, but the life was too tame. "Syd" is the promoter, editor and printer's devil on the staff of the German publication, "Der Zuschauer."

ACTIVITIES: Mirror Staff; Centralizer Staff; Astronomical Society; Science and Philosophy Club; German Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Writing.

FUTURE: Pedagogy.

MORTON C. LEVY
"Leve"

2027 N. THIRTY-THIRD ST.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"O, that this too too solid flesh would melt."

—Hamlet.

"Leve" being of the proverbial proportions, joined the police force at an early age and worked himself free of beat-pounding. He has been a fond traveler, and it appears that he must have lived on the fat of all lands. He has been so efficient at getting money from his classmates that they have twice re-elected him Book Treasurer. "Leve" says that the secret is to be calm and collect.

ACTIVITIES: Book Treasurer (C, B, A); Mirror Business Staff (B, A); Astronomical Society; Director, Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Travel.

FUTURE: Medicine.

WILLIAM LEWIS "Will"

2027 PARRISH ST.

LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Alone he deserves the favor of the great."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Will's" blithe smile and pleasant ways have made him first in the hearts of his fellowmen. His industrious diligence in garnering praiseworthy marks has put him in good with the the pros. It is in class sports that "Will" has let loose most of his athletic ability, especially in baseball did his skill make him a competent participant on most teams. And his scholastic skill made competent in all rooms.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Track; Baseball; Interclass Baseball Team; Junior Day Sports; Mathematics Club; Chess Club; Penmanship Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: C. P. A.

LOUIS HENRY LIPMAN

"Lew"

850 N. FOURTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"A sunny look of his would soon repair a woeful face."
—Love's Labour's Lost.

Here we have his Royal Highness, Louis the .015. Besides being a member of the notorious "musketeers" (Gorin, Kleinman, Lipman) kibitzers par excellence, "Lew" is a rolling hit on the Bowling Team. He has some of the most original ideas. They must be good, for "Lew" has most of Girls' Trade School on his telephone list. Some were howling successes, but "Lew" was a bowling success in sports, studies, and with girls.

ACTIVITIES: Bowling Team; German Club; Vice-President of Book B; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: President of P. R. R.

SAMUEL LIPMAN

"Sam"

850 N. FOURTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Thy life had a snatch of honor in it."
—Julius Caesar.

"Sam" is one of the most unusual of all high school students, for he went forth to the Latin wars without a horse. Perhaps we have been the victim of one of his practical jokes, but we have not discovered it. We still maintain that he walks. In the days to come, heaven lending its consent, "Sam" is to be a millionaire tennis champion.

ACTIVITIES: Aero Club; Chess Club; Debating Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Tennis.

FUTURE: Financier.

HERMAN LORBER

"Herm"

2012 N. THIRTY-SECOND ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"There lives not this day a nobler man."
—Titus Andronicus.

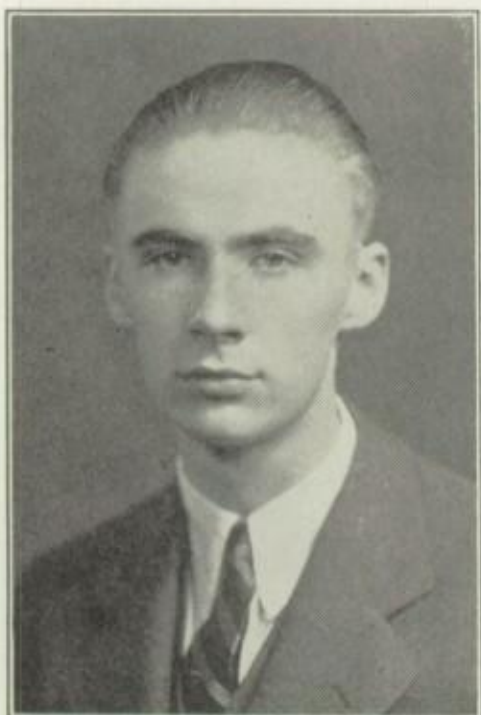

"Hermie" is rather small in stature, but he certainly can handle that little with considerable skill on the athletic field. Track is his specialty, but he finds time to play some interclass soccer. To keep limber he works on the Student Patrol and is police reporter for the Centralizer. For fear of exposure, therefore, the faculty members have given him good marks on his report.

ACTIVITIES: Varsity Track; Interclass Athletics; Centralizer Staff; German Club; Section President (G, F, E, D, C); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Teaching.

✓
MAX WALTER LORENZ

"Deutsch"

2425 SEVENTY-SEVENTH AVE. LOWER MORELAND SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"His swift feet did bear him across the field."

—The Iliad.

"Deutsch" is one of the few long-legged "Eiffel Towers" who can tell us shrimps how the air is up there. Not until his Senior year did he realize that he could cover three times as much in one stride, so it was then that he joined the cross-country squad, which action resulted in a championship for the old school. "Deutsch" is rather fast in getting over the pages of German also.

ACTIVITIES: Championship Cross-country Team; German Club; Current History Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Penn State.

JOSEPH MICHAEL LUSEN

"Lucy"

2325 S. MILDRED ST. HORACE H. FURNESS SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Like a good deed in a naughty world."

—The Merchant of Venice.

Lusen is a speed demon on the surface of the earth and has decided to do better by taking to the air. He hopes to break the 100-yard-dash records for airplanes. "Lucy" intends to follow the planes for a livelihood, making up the designs from his own head. His skill in mechanical drawing has been a godsend to his classmates. Even they managed to get E's in the subject either by example or assistance, we know not which.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Baseball; Track Team; Tennis Team; Fencing Club; Camera Club.

HOBBIES: Reading, Mechanics.

FUTURE: Aeronautics.

SYDNEY MAGNES

"Syd"

852 N. MARSHALL ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Bold Gentlemen:

Prosperity be thy page."

—Coriolanus.

No kidding, "Syd" is the Don Juan of the 158th Class. He had the most miserable of existences, always in a state of warfare, fighting the women off. The world of make-believe is looking forward to the graduation of the super-creature, for he has decided to become a theatrical manager and owner. "Syd" has promised to give complimentary tickets to any member of the class who is not on the student patrol.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Swimming Team; Penmanship Club; Shorthand Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Harmonics.

FUTURE: The Theatre.

ETTORE MARCANTUONO

"Marco"

1419 MOORE ST.

BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"A touch, a touch! I do confess."

—Hamlet.

To a few chemistry meant an E, but to "Marco" it meant sleep. On the day of each game, "Marco" would take a refreshing nap in the chemistry period and felt like a million All-Americans when the game started. By a system of mental telepathy he passed. "Marco" applied the Barron system (lick them in the second half or report period) to his subjects and thereby was a success in them all. Of course, he passed French with flying colors when the prof learned he was related to Marc (o) Antony.

ACTIVITIES: Varsity Football Team; Debating Society; Chemistry Club; Freshman Advisor.

HOBBY: Making touchdowns. FUTURE: Football coach.

BERNARD MARCUS

"Bernie"

223 FAIRMOUNT AVE. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL

(Commercial Course)

"He is a proper man, as one shall see in a summer's day."

—Midsummer Night's Dream.

"Bernie" is Rudy Vallee's one and only competitor. Rudy has one-third the girls tied down, but "Bernie" goes him one better and ties down the other two-thirds. Besides breaking women's hearts, "Bernie's" other hobby is solving geometry problems. At times he seems to be Mr. Euclid himself in the geometry class. If "Bernie" keeps it up, he is bound to stay here and teach others how to master angles and curves, particularly curves.

ACTIVITIES: Camera Club; Astronomical Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Photography.

FUTURE: Photographer.

MATTHEW MASON

"Hard Rock Charlie"

2447 NICHOLAS ST.

REYNOLDS SCHOOL

(Industrial Arts Course)

"It was not only his learning, but also his natural disposition that gained friends."

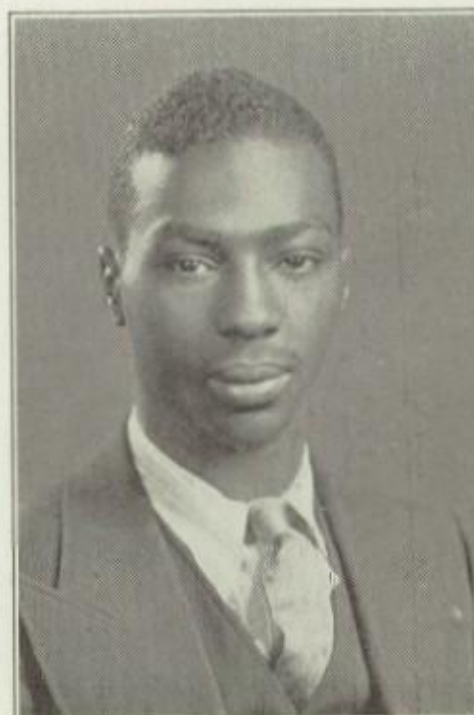

—Cicero's Archias.

"Hard Rock Charlie"—probably he got that name because his friendship is as durable as hard rock, for Charlie certainly is a likable chap. The track team values his services, for it is of the kind that produces results. The pros also hold him in high esteem, for when he speaks, words of wisdom spring from his lips. The machine shops never see the end of him, he is always experimenting and investigating.

ACTIVITIES: Book Treasurer (D-C); Class Baseball Team; Track Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Track.

FUTURE: Electrician.

JOHN McKELVEY

"Pat"

1629 S. ROSEWOOD ST. BARRATT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

"But hark, I hear the footing of a man."

—Merchant of Venice.

"Pat" is another member who increases the popular ranks of the Industrials. He is liked by the pros for his keen intellect and studious knowledge, and by his fellow classmates for his good nature, cheerfulness, and his ability to help others in a pinch. At the same time he indulges in a diversified multitude of sports for the benefit of all teams concerned. The machines in the shop formed another attraction for "Pat," for he could always be found near them.

ACTIVITIES: Baseball Team; Track Team; Swimming Team; Tennis Team; Football Team; Student Patrol.

HOBBY: Wrecking autos.

FUTURE: Fixing autos.

Jack

JACK D. MEINSTER

"Cap'n Jake"

6512 N. EIGHTEENTH ST. CAMPBELL LYONS SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"His form august, a conquering chief."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Cap'n Jake" is the up-and-doing leader of our Soccer Team. In fact, he has been up and doing for three long years, much to the regret and disgust of the rival teams. By this time soccer has changed from a sport to a habit for our veteran extraordinary. Then to top off the "soccerial" cream in his coffee, he became captain of the Interclass Soccer "champs," which is, indeed, a "captainal" record.

ACTIVITIES: Captain, Soccer Team, '31; Soccer Team, '29, '30, '31; Captain, Interclass Championship Soccer Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Dentist.

SAMUEL MELNICK

"Sam"

511 S. SIXTEENTH ST. NORTHWEST SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"In arguing he owned his skill."

—The Deserted Village.

"Sam" is most pleasantly disposed and very amiable until the argument starts; then no one likes "Sam" because "Sam" insists upon having his way. Even in the Debating Society he argued himself into the presidency. And in the inter-scholastic debates the judges didn't have a chance, so we won the cup. "Sam" had not the sense during his younger days to stay away from police headquarters, whereupon they made him a cop, and to get him away from that they put him on the bench, instead of on the spot.

ACTIVITIES: Championship Debating Team; Judge, Student Tribunal; Director, Student Patrol; Commencement Speaker; Vice-President, Interclub Council; B-C Hop Committee; Senior Prom Committee; President, Debating Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Scouting.

FUTURE: The Supreme Court.

HERBERT MERRITZ

"Herb"

1918 N. STANLEY ST.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Henceforth I ask not good fortune;
I am myself good fortune."

—Walt Whitman.

Paging six feet of fun! "Herb" is a physical marvel, but the girls don't think so. He says he doesn't like girls, but just mention a date and then form your own opinion. Anyway, "Herb" has plenty of initiative, and in South America he is going to become something better than a Spanish caballero. In the near future we expect "Herb" to come back to Central as an alumnus and torture the study hall students with "My Successful Career and Adventures in South America."

ACTIVITIES: Penmanship Club; Aero Club; House of Representatives; Senior Prom Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Playing pinochle.

FUTURE: South America.

HAROLD NATHANIEL METZGER

"Metz"

1947 N. THIRTY-THIRD ST.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"This might be the pate of a politician."

—Hamlet.

Metzger is the pull-itical boss of the class; as a matter of fact, of the school. Because of his insistence, his friends demanded that he run for the presidency of the Student Council, so he consented and was elected. But this young Adonis' greatest claim to fame is that he was the only member of our class who admitted he belonged to the "right fraternity."

ACTIVITIES: First Popularity Honor Man; President, Student Association; Student Council, Treasurer (B), President (A); Judge, Student Tribunal; Director, Student Patrol (D); Executive Committee; Benefit Committee; Manager, Swimming Team ('30); Manager Tennis Team ('30); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Politics.

FUTURE: College.

ROBERT E. MILNER

"Bob"

1319 POINT BREEZE AVE.

G. S. BENSON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Unarm Eros! the long day's task is done,
And we may sleep."

—Antony and Cleopatra.

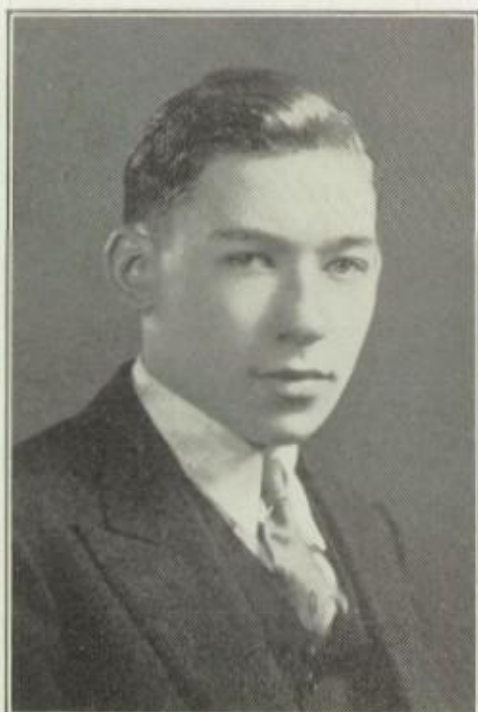

When asked what his most important activities are, "Bob" very wisely replied, "Eating and sleeping." "Bob" is so much interested in the theatres that he had little time for extra-curricular activities at the school, since this is not a co-ed school. Because the gods of attendance would not consider "Bob" a proselyte, he was absent once. Of course, having one chief interest in the old pile of granite, "Bob" has an enviable record of scholastic achievement.

ACTIVITIES: Barnwell Honor Roll; Science and Philosophy Club; Chemistry Club.

HOBBY: The Theatre.

FUTURE: Veterinary Medicine.

JOSEPH MINTZER

"Joe"

4234 STILES ST.

GERMANTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"How far your genius, taste, and learning, go"

—Essay on Criticism.

Psycho analysis is the hobby that fits "Joe" to an "E." It is in analyzing his subjects that "Joe" is such a high averaging success. Once interested in a subject he squeezes all the good out of it. In economics especially does "Joe" reap the cream of the crop of marks. Aided by his vast knowledge of the stock exchange, "Joe" is sure never to be a stock "crasher."

ACTIVITIES: Current History Club; Astronomy Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Psycho Analysis.

FUTURE: Law.

MARTIN MOLDOFF

"Marty"

1501 VINE ST.

NORTHWEST SCHOOL

(Commercial Course)

"It's the first time that I ever heard
That breaking of ribs was sport."

—As You Like It.

What a man! Hercules Londos Weismueller Moldoff. On the mat he twisted a mean hold, in the tank he splashed a mean stroke and everywhere he smiled a pleasant smile, even in 203. He was there the day old Central won the Swimming Championship and his was not an unimportant bit of assistance. Many of the members of the class are much indebted to him, for it was he who sent out the letters which resulted in the inclusion of many in this volume.

ACTIVITIES: Championship Swimming Team; Wrestling Team; Book Treasurer (C); Dramatic Society.

HOBBY: Caring for the weaker sex. FUTURE: Accounting.

ANTHONY MOTAYTES

"Moe"

1228 SPRING GARDEN ST.

ASSUMPTION PAROCHIAL SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"My tongue within my lips I rein,
For who talks much, must talk in vain."

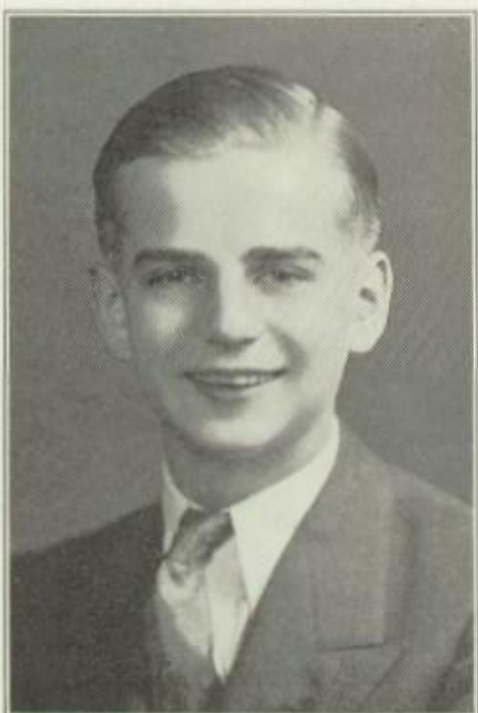

—Gay's Fables.

Here is the sheik of the Mechanics Arts group. The crowds of girls which gather at the corner assemble to watch this bit of manly scenery enter the annex. He has the habit of calling for help while working in the shops by saying, "Hand me this" or "hand me that," and so he is generally known as Hand me Andy, or by way of progressive dictional change Handy Andy. Andy's hope for fame are to be rested upon the building of hangars for the bigger and better airships of the future.

ACTIVITIES: Craftsman Club; Aero Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Engineering.

Record

CHARLES L. MYERS

"Charlie"

1248 S. TWENTY-EIGHTH ST. G. S. BENSON SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

"How vast his talents born to rule
And trained in virtue's honest school."
—Gay's Fables.

There is unquestionably a casual relationship existing between "Charlie's" leadership complex and the tenure of office in his section, for he has been president of the section for two full years. He has been a leader in the scholastic work of the group also. It appears at this late date that the members of the faculty hold no particular terror for him, or of him either, and he stands in best with the Department of Art, for which he has made some excellent charcoal sketches and architectural drawings.

ACTIVITIES: Section President (D, C, B, A); Rifle Club; Barnwell Honor Roll; Student Patrol.

HOBBY: Sketching. FUTURE: Architectural Engineering.

JACOB NEMIROFF

"Jake"

257 S. FOURTH ST. HORACE BINNEY SCHOOL
(Classical Course)

"Go, soar with Plato to th' empyreal sphere."

—Essay on Man.

I have just this one write-up to make because "Jake" is modest. It was he who, tired of writing about members of championship teams, decided to do his bit to make this a championship RECORD BOOK. "Jake's" chief occupation this term has been the thorough study of literature to get the verse for this book, but his chief interest has been translating Leary's Plato into Howe's Greek and from Nemiroff's Greek into original Latin. He is working on a five-foot shelf of "poniads."

ACTIVITIES: Class Poet; Associate Editor-in-Chief, The RECORD; Feature Editor, The Mirror; Centralizer Staff; Class Paper Staff; Ernest Lacy Literary Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: The Holy Book of 110. FUTURE: Literal Translating.

HARRY MILTON NODLER

"Har"

1829 W. COLUMBIA AVE. GEORGE G. MEADE SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"His parts and wit,
When jests grew dull, we're sure to hit."
—Gay's Fables.

"Har," in more ways than one, proved himself the dancing sheik of the class. From what he tells of last night's party he must be simply irresistible. This, no doubt, is why handsome Harry has been such an important figure on the dance committees. Little did we suspect when he was appointed Freshman Advisor that we were letting the little fellow in for so much education on certain subjects. But, after all, love's an art.

ACTIVITIES: B-C Hop Committee; Benefit Committee; Senior Prom Committee; Student Patrol; Penmanship Club.

HOBBY: Anecdotes. FUTURE: Popular Music.

JACOB NUSSBAUM

"Nuss"

2136 W. COLUMBIA AVE. FITZSIMONS JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"His brain hath strategem and art, Prudence and mercy rule his heart."

—Gay's Fables.

We all remember Nussbaum's bid for fame in a skit on "Gene Tuna Fish." He has achieved an unquestioned popularity—no doubt about it. What's more, a fellow must have a strong personality as well as a gutteral gift to become President of the German Club. Little "Nuss" has been an important factor in the popularity of the Dramatic Society meetings and he gave excellent account of himself on the soccer field.

ACTIVITIES: President, German Club; Dramatic Society; Camera Club; Soccer Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Dramatics.

FUTURE: He hasn't decided.

ISADORE OSTRICH

"Chisel"

2161 N. THIRTY-SECOND ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"'Tis from high life characters are drawn?"

—Essay on Criticism.

"Chisel" was the other half of the "Izzy Twins," those irreconcilable radicals. He was sure to raise a protest against anything which did not meet with his approval. Because he felt the Student Patrol was a beneficial (?) organization, he enrolled and rose to the exalted position of associate general chairman. Remembering his Freshman days, he became a Freshman advisor, to make sure his charge would lead a righteous life. "Noddles" was his particular friend, especially in the English class.

ACTIVITIES: Associate General Chairman, Student Patrol; Ring Committee; Pin Committee; Freshman Advisor; Student Patrol Reform.

HOBBY: Student Patrol Reform. FUTURE: Big Business.

JACK OVCHAROV

"Jack"

3030 EUCLID AVE. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"By his election may be truly read What kind of man he is."

—Cymbeline.

"Jack" has been lucky, for many of the profs would rather pass up the recitation than twist the tongue to pronounce the name that he has made honorable among us. "Jack" has been the chief of the exchequer since the organization of the class and has the funds and finances in most excellent condition. We are getting more for our dues than any class in a generation. Before then they collected no dues. He has been the President of his Book for six terms. His art work has been excellent, even where the competition is so strong.

ACTIVITIES: Treasurer, 158th Class, Junior and Senior Years; Student Council; Executive Committee; Art Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Art.

FUTURE: Artist.

PETER G. PAPPAS

"Greek"

535 SPRUCE ST.

SOUTH PHILA. HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"The crowd admired his wit, his sense."

—Gay's Fables.

At the same time that "Greek" was figuring on the athletic field, he was doing well in the classroom and giving a lift on the publication of the news sheets of school and class. Pete was a star of the soccer team last fall and played J. V. basketball. He helped Kety produce the Centralizer and was a chief assistant on the class paper. He is one of our most versatile Seniors.

ACTIVITIES: Associate Editor, Centralizer; Associate Editor, A-men; Junior Day Committee; Student Patrol; Book Treasurer (C); J. V. Basketball; J. V. Soccer ('29, '30); Varsity Soccer ('32); Junior Day Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Medicine.

BERNARD PELTZ

"Bernie"

618 W. NORRIS ST.

JOSEPH C. FERGUSON SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Let us teach others who themselves excel."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Bernie" is one of the jovial members of that never-to-be-forgotten group that made life merry in 307. However, his nature is quite deceiving at times, especially during the dramatic season. Whenever he approaches you, he usually departs plus a dime and minus a ticket. Being a gifted ticket seller, "Bernie" was made vice-president of the dramatic society. If "Bernie" intends to become a ticket seller at one of the theatres we are sure of getting in free.

ACTIVITIES: Dance Committee (B-C); Stagecraft Club; Dramatic Society; Picture Committee; Section Baseball.

HOBBY: Music.

FUTURE: Business.

VICTOR JOSEPH PIESTRAK

"Vic"

823 N. TAYLOR ST.

CAMERON, N. Y., No. 4

(Industrial Arts Course)

"Before his name flies every fault."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Vic" is a hard worker—diligent, willing, quiet, and unassuming. These traits were revealed through his ability to make high grades. But "Vic" soon grew from working for marks to working for work's sake. Whatever needed doing, and was too difficult for others, had to yield to the persistence of his attack. "Vic" also has a real talent for draftsmanship. He finds it easy to make friends in spite of his success, for he bore his honors without arousing envy. With him it is, "Once a friend, always a friend."

ACTIVITIES: Craftsman Club; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Airplane Study.

FUTURE: Architect.

PHILIP POLLOCK
"Phil"

617 S. EIGHTH ST.
GEORGE WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL, NEW YORK CITY
(Academic Course)

"Follow nature, and your judgment frame
By her just standard which is still the same."
—Essay on Criticism.

"Phil" came to Central from New York because he hadn't heard of the Study Hall system. He is the kind of a fellow that one always likes to sit next to in a test. He never says much (except in a test) but he is always prepared, and willing to give all possible help to those less fortunate. "Phil's" chief claim to the Hall of Fame is his good-natured acceptance of all things. Somehow he fails to get excited when he gets his good marks. He's calm and cool and if he is ever blown to bits by an explosion, he'll be "collected."

ACTIVITIES: Chemistry Club; Debating Society; Current History Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Playing pinochle.

FUTURE: Business.

MARTIN PORTNER
"Marty"

2308 E. CLEARFIELD ST. JONES JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"You justly bear a critic's noble name."
—Essay on Criticism.

It is in the Senior year that "Marty" shines with importance in class affairs. Being an accomplished dancer with many a date in his address book, "Marty" saw to it that the Senior Prom would have its usual success. Then to make sure that all would be kosher on the banquet front, "Marty" adopted the Banquet Committee. Naturally, another success was molded in his hands.

ACTIVITIES: Current History Club; Student Patrol; Tennis Team; German Club; Junior Day Committee; Interclub Council; B-C Hop Committee; Senior Prom Committee; Banquet Committee.

HOBBY: To be or not to be.

FUTURE: Dentist.

HERBERT POWELL
"Herb"

715 SOUTH ST. JAMES CAMPBELL SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Hath thy toil O'er books consumed the midnight oil?"
—Gay's Fables.

"It's a system," was "Herb's" inevitable answer whenever asked how he made his high marks in the various drawbacks of a happy high school life. Whether the system was a matter of excellent horsemanship or the burning of midnight oil is a question that only Mr. Leary can answer. Because he could not pick up enough stars, "Herb" quit the Student Patrol while he was still a Frosh. If he uses his established system as a pharmacist he will surely have a good soda fountain.

ACTIVITIES: His system; Aero Club.

HOBBY: Codes.

FUTURE: College.

MILTON H. RATNER

"Milt"

4719 N. TENTH ST. JAY COOKE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"His valor and his generous mind Proved him superior of his kind."

—Gay's Fables.

"Milt" is going to be an aeronautical engineer, which in the common tongue means that he is going to make and break airplanes. After breaking up all the automobiles in the annex building he looked for higher things to conquer, so he took to the planes. His greatest danger is the propensity to take things apart, which might prove embarrassing should his desires overcome him at an altitude of five thousand feet.

ACTIVITIES: Aero Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Motors. FUTURE: Aeronautical Engineering.

THOMAS M. REED

"Tom"

759 N. SEVENTEENTH ST. CHELTENHAM HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He tried his strength before each race."

—Gay's Fables.

Because of his ability to make noise according to faculty specifications, "Tom" has played in both Band and Orchestra long enough to be considered a well-tuned veteran. His experience as a horn stuffer has given him wind enough to do things at cross-country running. His wind also allows him to pep up some of our dreariest classes, and gain a few E's into the bargain.

ACTIVITIES: Director, Student Patrol; Band; Orchestra; Cross-country Team; Fencing Club; Fencing Team; Chess Club.

HOBBY: Seeking something to do. FUTURE: Still hunting.

WILLIAM S. REED

"Bill"

928 N. ELEVENTH ST. TEMPLE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

*"I have been in continual practice;
I shall win at odds in the future."*

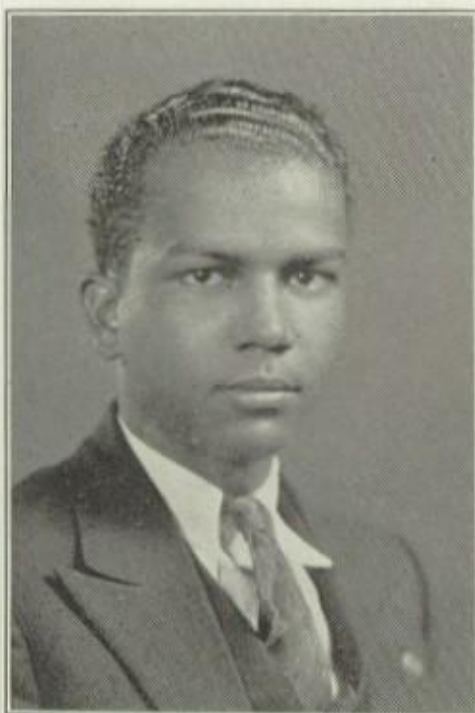

—Hamlet.

"Bill" is a hard, honest worker who well knows how to get down to business. He has not been known to refuse to do good turns when the opportunity offers, and he moves among us in such a friendly way that we are always better for his presence. His personality has gone across to the faculty, too, for the pros have been kind to him and have rewarded him with a goodly crop of E's.

ACTIVITIES: Art Craft Club; Book President (D, C); Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Electricity. FUTURE: Electrical Engineering.

OCTAVIOUS T. REID

"Teddy"

2141 FEDERAL ST.

JOHN HAY SCHOOL

(Industrial Arts Course)

"We admire his superior sense."

—Essay on Criticism.

The Industrials are represented by "Teddy" in every field of endeavor, for he is an executive, athlete, writer, director, scholar, and clubman all in one. At first he was not much heard of on the class front, because he was busy piling up high averages. It was from this practice that he acquired the habit of enjoying his "trig" (strange as it may seem). But in his senior year "Teddy" showed us how to get out in front, and his many activities proved it.

ACTIVITIES: Section President (A, B); Track Team; RECORD BOOK Staff; Sports Editor, "A-Men"; Director, Student Patrol; Mathematics Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Doing "Trig."

FUTURE: Success.

GERSON ROSENBAUM

"Gerry"

1601 PINE ST.

NORTHWEST SCHOOL

(Commercial Course)

"Wear thy good rapier bare; Fence and put it home again."

—Othello.

Seeing "Gerry" means seeing red. The flaming locks of this flaming youth are a warning to the world at large that he is on his way. Strangely enough, "Gerry" gives evidence that he likes the black-eyed Spanish girls, because he is most industrious in the occupation of learning their language. He is a great pal of all the fellows in the class, including some who have pretty sisters. To further his chivalry he takes a workout with the fencers regularly.

ACTIVITIES: Fencing Club; Penmanship Club.

HOBBY: Fencing.

FUTURE: College.

OSCAR ROSENBERG

"Oc"

3039 W. DAUPHIN ST.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"He loveth to bear his ills bravely."

—Euripides' Medea.

When tennis is mentioned, "Oc" will be at the tennis field an hour beforehand. When Latin is mentioned—he groans. Latin is "Oc's" Nemesis. Therefore, he spends most of his time and energy on that beloved (?) subject. His marks in his other studies are inversely proportional to his Latin average. That's why he is a star student. Outside of school, the tennis court claims "Oc."

ACTIVITIES: Ring Committee; Pin Committee; Mathematics Club; Latin Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Tennis.

FUTURE: Darrow's Place.

Record

SIDNEY ROSENBERG "Sid"

1614 N. FRANKLIN ST. JOSEPH C. FERGUSON SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Hear me for my cause and be silent."
—Julius Caesar.

The Student Patrol and the Chess Club are the two sauces of "Sid's" school life. The glamor of the former indoor sport was too strong for "Sid" to resist, so now we find the Student Patrol the better for his joining. When off duty "Sid" spends his time waiting out a game of chess. Though he hasn't lost an endurance game, he adopts the losing of one as his hobby. Since he expects to land up against Wall Street, "Sid" finds Central's Congress a helpful aid.

ACTIVITIES: House of Representatives; Chess Club; Astronomy Club; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chess. FUTURE: Stock Exchange.

JAMES ROSOFF "Jim"

409 PINE ST. HORACE BINNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"With music strong I come—with my cornets and my drums."
—Walt Whitman.

Say "Jimmy" and you say drums. "Jim" is the drummingest drummer of the class; in fact, the only one. After growing up with the Orchestra, he helped the band scare other teams with his "musistatic." "Jim" also helps in drumming up trade and "ads" for the Mirror. This must have been a soft snap, for he joined the RECORD BOOK Business Staff.

ACTIVITIES: Assistant Manager, Basketball Team (F); Book Treasurer (B); Orchestra; Band; Mirror Staff; Prom Committee.

HOBBY: Getting Ducks. FUTURE: Commercial Artist.

MORRIS ROTH

316 POPLAR ST. ROXBOROUGH JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"The generous critic fanned the writer's fire."
—Essay on Criticism.

Because he desires his marks to follow an upward trend, he refrains from that dangerous business—politics. But with great enthusiasm he has followed a literary career and is one of the Mirror's dependable contributors. He is a valuable aid to the magazine, for the circulation always increases when one of his lengthy stories appear. Until the building falls down, he intends to attend every meeting of the Ernest Lacy Literary Society.

ACTIVITIES: Ernest Lacy Literary Society; Literary Editor, Mirror; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBIES: Reading and Writing. FUTURE: Writer.

AARON RUBIN

"Reds"

932 N. SECOND ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Give me audience, friends."

—Julius Caesar.

For the boy with the gift of gab, "Reds" takes the cake. It was this talkative nature that made "Reds" one of the most sociable fellows in the class. We wonder where we would find enough excitement if it were not for him. After school he continues his eloquent oratory in the Current History Club. Probably the best thing "Reds" ever did was not to bring his saxophone to school. Noticing the effect on his neighbors, he decided that it would be a little too much for us also. If he continues to massacre his notes, he will make an excellent surgeon.

ACTIVITIES: Current History Club; German Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: The Saxophone.

FUTURE: Surgeon.

LEON X. RUBIN

"Rube"

3023 W. SUSQUEHANNA AVE. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"His actions prove his honest mind,
So shines his light before mankind."

—Gay's Fables.

"Rube" is one of the few normal and honest boys in the class—he admits that he hates work. He says that because he has a big sock full of E's already. During our junior year "Rube" broke his leg playing football. He was absent for a long, happy, luxurious month, and upon returning he endeavored to break the other leg on the soccer field. He had tough luck and the leg would not break, so he found it necessary to attend classes. "Rube" wants to be a surgeon. Perhaps you will bring him some business.

ACTIVITIES: Book Treasurer (D); House of Representatives; Debating Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Athletics.

FUTURE: Surgery.

RICHARD RUDOLPH

"Dick"

605 N. SIXTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"He is as valient as Mark Anthony."

—King Henry V.

"Dick" has been one of the most ardent supporters of that most popular of all Central High athletic activities, corner ball. He is a member of the championship trio. Because he found his class work so easy, he had time for some more formal athletic activity. He is a veteran member of the Soccer Team and one of the chief factors in winning the interclass championship for the 158th's Soccer Team.

ACTIVITIES: Soccer, '30, '31; Interclass Athletics; German Club.

HOBBY: Scouting.

FUTURE: Author.

PHILIP SACHS

"Phil"

3047 POTTER ST.

JOHN MOFFET SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Who is Sylvia? What is she?"

—Shakespeare.

It is jazz for most of us, but for "Phil," only the best of music is desired. That is the reason why he didn't take chorus. We don't understand why "Phil" wants to have long hair, but there must be something in it. "Aiming high" is "Phil's" motto, not only in music, but also in his studies. He usually did reach the upper stratosphere of marks. Because "Phil" thought he was a deuced handsome chap (and he's not far from right), he joined the Dramatic Society.

ACTIVITIES: Section President (H, G, F, E); Dramatic Society; Debating Society; Section Treasurer (D, C).

HOBBIES: Good Music and Operas. FUTURE: Aeronautical Engineer.

ISADORE SCHATZ

"Izzy"

2166 N. THIRTY-SECOND ST. NORTHEAST HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Liberty! Freedom! and Enfranchisement!"

—Julius Caesar.

Petitioner Schatz has played the role of lifesaver. He has ever been waving a petition overhead; now a petition to abolish this; now a petition to start that, and now a petition for the petition's sake. Only the direct influence of Schneyer saved the Student Patrol from death upon a petition. We are indebted to him for the frequent salvation from zero for a prof can't flunk one while he must argue with another. In our hearts we have recorded his "Question," "Fact," "Contradiction."

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committee; Junior Day Committee; French Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Petitions.

FUTURE: Success.

ISADORE S. SCHECTMAN

"Buzzy"

901 N. FRANKLIN ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Here's money for your pains."

—Othello.

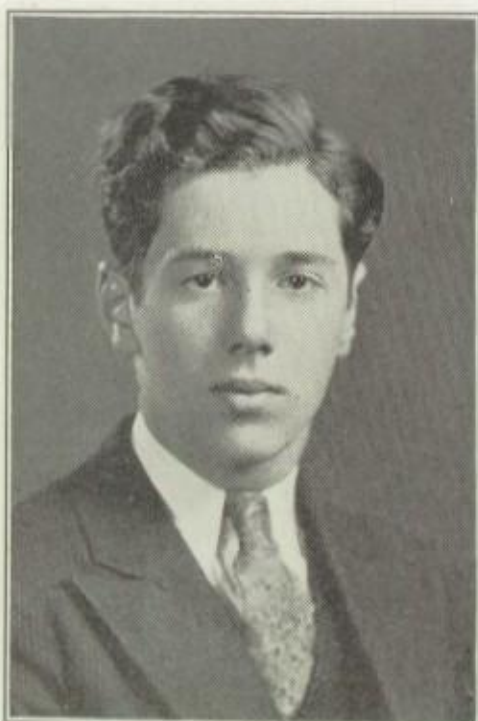

"Coo-coo" and we are aware that "Buzzy" is just around the corner. No, no! it isn't that he has bats in the steeple, but it is either his opinion of some of us or his attempts to wake up prosperity, which is also reputed to be around the corner. The "coo-coo" habit became rather widespread until Schatz threatened to organize another petition.

ACTIVITIES: RECORD BOOK Staff; Book Treasurer (B, A); Ring Committee; Debating Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: From A to Z.

FUTURE: P.H.D.—X. Y. Z.

ZACHARY SCHLAFF

"Zack"

4404 GERMANTOWN AVE. GILLESPIE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"The moral of my wit
I speak plain and true."

—Troilus and Cressida.

"Zack" carries under his external dignity and earnestness an unsuspected spirit of merriment and fun. He has released his mirth at well-chosen moments to relieve the tedium of our undergraduate days. To many he represents the spirit of chess incarnate, for he is ever at the boards in 203. He spends much of his time trying to solve the wonders of nature, also—wherefore, he is president of the nature lovers.

ACTIVITIES: Chess Club; Chess Team; President, Natural Science Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chess.

FUTURE: Surgery.

SOLOMON SCHNEYER

"Eric"

1701 N. THIRD ST.

JOHN HANCOCK SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"I framed many an English ditty lovely well."

—Henry IV.

"Eric" is a cheery gent who sees to it that our life at Central is free from care. His sunny nature and ever-ready flow of wit dispels gloom at a second's notice. "Eric" is known especially for his theme songs, which banished care in 307. In following this pursuit of enlightenment "Eric" became well known to the professors, as his marks will show. In the meanwhile, "Eric" helps turn out bigger and better class papers. In the summer, Houston Field finds him taking care of the Track Team.

ACTIVITIES: Orchestra; Benefit Committee; Assistant Manager, Track Team; Class Paper Staff.

HOBBY: Music.

FUTURE: Dentistry.

ALBERT JOSEPH SCHWAB

"Al"

1931 MASTER ST.

ST. JOSEPH'S PREPARATORY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He, now advanced and sage,
Is called to tread life's busy stage."

—Gay's Fables.

"Al" was a former St. Joe Prep boy who came to C. H. S. to participate in the class and school activities of this grand, old institution. After practicing with the Glee Club for some time, he decided to give Rudy Vallee some competition and joined the Radio Club, only to find that he was on the wrong end of the ether waves to seriously handicap the career of the aforementioned Vallee. In spite of the fact that he is something of a Deutscher, he is well stocked with Irish humor, which he dispensed to enlighten many a weary period of classroom work. His success is assured if he can do as well in worldly affairs as he did in philology exams.

ACTIVITIES: Radio Club; Glee Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBIES: Radio and Electricity.

FUTURE: Business.

JULES SCHWARTZ

"Knute"

215 S. FIFTY-SEVENTH ST. MOFFAT WEBSTER SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Your praise is hymned by greater harps than mine."
—Childe Harold's Pilgrimage.

Central had its "champ" teams and also its "champ" manager—"Knute" Schwartz. When "Knute" managed a team it won a championship. Which condition was the reason why he was non-stop manager of the Football Team, but he broke the habit in time to become manager of a "champ" Basketball Team. In addition, he was manager of a Track Team of "champ" calibre. Then, naturally, he took care of the sports section of the Mirror and RECORD BOOK.

ACTIVITIES: Manager, Champion Football Team, '30, '31; Manager, Champion Basketball Team; Manager, Track Team, '30, '31, '32; Athletic Commission (four terms); Sports Editor, RECORD BOOK; Sports Editor, Mirror.

HOBBY: Athletics.

FUTURE: Journalist.

SOL SCHWARTZ

"Sol"

990 N. SIXTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"He spoke and voted as he thought
And such alone are truly great."
—Gay's Fables.

"Sol" is one of those fellows who can handle such things as benefits and class dues well, because he is studying bill collecting by correspondence. His skill in penmanship made him a valuable note writer. In fact, his penmanship was excellent, except on such occasions as tests sprung by profs without warning. Then it was shaky. He studied Spanish, and his favorite Spanish expression was: "Gotcher Spanish?"

ACTIVITIES: Book Treasurer (D); Benefit Committee; Penmanship Club; Geographical Society; Auto Club.

HOBBY: Feminine Beauty.

FUTURE: Accounting.

JACK SEGAN

"Jack"

2932 W. MORRIS ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He filled all the mighty void of sence."
—Essay on Criticism.

Committees and "Jack" are as close to each other as the Siamese twins. Especially with the Dance Committees is "Jack" successful. As the book goes to press we hear of a "bigger and best" Senior Prom under "Jack's" and "Mike" Brown's guidance. He also was with the Junior Varsity Baseball Team when a championship rolled around. "Jack" also sees to it that the editor turns out bigger and better class papers.

ACTIVITIES: Co-chairman, Senior Prom Committee; Second Baseball Team; B-C Hop Committee; Junior Day Committee; Class Paper Staff; Aero Club.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: College.

HARRY T. SEIDEL

"Hardy"

963 N. FIFTH ST.

GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"We prize the stronger effort of his power."

—Essay on Criticism.

There's so much to be said about "Hardy" that we hardly know where to begin. His cheery face and smile have driven many blues away. His humorous sallies, strange to say, are really humorous, and have caused many a laugh. "Hardy" is an ardent disciple of Epicurus, whether he knows it or not. "Eat, drink, and be merry" is the simple philosophy of these two great men. But his serious moments gave us an insight into his real character—it was "Be merry with good marks."

ACTIVITIES: M. S. R. (H, G, F, E); Chemistry Club; Pin Committee; Ring Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: College.

PHILIP LOUIS SHAPIRO

"Phil"

1515 N. FRANKLIN ST.

JOSEPH C. FERGUSON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Measure me in your wisdom."

—Julius Caesar.

"Phil" doesn't have to be measured so greatly in our wisdom, for he is wisdom himself. Ask the profs, they know. "Phil" is a celestial satellite, as the astronomy prof would say, in most classes. In other words, he shines. If persons were judged by their promises, "Phil" would be heading the list of successful business men. In the class he prefers to keep quiet. Some profs think he has too little to say, but when he begins reciting they find that not only is his silence golden but also his words.

ACTIVITIES: Current History Club; French Club; Student Counsellor; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Studying.

FUTURE: Doctor.

ROBERT SHAPIRO

"Bob"

3133 WESTMONT ST.

JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"From what power hast thou this wonderful might?"

—Antony and Cleopatra.

"Bob" has the peculiar habit of making high marks, which finally resulted in his winning the Philology Prize. In the Shakespeare class unanswerable questions are easily solved by "Bob." Since he is interested in scientific activities, we expect him some day to be cutting up "has beens" in the U. of P. laboratory. Because "Bob" would not reveal the secret of his 100 per cent peroxide blonde, he is at odds with "les femmes." They lost an excellent tutor in him.

ACTIVITIES: Class Presenter; Co-chairman, Pin Committee; Picture Committee; Commencement Speaker; Philology Prize Winner; Latin Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBIES: Sports and Studying.

FUTURE: Medicine.

JEROME SHEEDY

"Jay"

3216 N. BROAD ST.

OUR LADY OF MERCY SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"He makes use of every friend—and every foe."

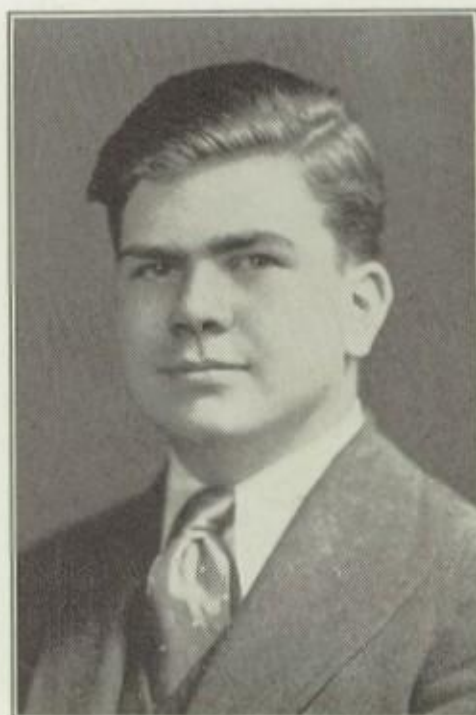

—Essay on Criticism.

It is with the Radio Club that "Jay" distinguishes himself, and in a field so broad he shows a worthy hobby for his spare time. "Jay" knows that subject from A to Z. He also knows his school subjects in the same efficient and industrious manner. He has also succeeded in gaining friends and popularity in the school. And the fact that he has achieved some honor in class has made the profs respect him. Without any fuss or noise he would easily finish an assigned task.

ACTIVITIES: Radio Club; Aero Club; Craftsman Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Radio.

FUTURE: Engineer.

SIDNEY SHORE

"Sid"

720 W. BERKS ST.

JOSEPH C. FERGUSON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He served with glory and admired success."

—Cymbeline.

"Sid" has been one of the political lights of the class organization. His specialty in the extra curricular work of the institution has been class and section offices. His classroom records have been set up, "Sid" assures us, without study. His accurate translations have won for him the name "Sure Shot Shore." The 158th Class elected him president in charge of vice.

ACTIVITIES: Vice-President of the 158th Class, Senior Year; Secretary of the 158th Class, Junior Year; Executive Committee; Current History Club; German Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Germanics.

FUTURE: Medicine.

HARRY A. SHUMAN

"Harry"

816 N. THIRTEENTH ST.

JOHN HANCOCK SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"He, confirmed by speculation, Adopts the lawyer's occupation."

—Gay's Fables.

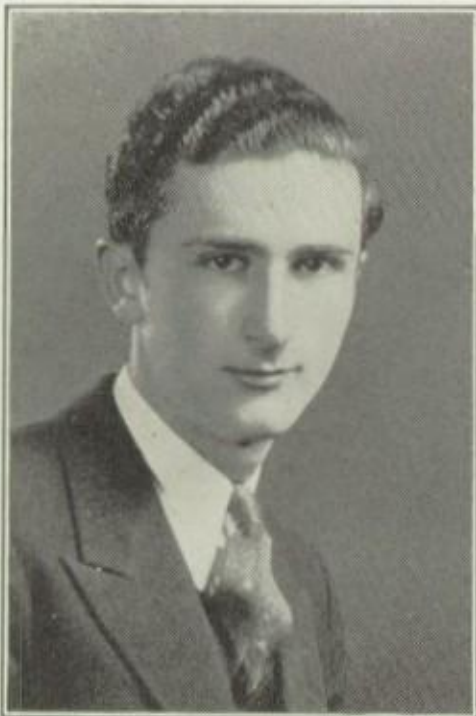

The big business of the 158th Class is handsome "Harry." Whenever the class or the faculty wants a big job done, they go to "Harry" and get a long string of extemporaneous reasons why he can not help them out. Besides helping out in this way, "Harry" is one of the biggest noises in the Orchestra. He also solicited "ads" and subscriptions for the Mirror. That's why both advertising and subscriptions fell off this term.

ACTIVITIES: Mirror Staff (B, A); Circulation Manager (A); Orchestra; Benefit Committee; Prom Committee.

HOBBY: Smashing Noses.

FUTURE: The Law.

DAVID SILVER

"Dave"

1113 N. SLOAN ST.

OVERBROOK HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Do I contradict myself?"

Very well, then, I contradict myself."

—Walt Whitman.

"Dave's" gift of arguing the periods away is not only a boon to himself, but to us also. If he isn't prepared or if the prof tries to teach us something, "Dave" inveigles him into an argument for the rest of the period. Especially in social science does "Dave" wax eloquent, but the penalty of a graph is sure to silence him. It is in baseball that "Dave" gets an unrecorded "E." "Dave" without his baseball glove is an impossibility.

ACTIVITIES: Class Baseball; Junior Day Baseball; Benefit Committee; B-C Hop Committee; Chemistry Club; Mathematics Club.

HOBBY: Baseball.

FUTURE: Law.

REUBEN HARRIS SIRULNIK

"Rube"

3939 PENNSGROVE ST.

OVERBROOK HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"You seek to give and merit fame."

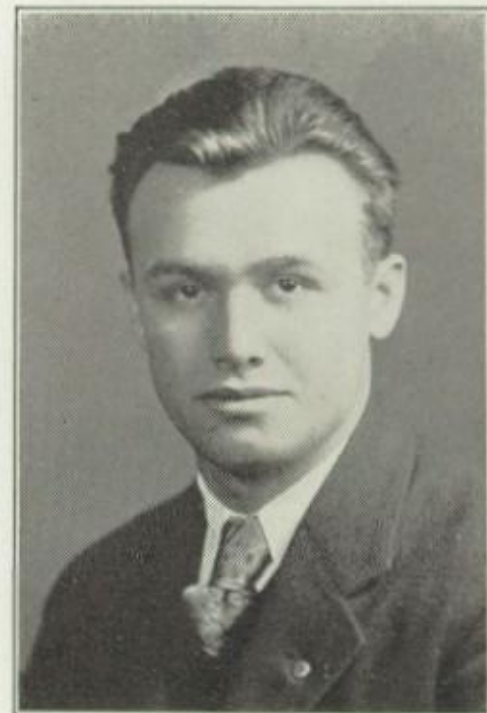

—Essay on Criticism.

"Rube" is one of the big politicians of the 4-x ward. He can be depended upon to sway the elections the right way. If he does as well outside as he did in school politics, we predict that he'll own City Hall and the Mint within a year, unless the police force is increased. Wherever a crowd congregates, we know we'll find "Rube" there, adding his supply of wit and fun. He is one of those rare animals, a good student. He knows what he comes to school for, and his recitations are above the average.

ACTIVITIES: B-C Hop Committee (B, C); Senior Advisor; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Reading Shakespeare.

FUTURE: C. P. A.

LOUIS SISHONSKY

"Sish"

1037 S. FOURTH ST.

JOHN HAY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Thy music swells with stuff fine and smooth."

—Timon of Athens.

"Sish" is the boy who "pics" a mean piccolo. If he fails to become a great musician, it is only because he has refused to let his hair grow. Sishonsky has been one of the leading members of the Orchestra and of the Band; few of the other instruments were able to catch up to his trusty piccolo. He also wrestled with human beings and belonged to all the clubs that were sponsored by profs he had in class.

ACTIVITIES: Track Team; Wrestling Team; Band; Orchestra; All Philadelphia Orchestra; Executive Committee; Picture Committee; German Club; Astronomical Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Music.

FUTURE: Education.

MILTON SMITH

"Curly"

WASHINGTON HOTEL

TRENTON HIGH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"His honors with increase of ages grow."

—Essay on Criticism.

In "Curly" we find the acme of strength. A look at his form would convince even Hercules that he is a serious matter to consider. On the strength of his mental strength the profs tendered him quite a number of excellent marks. In addition, his personality and cheerfulness has won many a friend for him. He always has a cheery word of greeting when he meets you.

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committee (B, C); Stamp Club; Chemistry Club; Mathematics Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: A Cut-up.

FUTURE: Surgeon.

THEODORE B. SMITH, JR.

"Ted"

555 N. SIXTEENTH ST.

LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"He yelled so loud that all the hollow deep of hell resounded."

—Paradise Lost.

"Ted" is the young man who is responsible for the beauty of our class. Until he took us down to the photographers, we were not aware that there was so much manly pulchritude in the handsome old "158th." Of course, figures can't lie, but the pictures are of the faces only. 'Twas not until we heard "Teddy" on the football field that we realized what vocal possibilities his voice offers. Milton was right.

ACTIVITIES: RECORD BOOK Staff; Pin Committee; Chairman, Picture Committee; Current History Club; Astronomical Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Equestrian.

FUTURE: Olympic Pony Team.

ISADORE SNYDER

"Irv"

2535 N. CORLIES ST.

EAST HIGH SCHOOL, ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

(Academic Course)

"More advanced is he, behold, with strange surprise."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Irv" came all the way from New York, attracted by the far-reaching renown of Central. He also brought along his New York accent which was a pleasure to listen to. The system there must be good for "Irv" aided by his agile mind gathered a galaxy of good marks. In no less degree did he gather about him a group of trusty friends. The swimming pool receives his attention after school.

ACTIVITIES: German Club; Current History Club; Aero Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBIES: Swimming; Aviation.

FUTURE: Aviation.

MORRIS EUGENE SOKOLOV

"Sock"

1105 N. SLOAN ST.

JOSEPH FERGUSON SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"He learned the bounds of human sense."

—Gay's Fables.

On the baseball diamond "Sock" handles the deliveries just like a second Mickey Cochrane. At times he cannot understand how he holds them himself. And how he handles the small sphere in class. How? Well he sits next to Weissman. His marks in classroom work indicate that he does not allow the baseball diamond to interfere with his studies.

ACTIVITIES: J. V. Baseball; Junior Day; Benefit Committee (C, B); Chess Club; Shorthand Club; Penmanship Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Athletics.

FUTURE: Business.

SAMUEL ALEXANDER SOPENOFF

"Sopy"

883 N. SEVENTH ST.

GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"A rarer spirit never did steer humanity."

—Antony and Cleopatra.

Sam is reputed to be the big boss of the 158th Class and has done his best to live up to the reputation. He did not content himself with the presidency of the class, however; he made it his duty to manage the members of some of the teams. He stood before us in the meetings and then capitalized the experience by offering his services for the oratorical contest. He has left the marks of his paint brush on the cellar walls.

ACTIVITIES: President of the Class, Junior and Senior Years; Popularity Honor Man; Championship Swimming Team; Manager, Baseball Team ('31, '32); Class Athletics; Student Council; Student Patrol; Oratorical Contest.

HOBBY: Art.

FUTURE: Law.

LEON SPECTOR

"Spec"

2019 SOUTH ST.

ANNA HALLOWELL SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"His patience is a virtue fixed."

—Troilus and Cressida.

Upon our minds is impressed the picture of "Spec" in the role of friend, a good fellow upon whom we can always depend for worthy assistance. Of the three R's—readin', ridin' and 'rithmetic—Lee avoided the middle most religiously, we have been advised. His regular appearance before the Barnwell Button Committee speaks well for his citizenship.

ACTIVITIES: Pin Committee; Picture Committee; Cap and Gown Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Study.

FUTURE: Law.

CARL SPENCER

"Jumbo"

1818 N. TWENTY-SECOND ST. JOSEPH SINGERLY SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

"In this fearless youth, we find the height of arts."
—Essay on Criticism.

"Jumbo" is a prominent member of Watson's fraternity, being a good-natured chap and well liked by everybody. He is known as the crooning Senior, for "Jumbo's" imitations of the songsters and jokesters certainly made him famous. "Jumbo" also has a penchant for composing poems about his friends, but we don't hold that against him. He represents his section in all lines of sport. And in class "Jumbo" is so good that the "duck" side of his record is always clean.

ACTIVITIES: Section Baseball, Basketball, Football; Aero Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Tearing Autos.

FUTURE: Airplane Mechanic.

BENJAMIN STAHL

"Benny"

2130 N. FRONT ST. JAMES G. BLAINE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"There's another! Why that may be the skull of a lawyer."
—Hamlet.

Although "Benny" refused to open his mouth for the mere emission of hot air, yet he did marvelously well among the politicians of the class. He is the smallest member of the Council and in the class larger only than Doc Haimovitz. Because he wants to be a lawyer, "Benny" joined the Debating Society to work out the squeak in his not yet manly voice.

ACTIVITIES: Student Council; Pin Committee; Executive Committee; Book Chairman (B); House of Representatives; Secretary, Current History Club; Debating Society; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Disputation.

FUTURE: The Law.

MILTON JAY STANDER

"Milt," "Jay"

1018 S. FIFTH ST. MT. VERNON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Alike in science and in arts,
He boasted universal parts."
—Gay's Fables.

"Milt" is a camera and radio fiend in the extremest sense of the term. In fact, he is such an expert that even the most tender camera might not fear his touch and the fairest face might expect justice at his hands—i. e., photographic hands. "Jay" without his camera is like a stude without a roster. "Milt" is often on duty in the radio control room making the Senior speakers sound like men.

ACTIVITIES: Centralizer Staff, Associate Editor (B, A); Editor of Class Paper (D, C); Director, Student Patrol; Championship Debating Team ('32); Manager of Soccer Team ('31); RECORD BOOK Staff; Debating Society; Astronomical Society; Radio Club; Chemistry Club; Camera Club, President (C, B); Freshman Book Adviser.

HOBBY: Photography.

FUTURE: Law.

HARRY STERN

"Hecky"

959 N. RANDOLPH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Surely I have my thoughts."

—Euripides' Medea.

"Hecky" considers it a crime to indulge in conversation while the pros are talking. He prefers to pretend to listen to them. That's why the deluded "phessors" have a fond leaning for him. "Hecky," therefore, profits in his marks. "Hecky," outside of the professors' gaze, acts natural and is a regular jolly fellow, always bandying jokes with his friends.

ACTIVITIES: Camera Club; Shorthand Club; Penmanship Club; M. S. R.; Picture Committee; Senior Prom Committee.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Law.

WILLIAM STEWART

"Bill"

1724 ARCH ST.

NORTHWEST SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"I know by his face there's something in him."

—Cariolanus.

"Bill" is a shining light in the school. No wonder, look at his hair! With locks of that color one could be a shining light anywhere. "Bill" is another radio bug. He was interested enough in the science to accept the presidency of the Radio Club for four terms and that is some endurance record. If he takes a post-graduate course we wouldn't be surprised if he was elected again.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Track; Math Club; Craftsman Club; Electrical Club; Radio Club, President; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Radio.

FUTURE: Engineering.

SAMUEL STURM

"Sturmie"

838 N. LAWRENCE ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"We discern you generous, mild, kind, Helping those with weaker mind."

—Gay's Fables.

Sam is one fellow who is willing to do some work to get through school. And besides all that, he really enjoys it. At least he maintains that he does and he has joined the Math and German Clubs to support his statement. Sam's peculiarity is his red necktie, the like of which he has worn ever since he was permitted to enter this grand old institution. Luckily, the pros. have been neither frightened nor angered by the display.

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committee (C. B); Astronomy Club; Math. Club; German Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Red Neckties.

FUTURE: The Law.

Record

ALPHONSE J. SUGINT

"Suge"

511 N. FRANKLIN ST. ASSUMPTION PAROCHIAL SCHOOL
(Classical Course)

"Who shall dare contest my matchless wit?"
—Gay's Fables.

"Suge" is old man sarcasm himself. Just let him get started and he'll make you feel like a Frosh. He enjoys arguing with the profs, always doing his level best to set them straight. And they give him E's for it. In order to stop the weekly Sugint-Sweeney chess matches, which last until the daylight-saving twilight hours, someone has to kidnap the poor innocent chessmen. That only, ends the perpetual match.

ACTIVITIES: Class Paper Staff; Chess Club; Math. Club; Aero Club; Astronomy Club; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chess.

FUTURE: Business.

FREDERICK B. SULIK

"Fred"

918 N. TWENTY-SIXTH ST. ROBERT MORRIS SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"I chant the chant of dilation and pride."
—Walt Whitman.

In "Fred" we find the closest approach to the perfect student. His recitations make pleasurable hearing for prof and stude. "Fred" has never been unprepared (one for Ripley). In the classroom he is always quietly attentive and is never a source of trouble to "Phesser." It is therefore no surprise when his report is lavishly loaded with good marks. "Fred" is, indeed, the answer to Prof. Stauffer's prayer and will certainly graduate in less than a thousand years (and thereby hangs a tale).

ACTIVITIES: Class Paper Staff; Junior Day Committee; Current History Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Photography.

FUTURE: Engineering.

JACK CHARLTON SWEENEY

"Jack"

2936 COLUMBIA AVE. WILLIAM D. KELLEY SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Master, here's money for you."
—Othello.

"What! no dues?" That's simply the theme song for "Jack's" high school career. He has been book pest for two terms and we shelled out to keep the theme song off the air. The only time when we were safe from his clutches was when he was waging his daily chess battle with Sugint. To end the tournament we had to shoot all the pawns, excommunicate the bishop and decapitate the king.

ACTIVITIES: Student Tribunal; Student Patrol, Director; Book Treasurer (B, A); Class Paper; Philatelic Society; Chess Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Chess.

FUTURE: Law.

WILLIAM HENRY TASKER

"Bill"

1227 OGDEN ST.

JOHN HANCOCK SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

*"The painter plays the spider, and hath woven
A golden mesh to entrap the hearts of men."*

—Merchant of Venice.

"Bill's" artistic ability has made him famous throughout the school. Every art club finds him attending, every inter-club night finds his works of art gracing the walls outside the library. His Mirror art work always attracted customers. Then he turned his attention to the RECORD BOOK and in this you will find artistic masterpieces done by him. Truly a great art career is in store for "Bill" out in the world.

ACTIVITIES: President, Art Club; Art Editor, Mirror; RECORD BOOK Staff; Class Paper Staff; School Art League; Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Portrait Painting. FUTURE: Commercial Artist.

THOMAS J. TAYLOR

"Tom"

1913 FITZWATER ST.

DURHAM GRAMMAR SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

*"If we look more closely we shall find
He has seeds of judgment in his mind."*

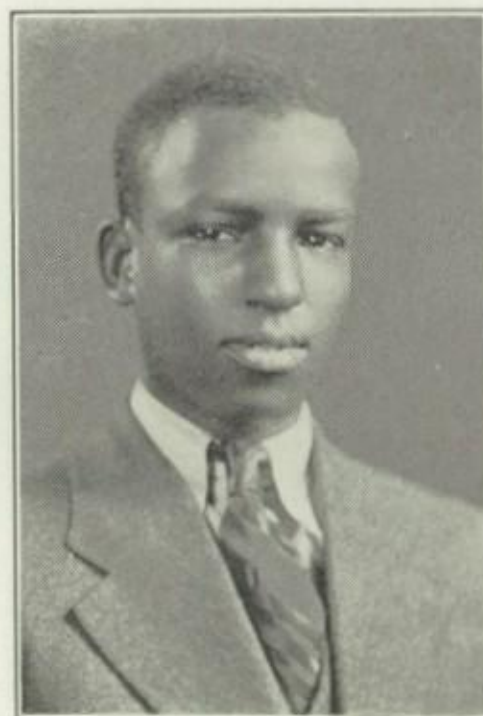

—Essay on Criticism.

"Tom" is a persevering, plugging fellow, who puts his best into all subjects. Especially in Latin does he manfully struggle without a horse. He disagrees with most Latin students that "riding is better than walking." Although others get higher marks. "Tom" is satisfied that he knows more Latin. It is in the Current History Club that "Tom" displays his keen intellect best.

ACTIVITIES: Current History Club; Science and Philosophy Club; Math. Club; Junior Day Committee; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Literature.

FUTURE: Medicine.

THORNTON TAYLOR

"Chick"

3265 CHANCELLOR ST.

NEWTON SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

*"Our eyes have seen thee as thou art,
A gentle and a righteous heart."*

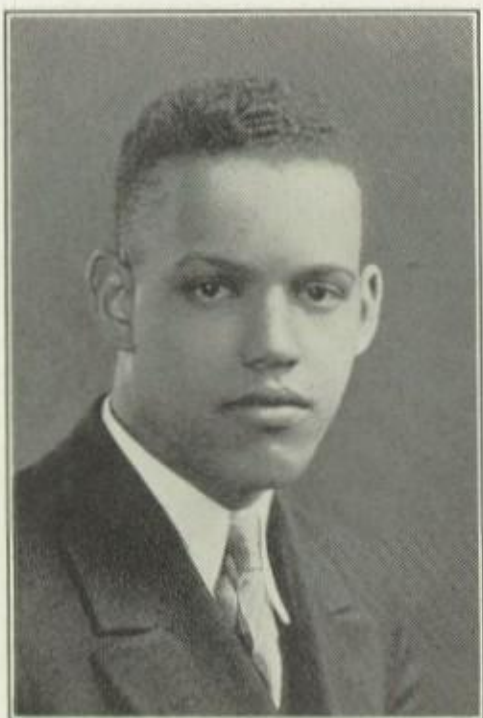

—Euripides' Medea.

Good jokes are relished by "Chick," as his almost constant laughter suggests. And he is a good sport, too (in basketball, especially). Those who know "Chick" well soon discover that underneath his spirit of joviality lies real character. Little though he may know of a subject, he is always willing to help a friend in distress. "Chick" knows plenty about French and could give Toussant Louvetre a run for his money. The subject which he knows with great skill is basketball.

ACTIVITIES: Class Paper Staff (C, D); Junior Day Baseball; Chemistry Club; Craftsman Club; Radio Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Basketball.

FUTURE: Lawyer.

GEORGE HOWARD THORNER

"Bingo"

1855 N. 28TH ST.

WM. D. KELLEY SCHOOL

(Mechanics Arts Course)

"Taste your legs, sir; put them to motion."

—Twelfth Night.

As a member of the track team, George called it a blue day when he did not break a record or two in the broad jump. Soccer and football also received the attention of "Bingo," but he did not excel in these sports as well as he did in track. If he can hurdle the barriers of engineering as well as he has those of athletics, we know that he will meet with success in the years to come.

ACTIVITIES: Soccer Team '29; Football '30, '31; Track Team '30, '31; Secretary Aeronautical Club (D, C); Athletic Representative (D); Interclass Baseball, Basketball and Track Teams.

HOBBY: Track

FUTURE: Engineering.

JOHN J. TOMKEWITZ

"Tommy"

440 N. DARIEN ST.

NORTHWEST SCHOOL

(Industrial Arts Course)

"He sat on the beach of the grey sea Looking over the boundless main."

—The Iliad.

"Tommy" is the most splashing of the 158th Class' fish. He is now the captain of the swimming team, although they have shaken off their fins and dried up for the season. He was hardly all wet in the classroom, for he came through with excellent work and learned enough about things in general to discover that printing is a good and most interesting trade.

ACTIVITIES: Championship Swimming Team; Barnwell Honor Roll; Gym Team; Math. Club.

HOBBY: Swimming.

FUTURE: Printing.

JOSEPH H. TRACHTMAN

"Tiny"

1900 GIRARD AVE.

LYDIA DARRAH SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Thou art fat and scant of breath."

—Hamlet.

"Tiny" is all that this nickname doesn't suggest. And yet his large proportions have not impeded him at all, for he moves about with facility and ease to get news for the Centralizer. In the Debating Club his majestic proportions give him the poise that wins many a debate. This has been proved true, for he made the finals in the Senior Oratorical Contest, and then won the silver medal.

ACTIVITIES: Centralizer Staff; Debating Society; Silver Medal, Senior Oratorical Contest; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Collecting Autographs.

FUTURE: Wrestling.

LEONARD ALLEN VICKERS

"Vicks"

1330 N. REDFIELD ST. OVERBROOK HIGH SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"My vigilance and trusty zeal Perhaps might serve the commonweal."

—Gay's Fables.

"Vicks" came from Overbrook High School in the Junior year, but we'll not hold that against him. In the short time he has been here he has done much. As you know, he was manager of the cross-country team and with the aid of his daddy and Lafayette Powell he turned out a championship team. As with most sons whose fathers have stores, "Vicks" didn't show up when there was work to be done in Room 9. He worked hard on the class paper and the RECORD BOOK, however.

ACTIVITIES: RECORD BOOK Business Staff; Executive Committee; Class Paper Staff (B, A); Manager, the Championship Cross-country Team ('32); Barnwell Honor Roll; Student Patrol.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Agriculture.

ADDISON WATSON

"Pluck"

1111 FAIRMOUNT AVE. NORTHWEST SCHOOL
(Industrial Arts Course)

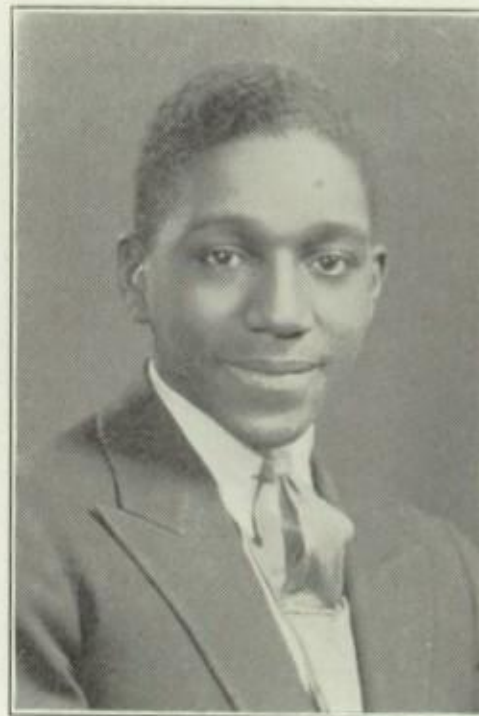

"And still tomorrow he's wiser than today."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Tarch" just soaks himself in the study of mechanics—mechanics is his line of endeavor and his sideline is mechanics. In the odds and ends of time not taken up by one of his hobbies, "Tarch" is an outstanding member of the "All Green Street Football Team." His ability and willingness to help his friends in arms gets him a reputation of good-will and sportmanship. In class or sport he keeps everyone in good humor.

ACTIVITIES: Track Team; Class Baseball (B, C); Book Secretary (B); Craftsman Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Mechanical Devices. FUTURE: The Auto Game.

HYMAN WEINSTEIN

"Hi"

718 N. UBER ST. JOSEPHINE E. WIDENER SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"I see wit sparkle in his eye."

—Gay's Fables.

"Hi" is a good-joking jokester, who appreciates good jokes, his own and other peoples. He thinks it a good joke to flunk, for he has the laugh on any prof. who is stupid enough to flunk him. "Hi" is a sports fan also; that is why it doesn't cost him any money. He is a master at the gentle art of fence climbing and made the Phillies' Ball Park fence at the Central-Overbrook game without tearing his trousers.

ACTIVITIES: Fencing Club; Chemistry Club; Craftsmanship Club; Radio Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBIES: Radio, Chemistry. FUTURE: Chemical Engineer.

BERNARD WEISSMAN

"Ben"

1808 N. EIGHTH ST. JOSEPH FERGUSON SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Thou showest a noble vessel: What's thy name?"
—Coriolanus.

"Ben," better known as Christopher Highball, is the author of the Mirror Press' Best Sellers. His hair is short and his horn-rimmed spectacles are not in evidence, but truth to insist, Benny is an author. He is also a popular author of test papers, for his habit is one of "E's." He is a baseball enthusiast and one who is reputed for paying his debts, even his dues.

ACTIVITIES: Class Paper Staff; Mirror Staff; Fencing Club; Shorthand Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Baseball.

FUTURE: Business.

BERNARD WEXLER

"Bernie"

1612 N. SEVENTH ST. JOSEPH C. FERGUSON SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Not dully prepossessed nor blindly right; Though learned."

—Essay on Criticism.

"Bernie's" classmates find that they can't do without him. His nonpareil original jokes create a jovial atmosphere in every classroom. In his serious moments "Bernie" is able to hand the profs quite a number of excellent recitations. When "Bernie's" jokes are relished by the profs they reward him with excellent marks. "Bernie" expects to open a fountain pen shop with our fountain pens as capital.

ACTIVITIES: Student Patrol; Junior Day Committee; Benefit Committee; Mathematics Club; Chess Club; Chemistry Club.

HOBBY: Borrowing Pens.

FUTURE: College.

EDWARD J. WHITE

"Eddie"

1927 WOOD ST. NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE SCHOOL
(Academic Course)

"Let the school stand! Mind not the cry of the teacher!"
—Walt Whitman.

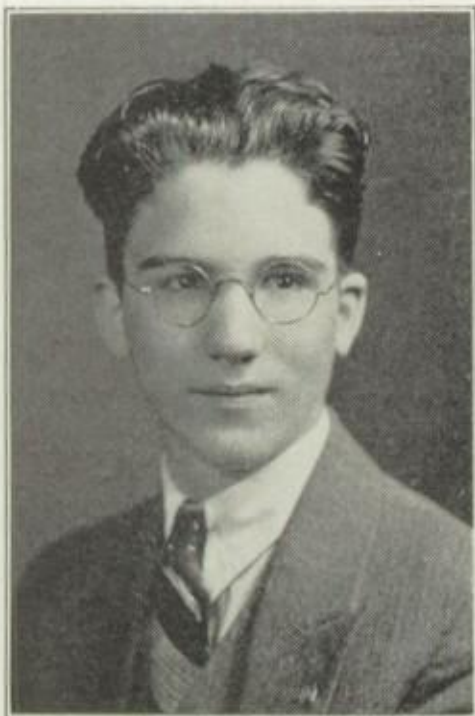

"Eddie" certainly is one boy with a magnificent sense of humor. His extemporaneous wisecracks in many a classroom put some life into a dry subject. The atmosphere about him is always charged with spontaneous humor, laughter, and wit. "Eddie's" good nature also affected the profs. They couldn't help but put his marks above and not below the danger line.

ACTIVITIES: Benefit Committee (C, D); Junior Day Committee; Class Paper Staff; Aero Club; Mathematics Club; Chemistry Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Nature Study.

FUTURE: Engineer.

HENRY S. WIEDER, JR.

"Doc"

1512 DIAMOND ST.

JAMES L. CLAGHORN SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"Those that will hear me speak, stay here."

—Julius Caesar.

When it came to talking about medicine, "Doc" is sure to take entire control. He even joined the Chemistry Club to tell them a thing or two about the subject. Even in the Junior Oratorical Contest he couldn't resist talking about medicine. "Doc" might be called an amateur physician minus a license. He doctors his studies with keen knowledge, receiving high marks in return. Probably he intends to succeed "Doc" Brown.

ACTIVITIES: RECORD BOOK Staff; Commencement Speaker; Chemistry Club; Astronomical Society; Aero Club; Junior Oratorical Contest; Director, Student Patrol; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: First Aid.

FUTURE: Physician.

MATTHEW WILLIAMS

"Matt"

1217 PARRISH ST.

JOHN HANCOCK SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

*"Even as a stalled horse that breaketh his tether
And speedeth at the gallop across the plain."*

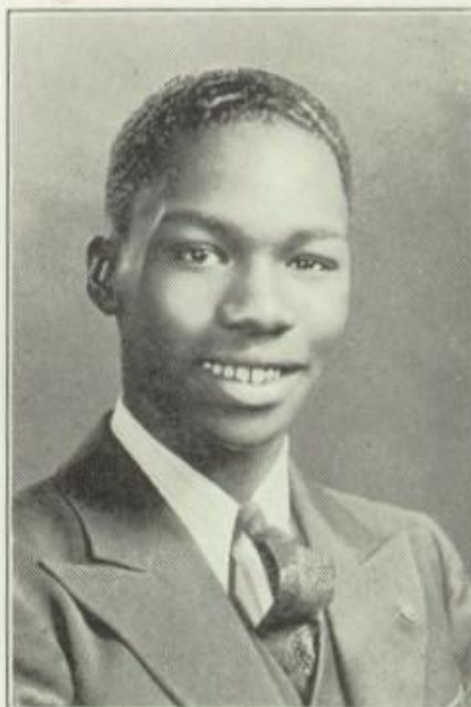

—The Iliad.

"Matt" is one of the most inventive of all our German scholars, for in the translating of that tongue he coined many new and rare expressions. But that is not the chief fact in "Matt's" career, for he has done his career on the athletic field. He has worn out more than a dozen pairs of scissors taking clippings from the newspapers to prove that he is a track star.

ACTIVITIES: Track Team; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Track.

FUTURE: Medicine.

MORRIS WINIK

"Mock"

2424 W. THOMPSON ST.

ROBERT MORRIS SCHOOL

(Academic Course)

"You marked that point where sense and dullness meet."

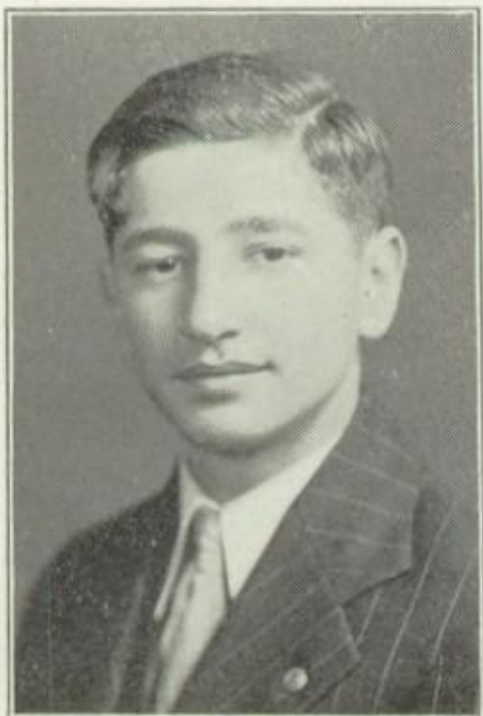

—Essay on Criticism.

Here's a fellow that's always jolly and gay. He is a regular guy, and is liked by all the boys. We'll admit he is short, but he certainly has a lot of pep for so small a figure. In addition, during his four years' association with the class, he has been a fine, hard-working student. If he's not making a bad recitation, he's making a "pretty good one," usually. He works hard on his lessons, and is accustomed to rise and shine. When the lesson is at its height and someone shouts "Prof, please explain it again, I don't understand," you can be sure it isn't "Mock."

ACTIVITIES: Class Paper; Centralizer Staff; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Baseball.

FUTURE: Judge.

SAMUEL J. WOLGIN

"Wally," "Jack"

1811 W. MONTGOMERY AVE. JOSEPH FERGUSON SCHOOL
(Commercial Course)

"Let me give light, but let me not be light."
—Merchant of Venice.

"Wally" is one of the most cheerful links (not the missing one) in our class collection. At all times "Wally" is joking, especially with those sitting near him. He is a clever fellow (so he says), but lately when the women started bothering him he made the assertion "who's the best looking fellow in the class when I'm absent?" Nevertheless, the girls of quite a few highs can be seen with him. Whenever there is any fun on tap, "Wally" is sure to be the source.

ACTIVITIES: Freshman Basketball Team; German Club; Glee Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Sports.

FUTURE: Tracking Co-eds.

ELMER C. WYGAND

"Wiggie"

4056 N. SIXTH ST. GENERAL PHILIP KEARNEY SCHOOL
(Mechanics Arts Course)

"He now was pensive, now was gay
And lolled the sultry hours away."
—Gay's Fables.

"Wiggie" is our pal of the smiling countenance. If anyone ever heard him utter anything pessimistic it would be more news than a man biting a dog. He loves to joke, except in the classroom, but when the joke did slide out in such places many a faculty physiognomy got out of joint. "Wiggie" wants to be an electrical engineer, but if he is not careful his jokes may produce some static. Elmer has tried to be the last in the class and has succeeded rather well—alphabetically. He is a noted clubman.

ACTIVITIES: Craftsman Club; Aero Club; Radio Club; Barnwell Honor Roll.

HOBBY: Woodwork.

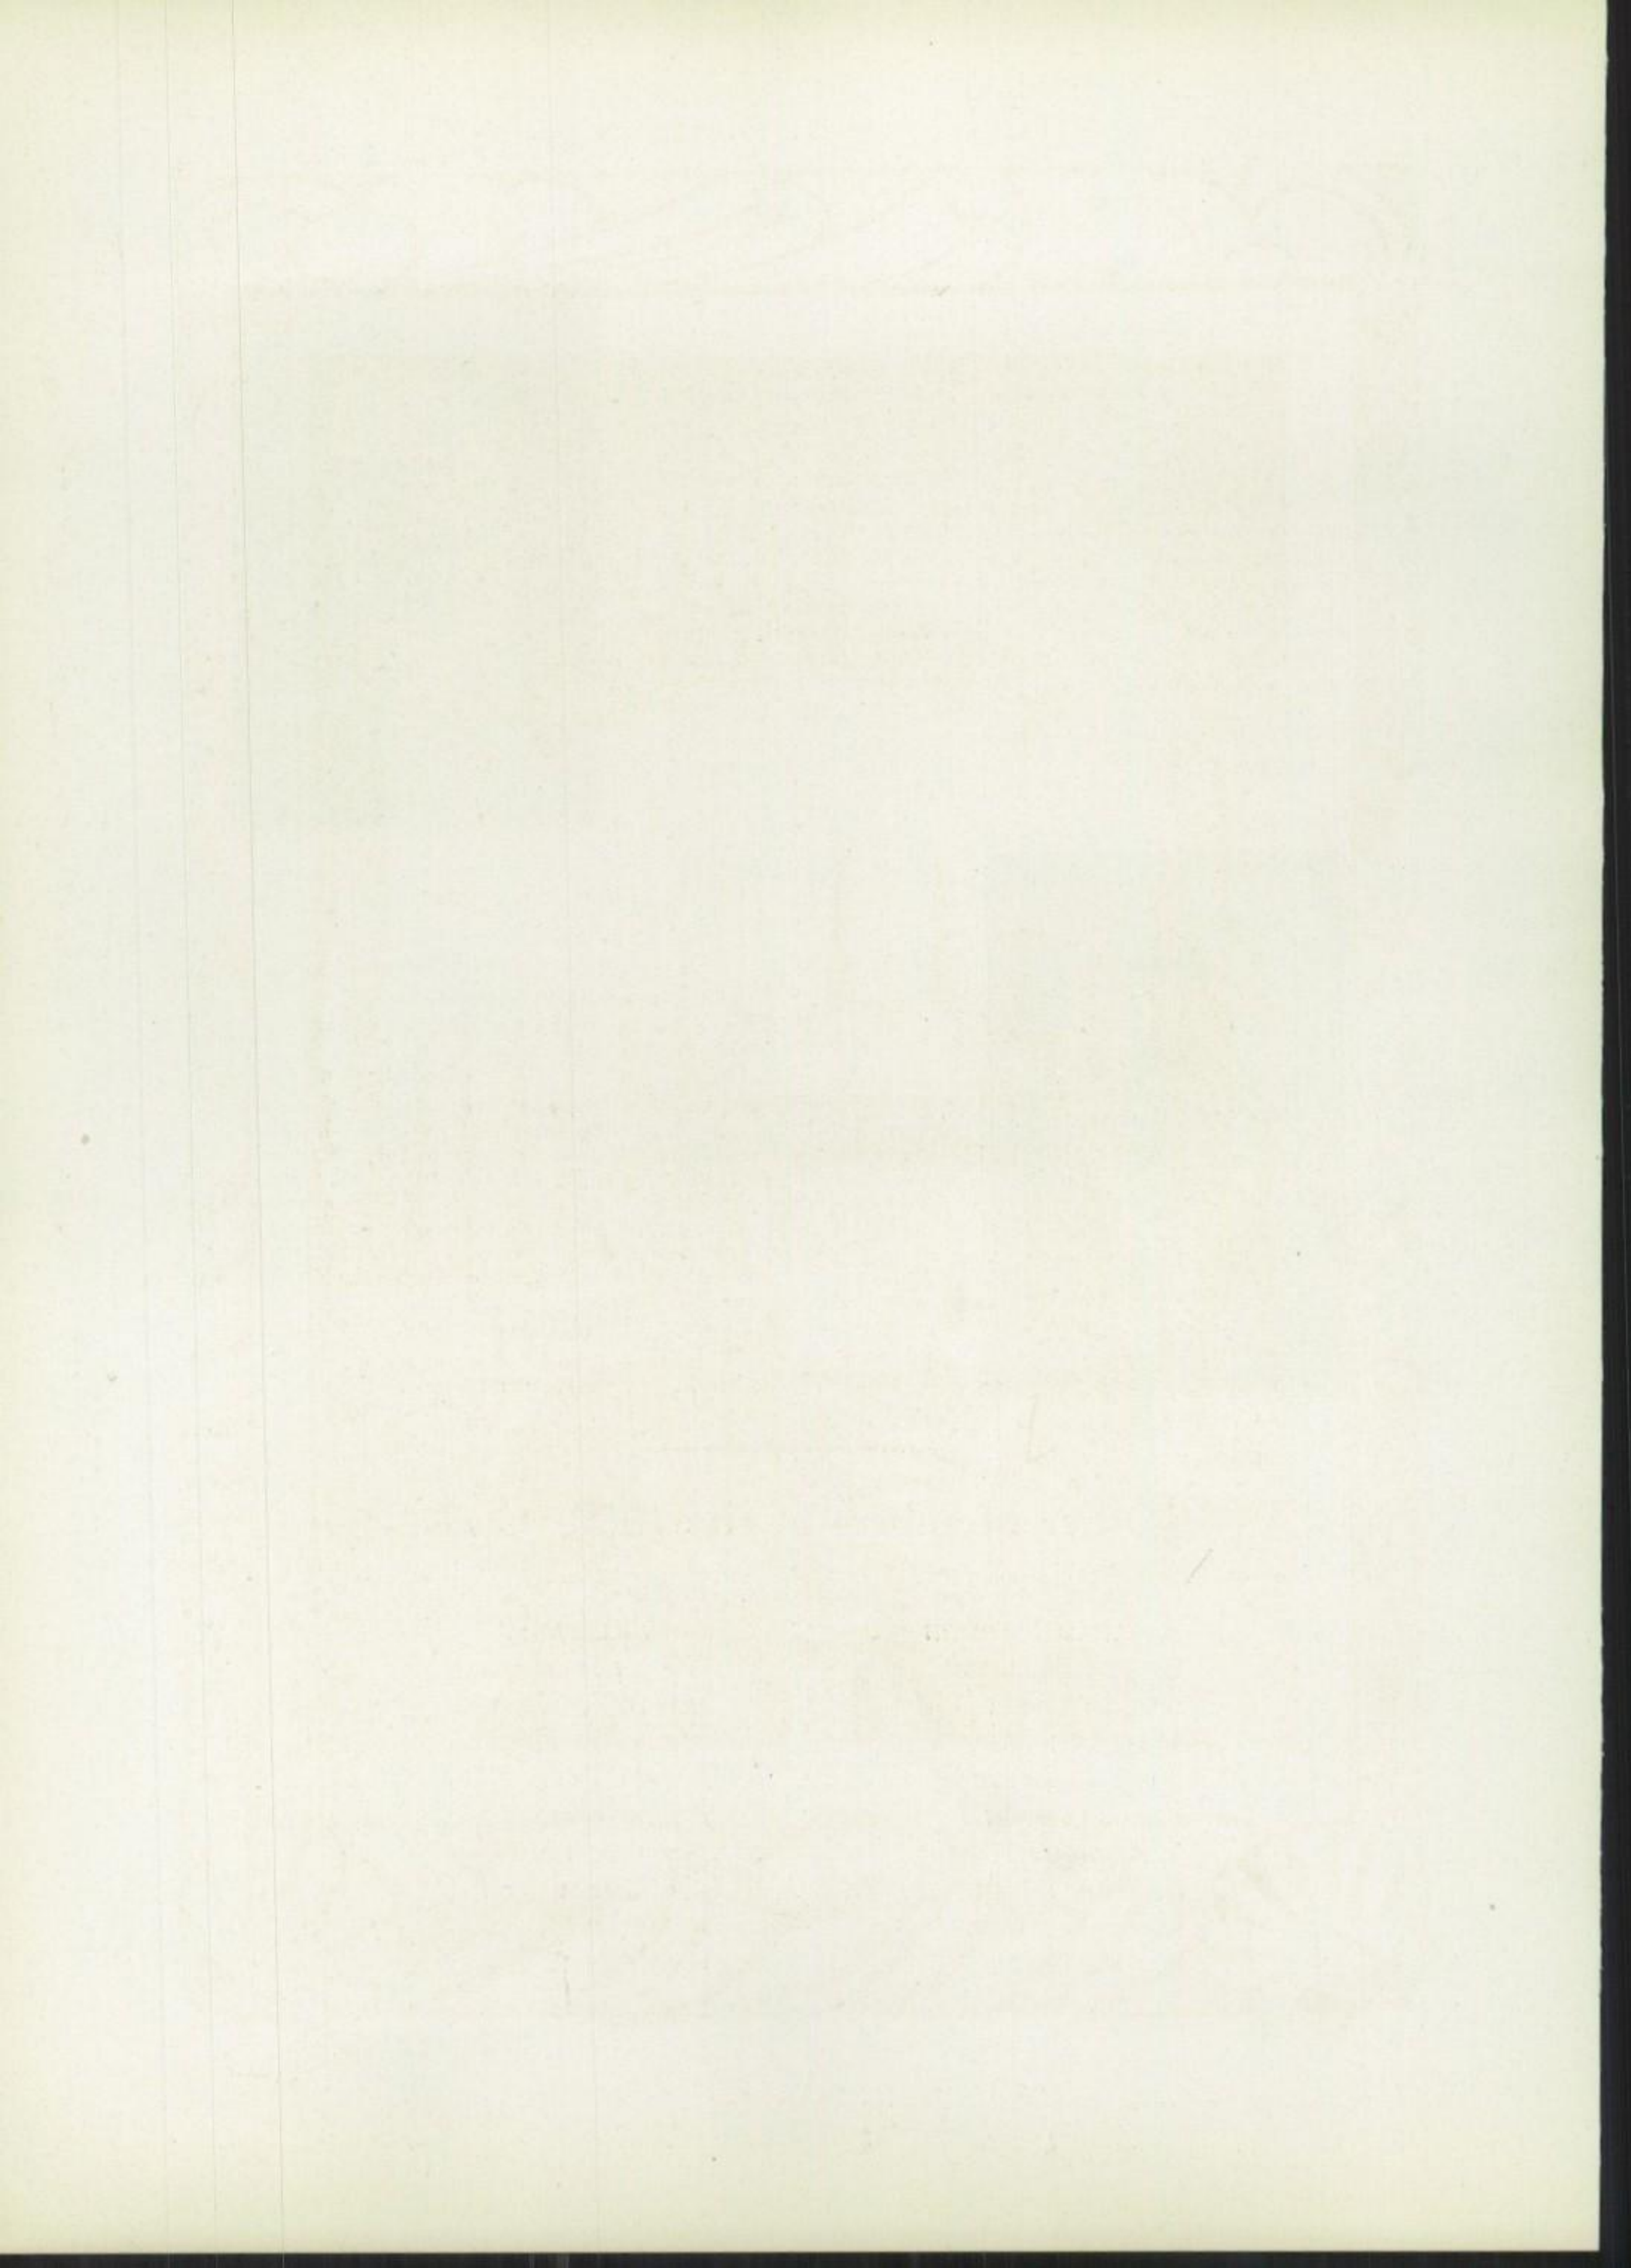

FUTURE: Electrical Engineering.

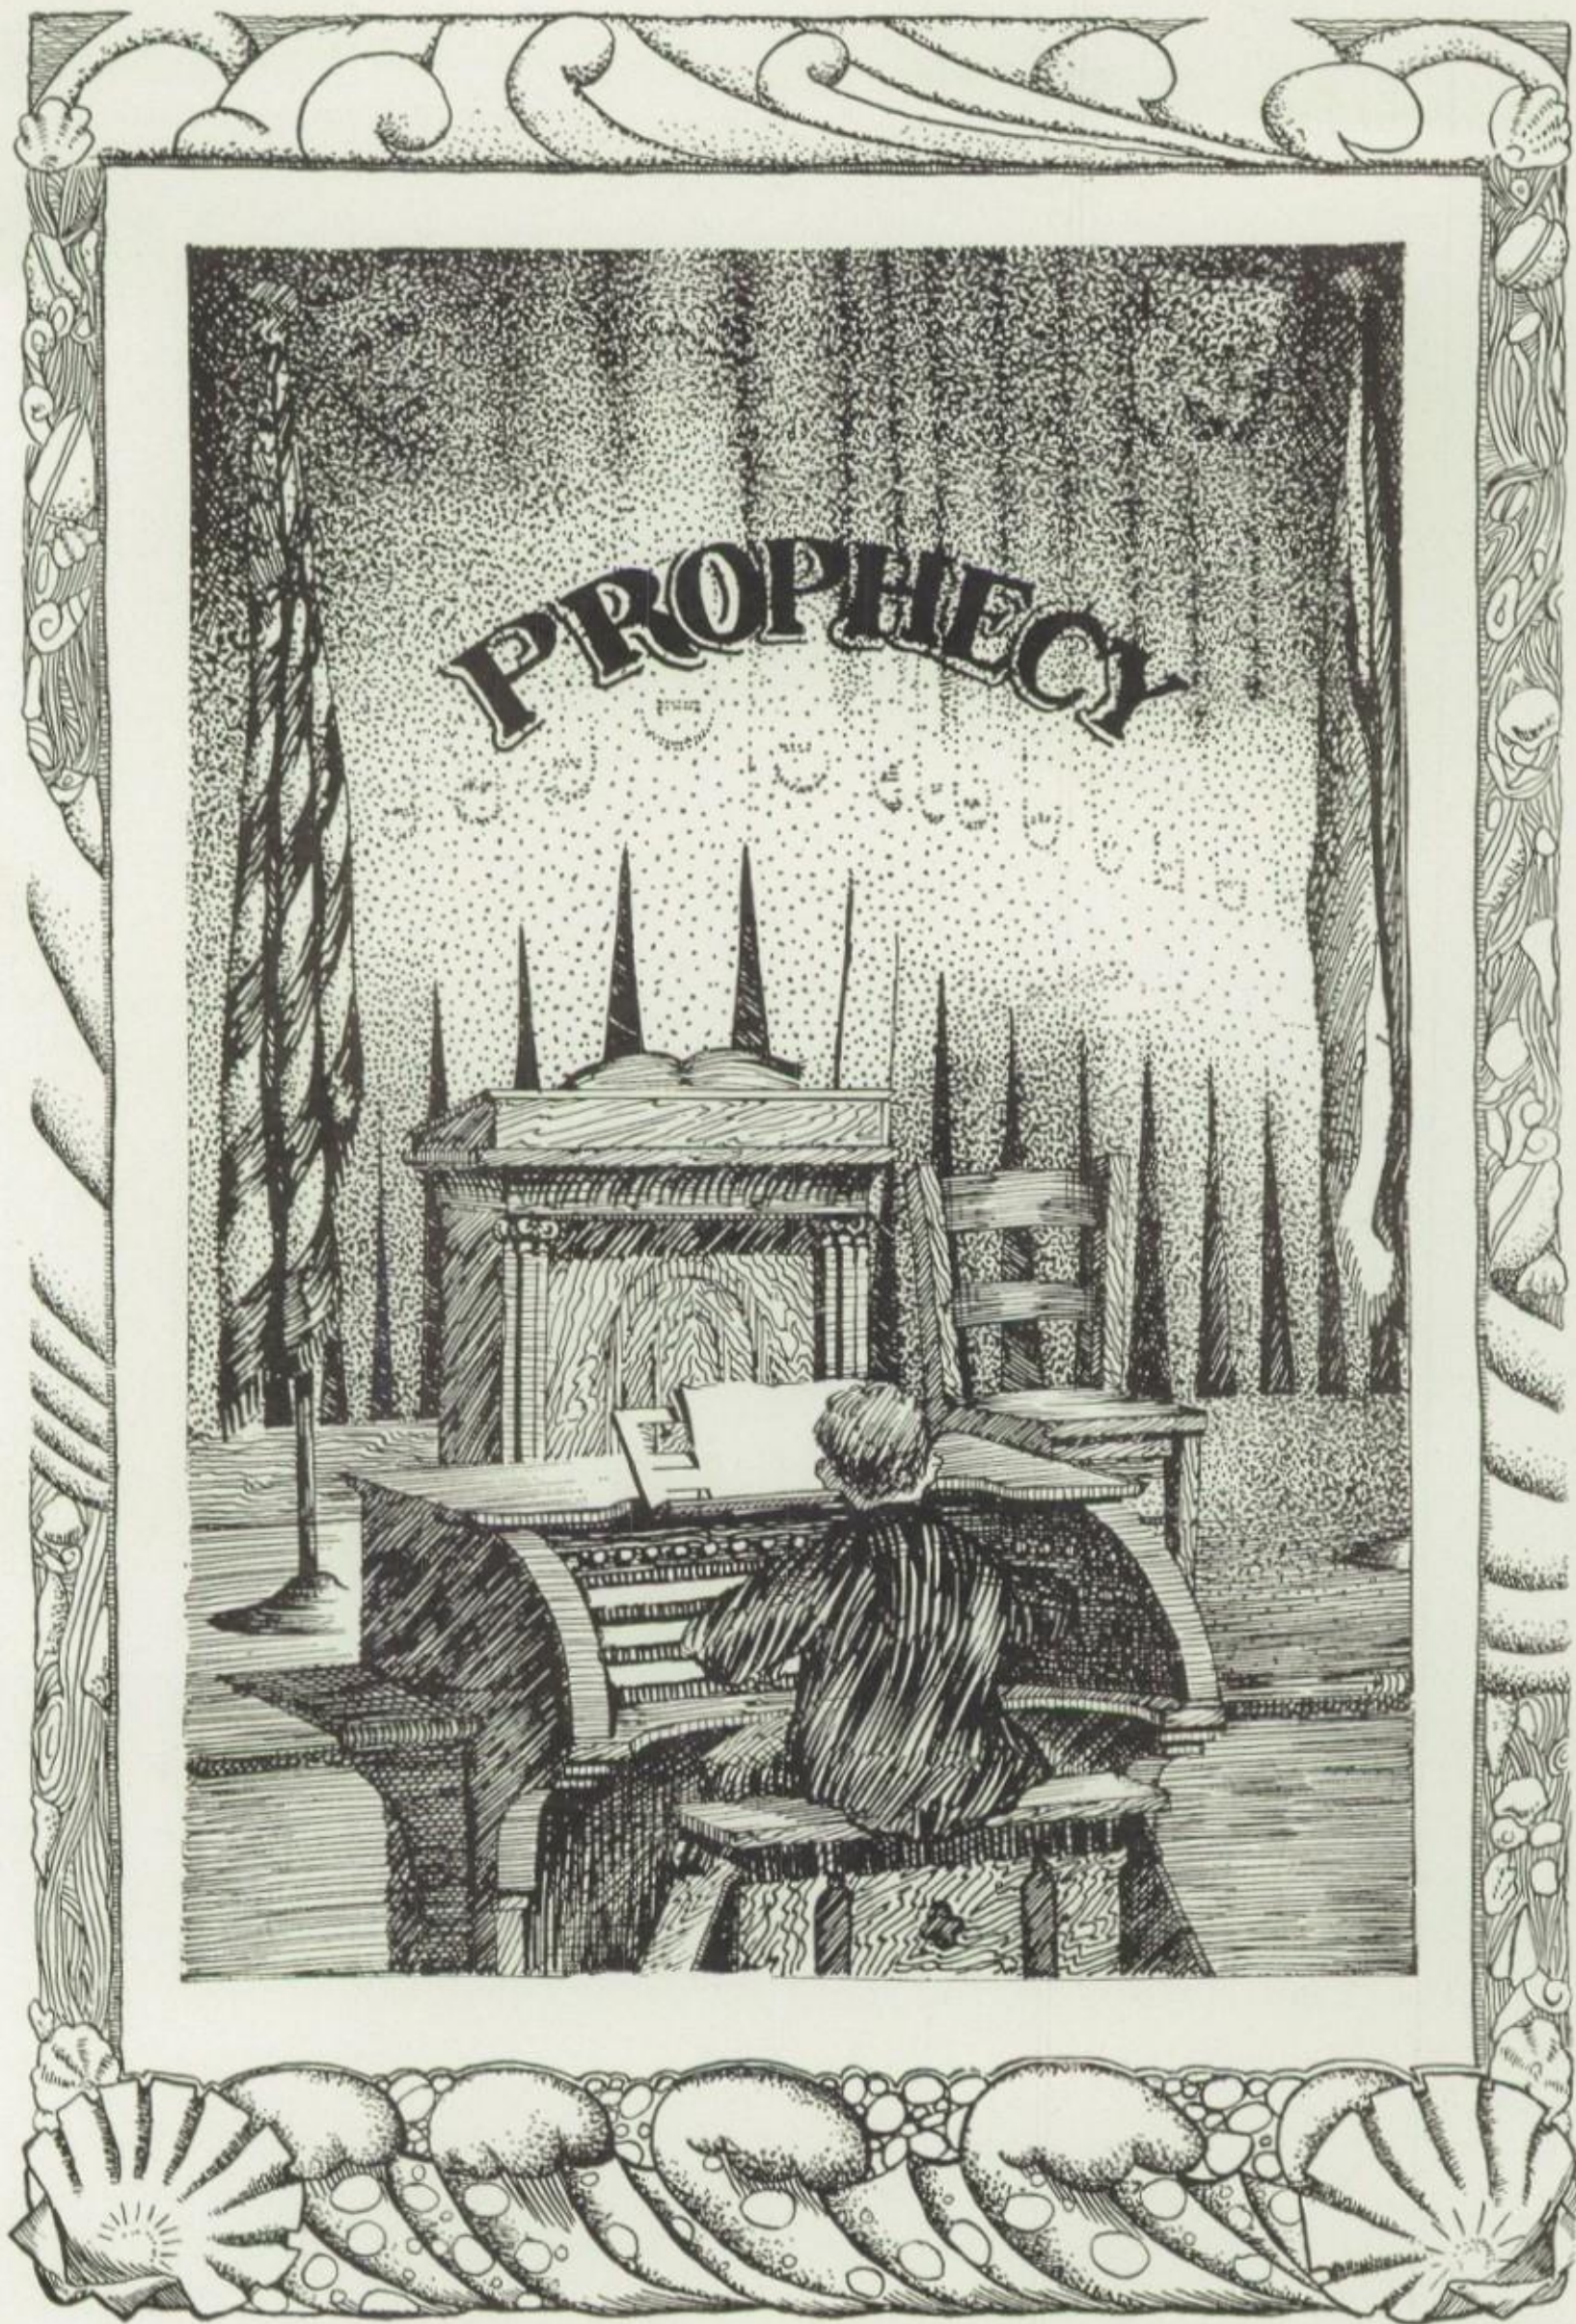

Other Members of the 158th Class

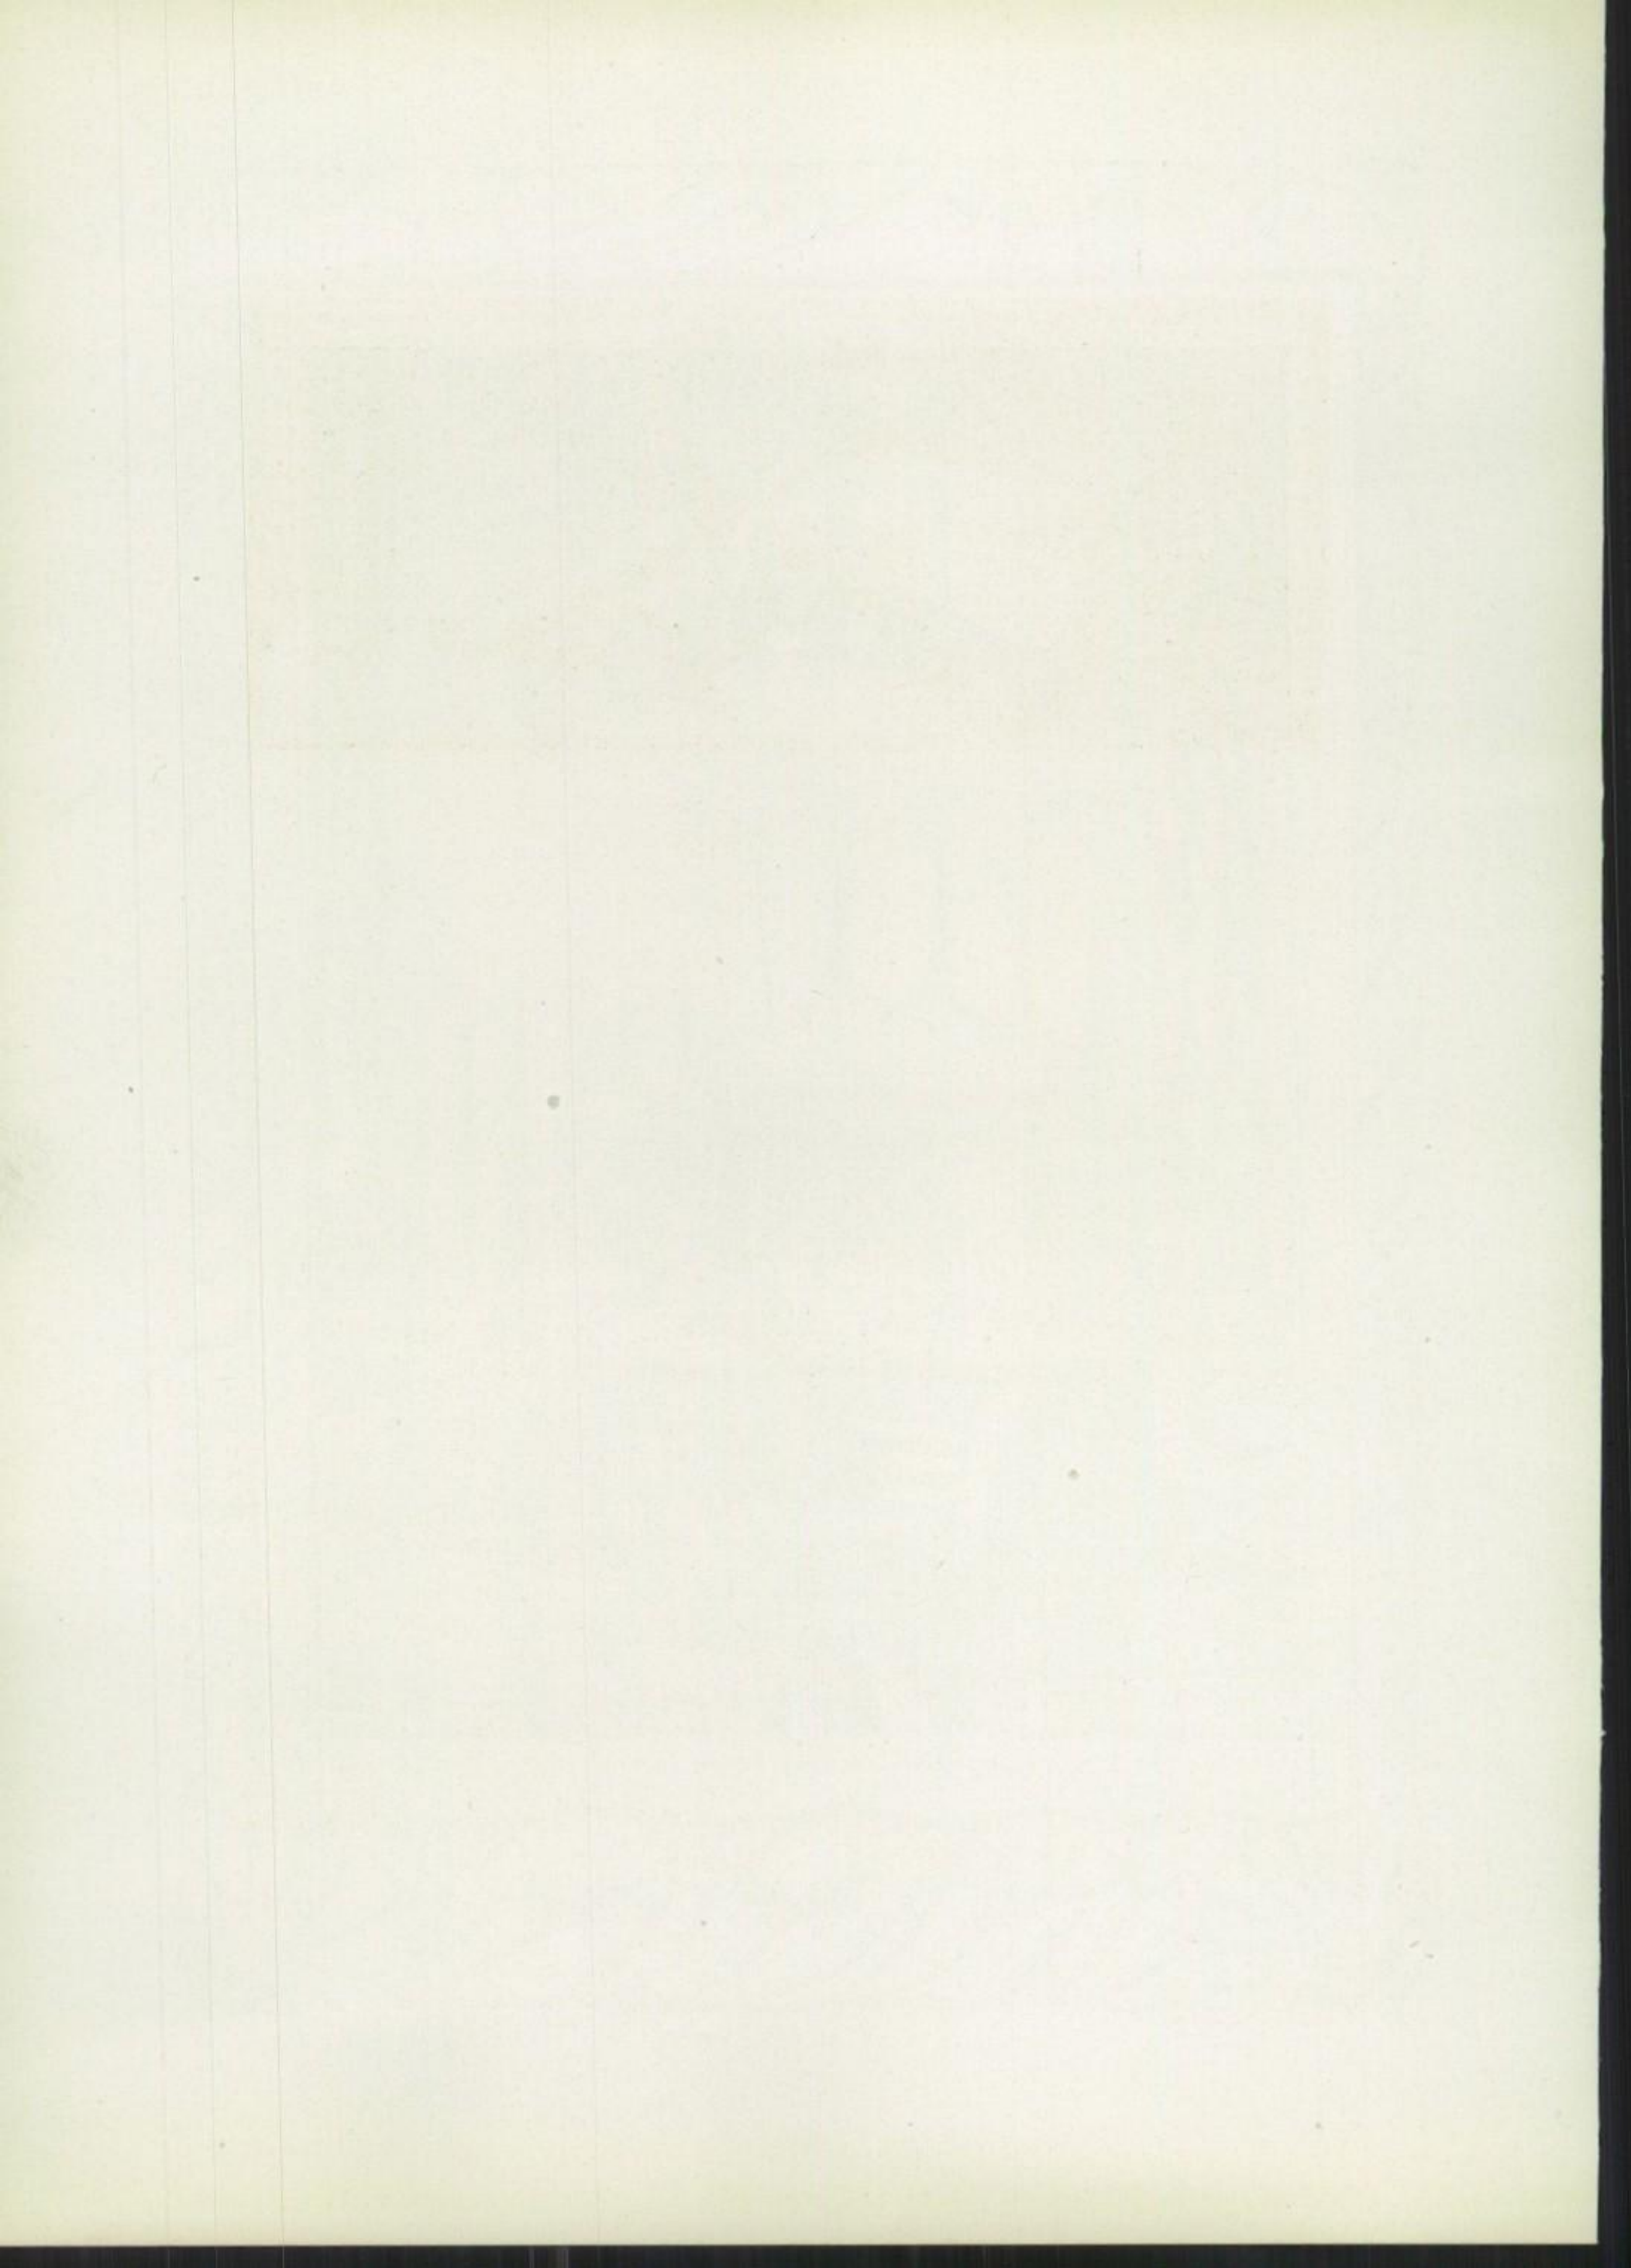

LEON FADEN
ABRAHAM FELDMAN
GEORGE FRIEDMAN
SIMON GILBERT
MORRIS GLASSER
LOUIS GOLDBERG
CYRUS GORDON
WILLIAM B. HARRIS
SOL HOLLANDER
HARRY HOROWITZ
ISADORE KATZ

PHILIP A. KATZ
IRVIN KLEVANSKY
HYMAN MILGROM
MARTIN RHODESIDE
SYDNEY SANDLER
ISADORE SEGAL
FRANK SEMLESS
JACOB SHANDER
J. P. SMITH
JOSEPH STEJSKAL
HARRY THOMAS

ULYSSES YOUNG

BUMS

A PROPHETIC DRAMA

(Being the tragedy of the 158th Class, C. H. S.)

By SAMUEL LAWRENCE FEINSTEIN, Esq.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Scene I. The Copy-room. | Scene VII. Feature Department. |
| Scene II. Sports Department. | Scene VIII. City Editor's Desk. |
| Scene III. Sports Department. | Scene IX. Pressroom. |
| Scene IV. Art Department. | Scene X. Photographic Rooms. |
| Scene V. News Department. | Scene XI. Circulation. |
| Scene VI. News Editor's Desk. | Scene XII. Current History Society. |

Important Characters: S. LAWRENCE FEINSTEIN, SAMUEL L. FEINSTEIN, S. L. FEINSTEIN AND SAMUEL LAWRENCE FEINSTEIN

SCENE I

A copy-room in the "Daily Mirror" building

SCHATZ—Boy, what a pain this Director of Safety Grossman is getting to be.

KUSHNIR—Why, what did my pal Aaron do?

SCHATZ—Your pal! Say, do you know what Grossman did? He raided the "Troc" and arrested the managers!

KUSHNIR—Well, it's about time. Who are the managers?

SCHATZ—Lemmee see—oh, yes, some guys named Pappas, Meinster and Crane.

KUSHNIR—Pappas, Meinster and Cr—why the dirty skunk, they're my friends!

SCHATZ—And what do you think? He was even backed up by Mayor Sopenoff.

KUSHNIR—Yeah, that guy's gonna get in trouble soon if he keeps on running the city his own way.

OSTRICH—Don't be simple. He doesn't run the city—the council runs him. With Benny Stahl, Sid Shore, and Archie Gorelick in that council, the Mayor don't have a chance. He's just a figurehead and everybody knows it.

RECORD

ROSENBAUM—Yeah, that's right. They even control the judges. How did Marty Grossman get on the bench? How did Cyril Gross become a magistrate? Let me tell you it's this damn council that's running the town. Now, if Szymzack were Mayor—

SCHATZ—The trouble is that nobody's objecting. It's only when Metzger finishes robbing the city treasury that the people will begin raising a squawk. The trouble is—damn it! Here comes that pest again.
(Enter Hollander)

HOLLANDER—How do, boys! Say, can any of you speak eloquently? I've got to bring a couple of good speakers to the Current History Society meeting today. Naturally, I thought of letting some of you have the honor; it will get your names into the papers.

OSTRICH (suspiciously)—Why d'ya hafta have speakers?

HOLLANDER—Well, y'see, the Society's gone highbrow all of a sudden and they're gonna have a lot of prominent men. For instance, Morris Roth, literary editor of Feldman's Love Story Magazine, and the two leading surgeons of the country, Doctors Leon Rubin and Frederick Sulik, M. D., PH.D., etc., etc., you know. So here I am about to shower fame upon your noble brows. Who wants to come?

KUSHNIR (in a businesslike tone of voice)—How much do we get?

HOLLANDER—Well, of all the nerve! Always thinking of filthy lucre! Why, if I wanted to pay for orators I'd go right down to Kaufman's Employment Agency and get the best speakers in the city. They'd be glad to get the job, too.

(The door opens and three figures come strolling through.)

LEVITAN—Ich würde so glücklich gewesen wann ich nur reich wäre.

NUSSBAUM—Ja, ich würde auch glücklich gewesen wann ich nur reich wäre.

RUDOLPH—Ja, Ja, ich auch.

HOLLANDER—Hey, you guys!

LEVITAN—

RUDOLPH—

NUSSBAUM—

Sprechen Sie zu mir, mein herr?

HOLLANDER—You're just the guys I want. I can get the Langworthy brothers, who speak French, and I can get the Lipman brothers, who speak Spanish. Now, with you speaking German, we can have a regular league of nations. What could be sweeter?

(Turns to reporters.)

So you thought you could get money from me, you bums? Well, I can do without you. Come on, you fellows. (Exit with the Germans.)

(A short silence follows, then SCHATZ breaks forth.)

SCHATZ—The dirty rat! If he thinks he can call us bums he's mistaken. Let me think—Let me th—I've got it! I've got it! Let's get the whole gang together and bust up the meeting of that Society. Come on! (exeunt.)

SCENE II

A room in the sports department.

SWEENEY—Gotcha that time.

SUGINT—Oh, yeah? How about this?

SWEENEY—Lemme see. If I move here he moves there; if I move there he moves here.

SHANDER—Listen, Jack, move here and you'll trap him.

WEXLER—Cut that out. Can't you let them play their own game? Now, Suge, if he moves here, you can check.

HURVITZ—Say, why are you guys always kibitzing?

GELLMAN—Yeah, this isn't a four-handed game.

HAIMOVITZ—Come on, boys, make this fast.

FLEISHMAN—Move here, Sweeney, old boy, and you'll take his queen.

RATNER—You're wrong. Play the bishop.

SCHLAFF—That's not a bishop, sap, it's a pawn.

(Lorber and Barbagallo are at the radio.)

LORBER—Say, fellows, the A's just scored four runs.

CHS

RECORD

GIZA—Who the heck cares?

BARBAGALLO—Bassman socked a homer with Weissman, Konotopski and Borriello on the bases.

CORYELL—Shut up.

(Jung pops his head in.)

JUNG—Hey, does anybody have anything to do with sports around here? I want a hand in a sports write-up.

FEDYNA (looks up from typewriter)—Blask is the only guy who could do anything for you, and he went home an hour ago.

SWEENEY—HmMMM . . .

SUGINT—HmMMM . . .

LORBER—New York is putting in a new pitcher. Inselberg goes to the showers. . . . Cappel is now on the mound. Gelman and Schneyer on base.

KESSLER—Shut up.

SWEENEY—HmMMM.

SUGINT—HmMMM.

BARBAGALLO — Wow! Forbes just socked a triple.

BUGMENKO—SHUT UP!

(The door bursts open and Shatz and the rest come running in.)

SCHATZ—Come on, you guys! Hollander just called us newspapermen a bunch of bums! Let's bust up the meeting of his society! Come on!

SEMLESS—What! That pest! And think of all the poetry we let him send in.

ALL—Come on! Let's get some more guys!

CHATZKEL—It's about time we got even with that guy!

APPEL—Just wait until I get my hands on him!

(They all rush out, except Sugint and Sweeney. Brodsky shouts back.)

BRODSKY—Hey! Call the game off!

SWEENEY—HmMMM.

SUGINT—HmMMM.

SCENE III

(Another room in the sports department.)

SCHWARTZ—Hey, Schwartz, did you hear that the "Troc" was raided last night?

SCHWARTZ—Did I hear it? Why, I was there!

SCHWARTZ—Yeah? What happened?

SCHWARTZ—Well, we were sitting in the gallery.

SCHWARTZ—Who's "we"?

SCHWARTZ—The whole bunch of us. Hey! which of you fellers were at the "Troc" last night?

FRIEDMAN—FRIEDMAN—FRIEDMAN—FRIEDMAN—

me.

BROWN—
BROWN—
BROWN—BROWN—

me.

KATZ—KATZ—KATZ—KATZ—

me.

LAKEN—I.

SCHWARTZ—Well, we were enjoying the show when in comes this Grossman guy.

B. GROSSMAN—{ He means Aaron
J. GROSSMAN—{ Grossman, not me.

SCHWARTZ—And he stops near "Rube" Sirulnick's box—you know "Rube" Sirulnick, the politician, and with him were Philip Cohen and Louis M. Goldberg, a couple of other political big shots. They must have been spying on the show, because Grossman starts to talk to them. Then he goes over to a police sergeant—I forget his name.

LAKEN—Denkin.

SCHWARTZ—That's it, Denkin. This Denkin brings in a flock of cops.

LAKEN—Reid, Gorsky, Schectman, Stewart and the Rosenbergs.

SCHWARTZ—Say, they aren't your friends, are they? Well, the cops jumped up on the stage. But just then, Sliding Herby Powell and Peanuts Trachtman, the two comedians, were doing a dance à la Ziegfeld's glorified girlies, and when Denkin jumped up on the stage, Trachtman's foot jumped right in his eye, and Mr. Denkin flops flatter than a pancake.

SCHWARTZ—So what happened then?

CHS

RECORD

SCHWARTZ—Oh, then the fun began. First the crowd—

(The door bursts open and Schatz and the rest rush in.)

SCHATZ—Hey, listen, 'you guys, Hollander just called us newspapermen a bunch of bums.

SCHWARTZ—Why, the rat, he owes me a buck.

FILLIPONE—Me, too!

MARCUS—I never did like that guy.

GRANATIR—Any guy that writes poetry as asinine as his is, should never be trusted.

WOLGIN—Well, at last I can get even with him for that phoney nickel he gave me.

(Exeunt.)

SCENE IV

(The art department of the "Daily Mirror.")

OVCHAROV—Say, Tasker, did you hear about Feinstein?

TASKER (working on a sketch of a burlesque dancer)—Uh?

OVCHAROV—He's being divorced by his wife.

TASKER—Uh?

OVCHAROV—Yep. Eighth wife. Gina Francis of the Follies Bergère. She used to pal around with Milt Stander, remember?

TASKER—Uh?

LASZLO—Yeah, and Sam's being sued by Al Gorin for using Gorin's ideas in some painting.

ROSOFF—Boy, oh boy, as an artist I'm a good drummer.

MYERS—I wonder where Gorin got the idea that was his idea that Sam used?

BREGMAN—I think its just jealousy on Gorin's part. Say, boys, look at this hot sketch I just made.

KACZAR—That's rotten. I can get better ones six for a quarter.

GRUDA—But first don't forget to pay me the two bits you owe me.

(Enter Schatz et al.)

SCHATZ—Hey, Hollander called us newspapermen crooked bums! Come on, let's wreck his society!

KLEVANSKY—Its about time we got rid of the damn Socialist.

LANG—Yeah, he's dangerous.

(All rush out except Tasker, who remains gazing pensively at his masterpiece.)

GRAY—Hey, Tasker, hurry up, cut out the daydreams.

TASKER—Uh?

SCENE V

(News department of the "Daily Mirror.")

FORST—Tra, la, la, la, la. Tra, la, la, la.

HOROWITZ—What's eating you?

FORST (witheringly)—My dear young man, don't you recognize Beethoven's unfinished symphony? He died before he finished it.

KATEN—Well, just one more chirp out of you, buddy, and you'll be the originator of Forst's unfinished symphony; you'll die before you begin it.

KAPP—Here, here, boys, don't fight! Let's behave like all good Christians do.

FISHER—Three cheers for that helpful hint, boys.

BRESLER—

DE MARCO—

WEINSTEIN—

 !! ?? — etc.

KLEIMAN—That reminds me of the joke about the traveling salesman.

DU GAN—Let's not be vulgar, boys; let's be gentlemen.

LORENZ—Yes, yes, let's be nice. Let's discuss music.

SACHS—

LEVIN—

Ah, yes, divine music.

WHITE—

FRAND—

NODLER—

We'll dis-cuss it all right!

(Schatz and his gang come in.)

SCHATZ—We newspapermen have just been called bums by Hollander. Come on, you guys, let's get that Socialist.

(All rush out except Forst, who remains reading Beethoven's biography.)

BELLACE—Hey, Forst, throw that book away and hurry up.

FORST—Tra, la, la, la, la, Tra, la, la, la.

CHS

RECORD

SCENE VI

(The news editor's office.)

WIEDER (proofreading)—"Amazing Exposure of Crooked Politicians in Elections of National Bleup Society." "Samuel Sturm, District Attorney, investigates case." "A Colossal fraud was revealed during the elections of the National Bleup Society, powerful political organization, when the ballots were recounted and results announced. The ballot box keeper, David Jarrett, was discovered secretly filling the boxes with thousands of ballots favoring Morris Kimelman, who was running for president against Jacob Nemirowff. After Chief of Police Levy had given Jarrett the third degree, the latter confessed that Mr. Nemirowff had been bribed by Mr. Kimelman to throw the election over. Mr. Samuel Sturm, the District Attorney, et cetera, et cetera, bla, bla, bla." I guess this article is all right. For once this fellow Stejkal has written something decent. What's this? (reads) "Judge Calls Literal Translation Agents Corruptors of Youth." Upon the protest of Professors Winick and Goldfarb, of the Central High School, three men calling themselves Solomon Harker, Ettore Marcantuono and Harry Horowitz, were arrested for selling literal translations to students of the school in Brandywine Street. These men said they were agents of the Smith, Smith and Smith Company. Magistrate Samuel Melnick denounced these men—etc., etc. O. K., I guess.

"Big Navy Bill Passed. Secretary of Navy Jankela awards contract to Lusen and Motaytes"—Say, Rubin, if you don't stop that sax I'll brain you.

(Schatz and the mob rush in.)

SCHATZ—Hey, Hollander just slandered our newspaper! We're going to bust up his society.

WIEDER—
RUBIN— } (Joyously) Let's go!

SCENE VII

(The feature department of the "Daily Mirror.")

COHEN—Friends, Romans, Countrymen!

KRAUSS—Wassa matter?

SCHWAB—

GINSBURG— } He's sick.

FRATKIN—

COHEN—Lend me your ears.

FADEN—I thought he'd ask for money.

COHEN—Gentlemen, last night I had the pleasure of entertaining a charming young woman.

BREE—Wasser name?

COHEN—The first name is a secret. The second is Gottlieb.

GOTTLIEB— } Gottlieb? was it my wife?

GOTTLIEB—

SPECTOR—Of course not. What would he have to do with another man's wife?

STERN—By the way, did you know that Izzy Axler got shot last night?

MILNER—Why, what happened?

STERN—He was shot by a fellow named Louis Goldberg, who claims that he saw him with his wife.

POLLACK—Yeah, but the funny part about it is that it wasn't Axler who was guilty at all. It happened this way: Norman Bleshman and Max Borenstein were talking to Goldberg's wife in front of Magnes' Movie Palace when Axler and Sam Burt came up. Right in back of them came this Goldberg with a gat. As soon as Bleshman and Borenstein see Goldberg they beat it, and Burt follows them in nothing flat. Then Axler, not understanding what it's all about, walks up to Mrs. Goldberg and asks her to elucidate. So Mr. Goldberg lets loose with his trusty six-shooter.

ACKERMAN—Where's Axler now?

POLLACK—Oh, he's home trying to explain to the little woman just what did happen.

(Enter Schatz and mob.)

SCHATZ—Hey, etc., etc.

ALL—Yes, etc., etc. (Exeunt.)

SCENE VIII

(The city editor's office)

(Enter Seymour S. Kety, city editor.)

KETY—Why, look at the pretty little black bag I found here accidentally. I wonder what's in it. (Opens bag.) Goodness gracious. Ten thousand dollars. Why here's a note. (Reads):

CHS

RECORD

My dear Mr. Kety:

Since we have found that this method has been most convenient between us, we now send you another black bag. All that we ask of you is to state that Deputy Coroner Thomas Taylor has been selling corpses. If this will give Representative Thornton Taylor the election to Congress we will send you another black bag.

Yours sincerely,

Governor Harry Thomas,
Congressman Martin Rhodeside,
Congressman Irving Snyder,
Congressman Benj. Greenberg.

KETY—The terms appear satisfactory. This bag goes right into my safe.

(Schatz, etc., rush in.)

SCHATZ—Blaaa, Blaa, Bla.

KETY—Bla, Blaa, Blaaa, B1—wait, I'll get my hat! (Exeunt.)

SCENE IX

(The pressroom of the "Daily Mirror.")

DI PAUL (picking up a paper)—Let's see what today's bunk is. (Reads.) "Massive span completed by Levin and Levin, Inc." "Senator Watson attacks Congressmen Spencer and Davis." "Cook held for murder of Lalli." "Mason accused of bribing police." Boy, oh boy, there certainly is something rotten in this town. And what with that racketeer Cerucci terrorizing business, and McKelvey bumping people off, it isn't safe to go outside any more.

CERULLO—Yeah. Yesterday I was talking to Hymie Milgrom and he was telling me that he's being pestered by a new racket. Two guys who called themselves Grande and Piestrack came up to him and asked for a donation to charity. When he opens his cash register to hand them some dough they ask for all of it. They're very persuasive about it, too. Milgrom says they almost broke his ribs sticking those gats in him.

KRUTZKE—Look at this (reads): "Tomkewitz sets swim record. Noted swimmer beats Moldoff to crack 440-yard mark. Merritz is third."

SHEEDY—I was there when it happened, and it was one grand gyp. Tomkewitz came in first, all right, and Moldoff got second place without any question, but that third place award to Merritz was a lot of bunk. Kociubinsky came in tied with Merritz for third, but the judges couldn't pronounce Kociubinsky's name, so I guess they didn't want to show their ignorance. Anyway, they gave third place to Merritz.

LEWIS—And how about that mixup the judges were in trying to figure out which Reed won the 220-yard breaststroke, remember? Glasser said one Reed had won, and Donde said that the other Reed had won.

SHEEDY—Yeah. How did that finally come out? I had to leave before that.

LEWIS—Oh, there was a big argument over it, and everybody got hot and bothered. Both Reeds went up and took a punch at the judges. Finally, the thing was settled; they disqualified the Reeds and gave the race to Bolden. Then they awarded second place to Fuller.

SILVER—Glasser would do a thing like that.

MINTZER—Well, Donde isn't so hot, either.

(Enter Schatz and mob.)

MOB—Come on, get Hollander! He calls us bums.

WYGAND—Oh yeah? Who's he think he is?

GLAUSSER—I never did like that guy.

HEDRICK—He's a damned Socialist.

WILLIAMS—SEGAL—PORTNER—
 { Yeah, that's what he is—a damned Socialist.

ALL—Yes, yes, Hollander is a damned Socialist. Come on, come on! Get Hollander! (Exeunt.)

SCENE X

(The photographic department of the "Daily Mirror.")

GILBERT—Hey, Chris, look at this peach!

BAUER—Boy, I'll say she's a peach. Who is she?

CHS

RECORD

GILBERT—The name, young man, concerns me alone.

VICKERS—I know who it is; it's Jack Korman's wife. And Jack certainly is in bad shape on account of her.

GORDON—Why, what happened?

VICKERS—She started going places with Jack Segan, and Korman didn't like it. So he got Bernie Peltz and Sid Sandler and waited for Segan up a dark alley. But Segan isn't so dumb himself. So he comes along with Sishonsky and Callahan. Well, after it was all over, they all woke up in a hospital. Dr. Bruck says they'll live long enough to make more trouble.

(Enter mob.)

SCHATZ—Come on, come on, Hollander, etc., etc., damned Socialist, etc., etc.

SOKOLOV—GIRARDO—
SHAPIRO—
Yeah, etc., etc., damned Socialist, etc.

ALL—Yes, yes, etc., damned Socialist, etc. Come on, come on! (Exeunt.)

(Voices can be heard outside.)

J. BROWN—Get Hollander!

M. BROWN—Get Hollander!

B. BROWN—Get Hollander!

C. BROWN—Get Hollander!

MOB—Yes, yes, get Hollander!

D. A. FRIEDMAN—He's a darn Socialist!

D. E. FRIEDMAN—He's a darn Socialist!

J. FRIEDMAN—He's a darn Socialist!

A. FRIEDMAN—He's a darn Socialist!

MOB—(Yes, yes, he is a darn Socialist! Get Hollander!)

P. A. KATZ—He calls us bums!

P. D. KATZ—He calls us bums!

I. KATZ—He calls us bums!

J. KATZ—He calls us bums!

MOB—(Yes, yes, he calls us bums! Get Hollander!)

T. TAYLOR—Get Hollander!

T. TAYLOR—Get Hollander!

MOB—Yes, yes, get Hollander!

SCENE XI

(The circulation department of the "Daily Mirror.")

SHUMAN—Now, listen, you guys, we gotta increase this circulation. If we don't, a gang of youse are gonna go. That goes for you, too, Young. The guy that named you "useless" sure was right.

YOUNG (haughtily)—Mah name is Ulysses, suh!

SHUMAN—Well, it'll be mud if you don't wake up. Fixman is raising cane for more subscriptions, so all of you better get to work.

KOCHMAN (to Seidel)—I'd like to punch Shuman in the nose.

SEIDEL (to Kochman)—Get in line back of me.

(Enter Schatz and Mob)

SCHATZ—Come on, men, let's wipe Hollander from the face of the earth. He called us bums.

BERNABIE—He did, did he? Where is he?

FELD—Yesterday he put a tack on my chair. Just give me a chance to get even.

MOB—Bla Bla Bla Come on, Come on! (Exeunt.)

SCENE XII

(In front of the Current History Society Building.)

MOB—We want revenge! We want to get Hollander!

SHAPIRO—Hollander is a blot upon the human race!

HARRIS—Hollander is a disgrace to humanity!

GREENSPAN—Hollander is a damned Socialist!

ETTENGER—Let's go in and get him!

MOB—Yes, yes, let's go in.

(All enter the building.)

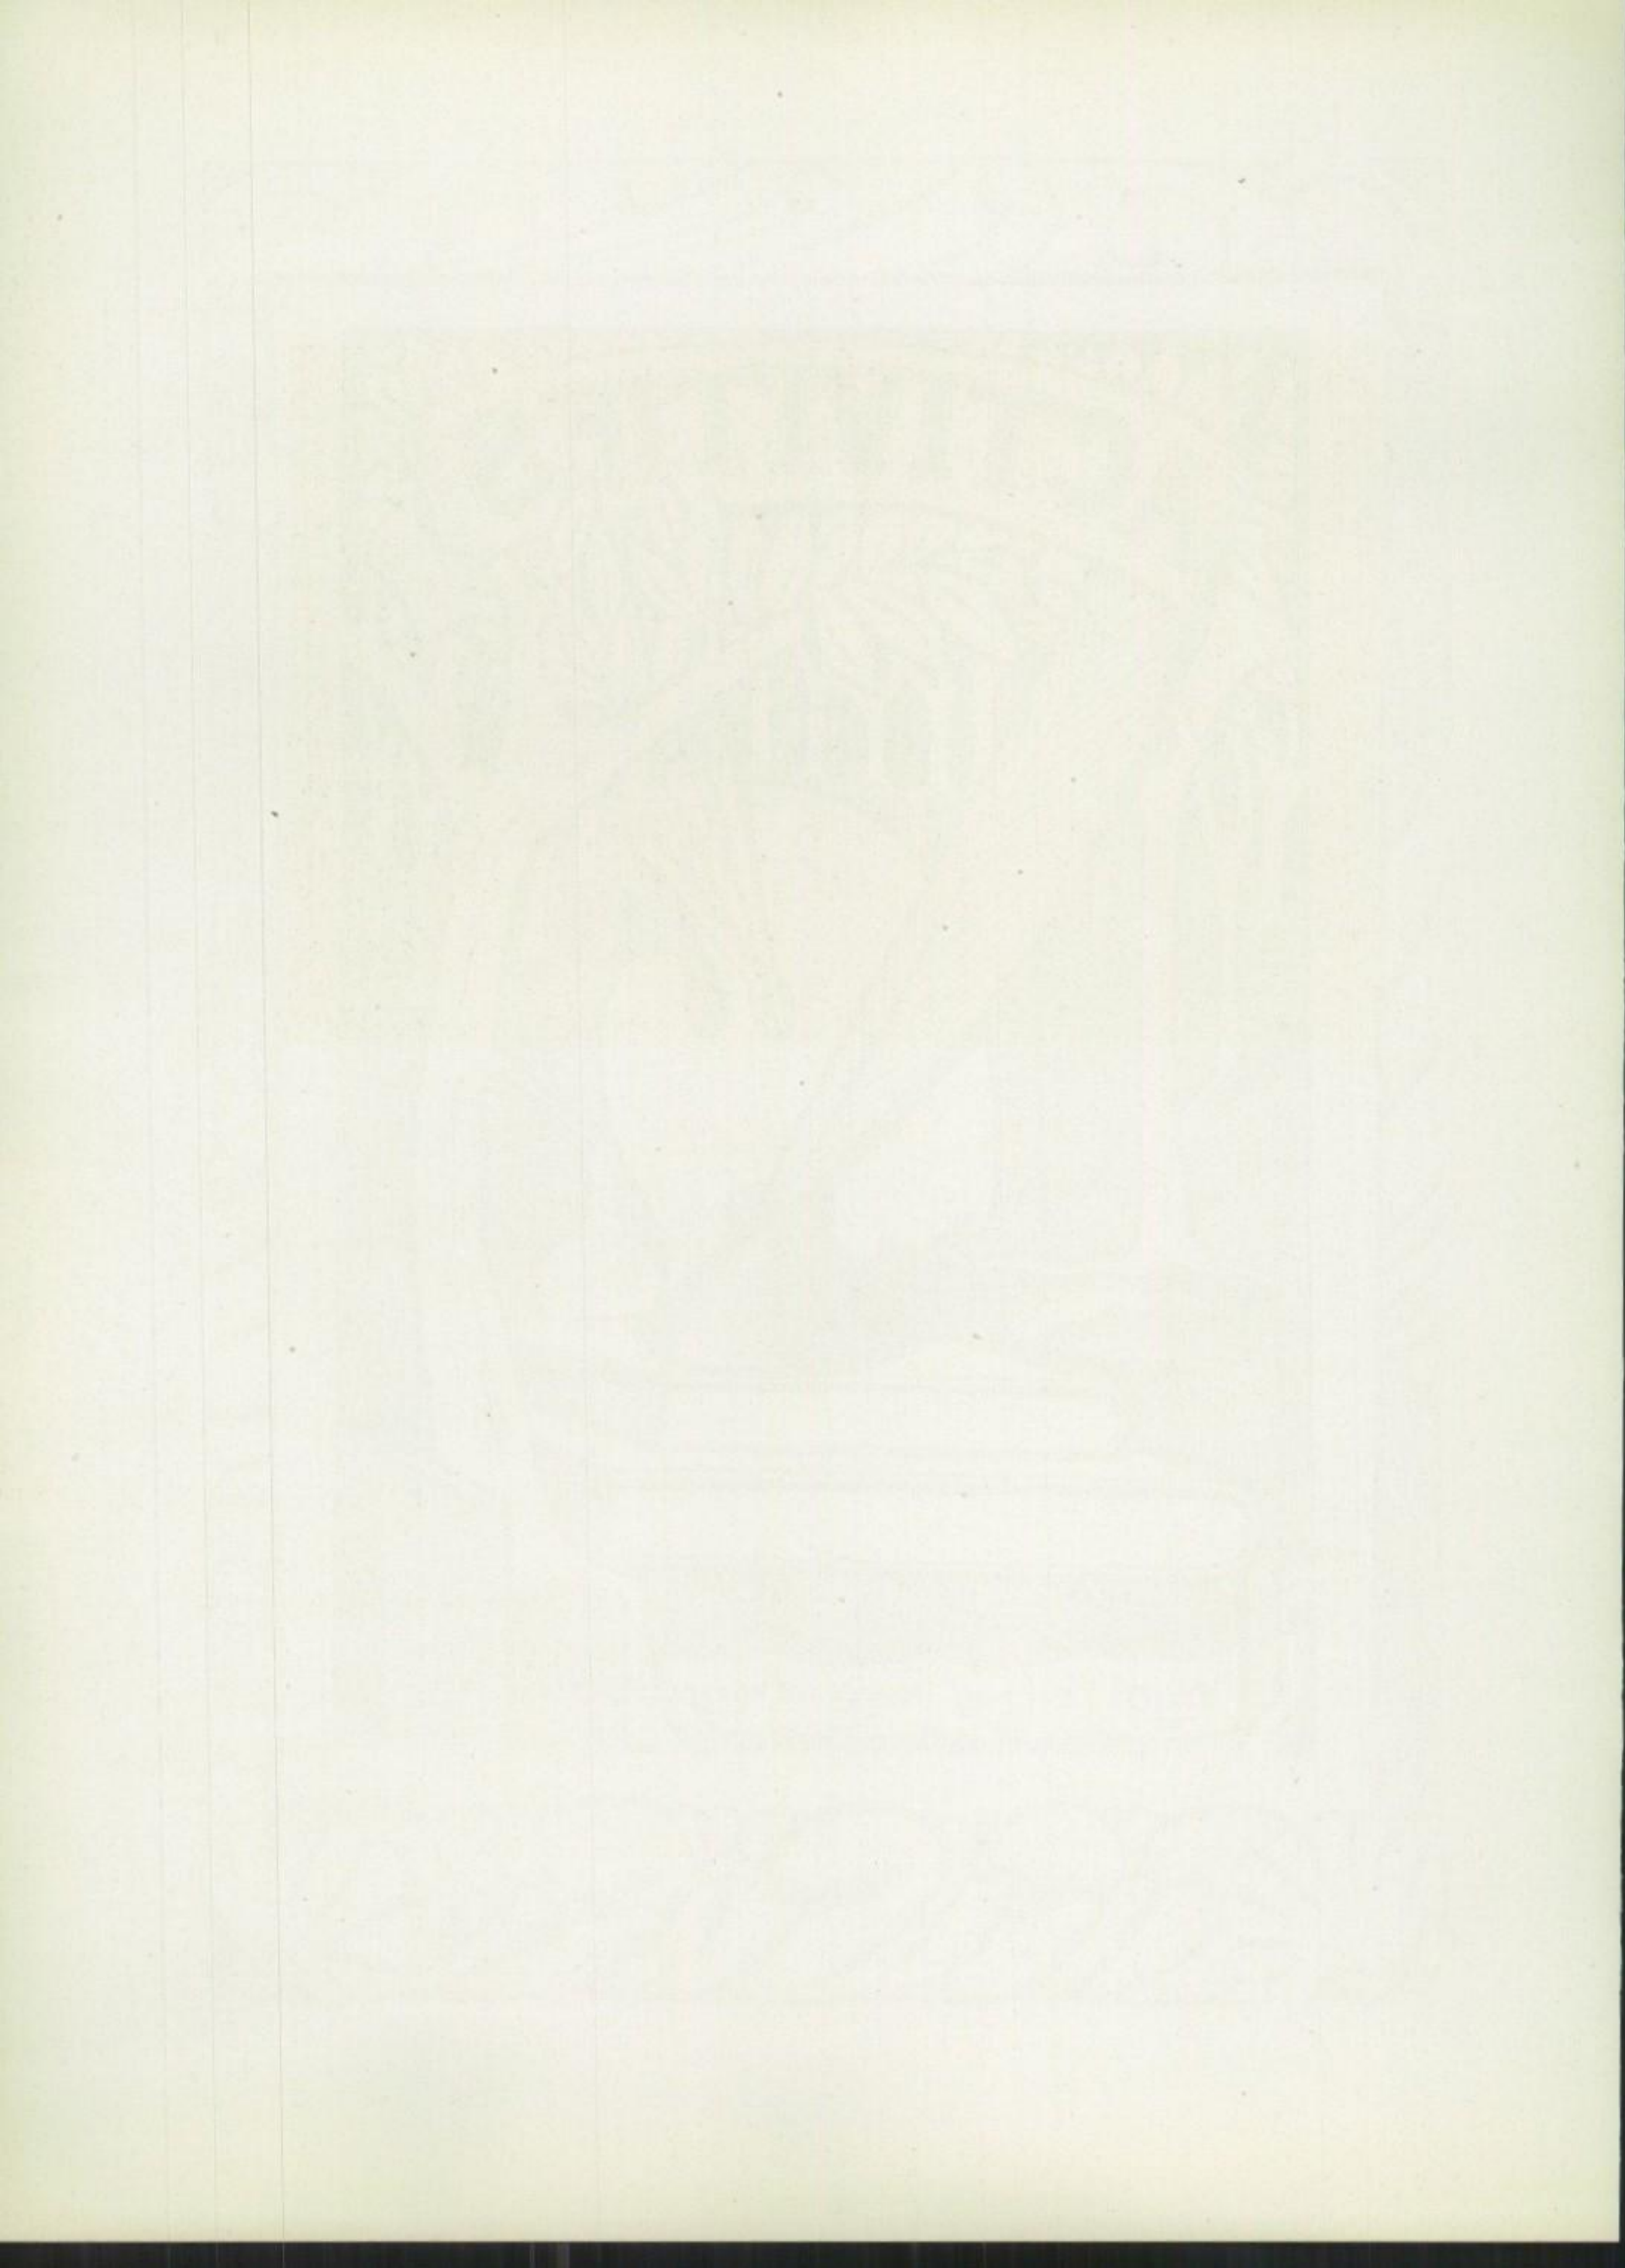

Suddenly a blinding flash of lightning strikes the structure. A terrific explosion follows. The entire mob is blown to pieces. Then all is still . . .

* * *

FEINSTEIN—Well, I guess that's as good a way of ending this darn thing as any. . . . This job of being prophet isn't any cinch. Let's see now . . . fifty lines of Greek for to-morrow, test in English, recitation in German. . . .

CHS

RECORD

RECORD BOOK

158TH CLASS

MORRIS KIMELMAN.....Editor-in-Chief
 JACOB NEMIROFF.....Associate Editor-in-Chief
 AARON GROSSMAN.....Business Manager
 SAMUEL L. FEINSTEIN.....Art Editor
 WILLIAM TASKER.....Art Editor
 JULES SCHWARTZ.....Sports Editor

BERNARD BROWN
 DAVID E. FRIEDMAN
 THEODORE SMITH
 HARRY WEIDER

LOUIS M. GOLDBERG
 ISADORE SCHECHMAN
 OCTAVIUS R. ID
 MILTON J. STANDER

PROFESSOR PAIRMAN, Faculty Advisor

CHS

MIRROR STAFF

MORRIS KIMELMAN, 158.....Editor-in-Chief
 SAMUEL LAWRENCE FEINSTEIN, 158....Asso. Editor-in-Chief
 AARON S. GROSSMAN, 158.....Business Manager
 WILLIAM TASKER, 158.....Art Editor
 MORRIS ROTH, 158.....Literary Editor
 JACOB NEMIROFF, 158.....Feature Editor
 JULES SCHWARTZ, 158.....Sports Editor
 HARRY SHUMAN, 158.....Circulation Manager
 JACK OVCHAROV, 158.....Associate Art Editor
 BERNARD WEISSMAN, 158.....Associate Literary Editor
 MORTON LEVY, 158.....Business Associate
 JAMES ROSOFF, 158.....Business Associate

PROFESSOR WISE, Chairman, Publications Committee

PROFESSOR PAIRMAN, Faculty Advisor

The CENTRALIZER

SEYMOUR S. KETY, 158.....Editor-in-Chief
 SAMUEL L. FEINSTEIN, 158.....Associate Editor
 MILTON J. STANDER, 158.....Associate Editor
 HENRY A. SHENKIN, 159.....Associate Editor

FREDERIC KAPP, 158
 IRWIN FISHER, 158
 JACK KORMAN, 158
 PETER PAPPAS, 158
 RAYMOND HOROWITZ, 158
 JOSEPH TRACHTMAN, 158

HOWARD FORST, 158
 JOSEPH KATEN, 158
 CYRIL GROSS, 158
 DAVID E. FRIEDMAN, 158
 JACK KUSHNIR, 158
 ABE GOLDMAN, 159

PROFESSOR WISE, Chairman, Publications Committee

PROFESSOR HERKNESS, Faculty Advisor

STUDENT COUNCIL

HAROLD N. METZGER, 158.....President
 BERNARD OSSER, 160.....Vice-President
 PAUL YERMISH, 159.....Treasurer
 BENJAMIN WEINSTEIN, 159.....Secretary

SENIOR MEMBERS, 158TH CLASS

MARTIN GROSSMAN	AARON S. GROSSMAN
SAMUEL SOPENOFF	OSLEA COOK
SEYMOUR KETY	PHIL COHEN
MORRIS KIMELMAN	BENJAMIN STAHL

PROFESSOR ROBINSON, Faculty Advisor

STUDENT TRIBUNAL

MARTIN GROSSMAN, 158.....Chief Justice

MORRIS DENKIN, 158.....Associate

ASSOCIATE JUDGES

HAROLD METZGER, 158

ISADORE GREENSPAN, 159

AARON GROSSMAN, 158

HERBERT STEINBERG, 159

SAMUEL MELNICK, 158

ABE GOLDMAN, 159

CYRIL GROSS, 158

LIVINGSTON BRAZINGTON, JR., 160

JACK SWEENEY, 158

BERNARD OSSER, 160

PROFESSOR ROBINSON, Faculty Advisor

STUDENT PATROL

AARON S. GROSSMAN.....General Chairman
 MORRIS DENKIN.....Assistant General Chairman
 MORRIS KIMELMAN.....Assistant General Chairman
 ISADORE OSTRICH.....Assistant General Chairman

DIRECTORS

SAMUEL MELNICK	MILTON J. STANDER
HAROLD N. METZGER	JACK KUSHNIR
JACK SWEENEY	ALPHONSE SUGINT
SOL SCHWARTZ	JACK GORSKY
PETER DI PAUL	SAMUEL L. FEINSTEIN
OCTAVIUS REID	MORTON LEVY
HENRY WIEDER	SAMUEL SOPENOFF

PROFESSOR ROBINSON, Faculty Advisor

DEBATING TEAM

CHAMPIONSHIP

Affirmative Team

SEYMOUR S. KETY, Captain, 158
 SOL HOLLANDER, 158
 ABE FRIEDMAN, 158
 DAVID BEISER, 160

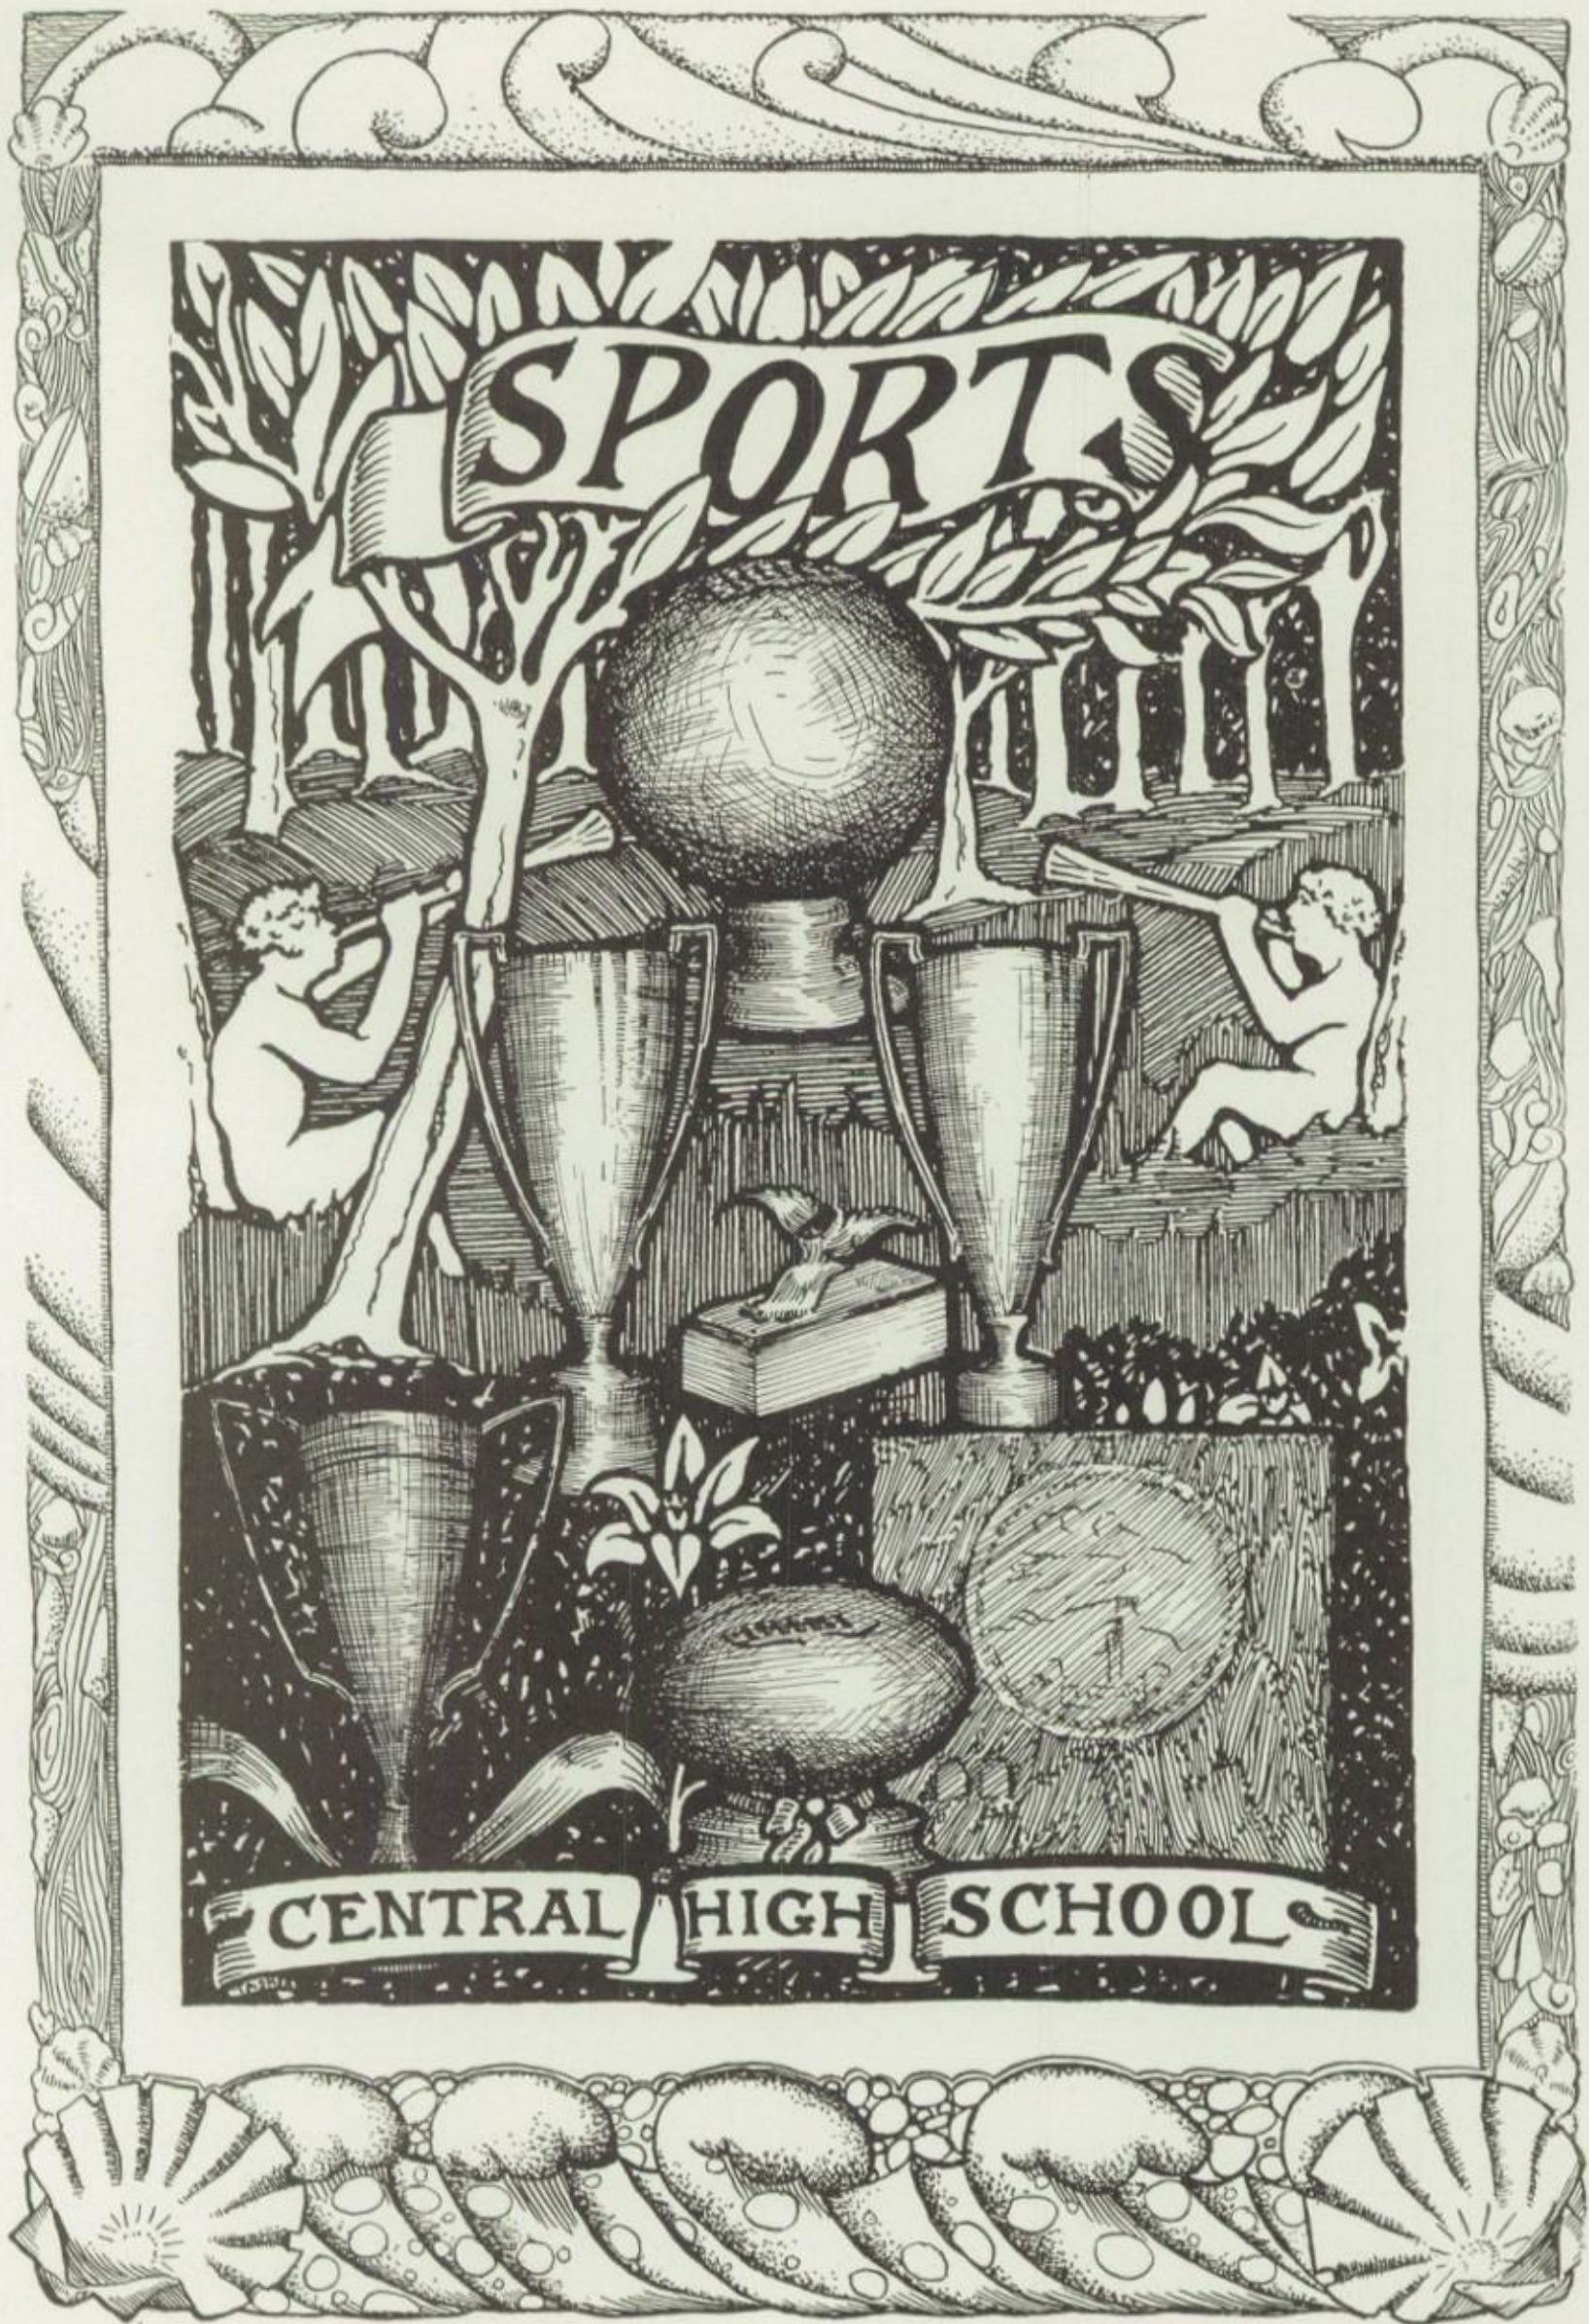

Negative Team

JACOB SEIDENBERG, Captain, 159
 SAMUEL MELNICK, 158
 MILTON J. STANDER, 158
 ARNOLD GINSBERG, 160

LEROY PATRICK, 159

PROFESSOR IRVING KATZ, Faculty Advisor

THE YEAR OF SPORTS

JULES SCHWARTZ, Editor

IT IS with no little pride that we look back upon the winter which has just passed. It has been an exceptional one in the field of athletics at the old high school. Of course, the year of championships did not arrive unheralded; all knew beforehand that the record of last year and the return of so many star athletes could lead to only one conclusion. The awarding of the Morrison trophy for last year's accomplishment was an incentive, the physical education department was a cause, the stars of gridiron, track, court and tank were a means, and championships were a result.

The football team was the first to start things. With a long, unbroken string of victories and two championships to build upon, the team lived up to expectations. The team continued the long string of games undefeated to twenty-seven, and added the third consecutive championship. In addition, in order that the season might be brought to a fitting conclusion, the manager scheduled a charity game with the champions of the Catholic League, and the team took advantage of the situation to win the city championship.

The cross-country group did all that was to be done. The football team won every contest, likewise the cross-country squad. Not only did the varsity team win the C. H. S. Invitation run, the Villanova Interscholastics, the Public High Championship run, and all the triangular meets, but the junior varsity and the freshman teams also won the crowns in their respective leagues. It is noteworthy also, that the varsity made a perfect score in the triangular meet with Southern and Olney. As far as we have record, this is the only perfect score in Philadelphia high school competition history.

It has not been so many years since Central has won championships in swimming, and here we have another. The swimming team suffered one league defeat, that at the hands of West Philadelphia High, which team had a most excellent array of talent. This defeat and a defeat of West Philadelphia by another league contender threw West Philly and Central into a tie for the league lead. The championship was decided at the University of Pennsylvania Individual Championships, and the decision came to Central. The West Philadelphia setback and defeat at the tank at Lawrenceville were the only reverses suffered during the season.

The basketball team started the season without the chance of missing the championship. The coach had the team in the best of shape from the very beginning of the season, and with such stars to have in condition there could be only one result. The only way in which the coach could get an early season defeat to check over-confidence was to take the team out of town, out among the farmer boys, so we dropped one game to Perkiomen School.

RECORD

In the minor sports, the teams had good seasons. The soccer team did better than usual, but in spite of hard playing and good spirit the team was unable to break up the combinations from up north. We were just up against better aggregations. The gym team continued to run up large scores ending in decimal places, but in that sport, too, we had some tough opposition. The contortionists are clever indeed, but the pace was a very fast one to follow. The fencing team has had a pleasant season, but with very little competition we can scarcely boast championships. The sport is not popular, nor in fact, recognized among the Philadelphia schools. Wrestling and boxing have lost favor among those higher up, so that the competition in these sports has passed from the interscholastic calendar.

Then came the spring with hopes of more championships. The early season was promising in all the spring sports, but the baseball team found difficulty in the early games of the league season and soon hope vanished. The tennis team, under Captain Shenkin, played a good season but the competition was strong and the championship fell by the wayside.

The track team was the sensation of the season. Al Threadgill, the stellar captain, inspired his team-mates by setting a fast pace. We won the Northeast Relays, all triangular meets, the class championships and the interscholastic championships. This is the first championship since 1920, and the more brilliant for its decisiveness.

The personalities of the sports calendar have been many. It is impossible in the space available to review the entire group, but we must mention the coaches who have produced winning teams. Of course, what little praise we may here add to the glory of the football outfit can have little weight, but we must record the accomplishments of Coach Barron and Al Ochroch, and the boys whom Bert Barron brought through for the third consecutive season. Coach Vickers, who coached Lafayette Powell's squad through to the triple championship, varsity, junior varsity and freshman, has done a most noteworthy piece of work. Coach Lewis has brought championship when most good coaches would be satisfied to be still building up a system. Coach Fischer's squad was green and inexperienced last season. This season, with a fair start, he managed an excellent finish. The spring season on the track has been most satisfactory. Mr. Grigson worked the squad into excellent shape in the first season of his coaching, and this season has shown the fruits of his cultivation. So also, to Captain Cliff Anderson, to Captain John Tomkowitz and to Captain Al Threadgill, we must say thanks and well done. And last, but not least, there is that group of less sung heroes whose work has been outstanding, the team members especially that all-around combination, Dolly Katz and Sam Brownstein—football, basketball, baseball and track stars.

In parting, we extend a word to the spirit behind the athletic revival, to the man who insists upon athletics for the individual boy's sake, and upon hard play and clean sportsmanship—a word of thanks and sincere appreciation to Mr. Roy Deleplaine, director of physical education.

CHS

LETTERMEN

158TH CLASS

JULES SCHWARTZ

PETER PAPPAS

GEORGE GREENSPAN

IRWIN FISHER

OSCAR FRAND

STANLEY CARPEL

DAVID KAUFMAN

JOSEPH KATEN

CYRIL GROSS

MAX LORENZ

BOHDAN KOCHUBINSKY

PETER DI PAUL

OSLEA COOK

HAROLD METZGER

JACK MEINSTER

SAM SOPENOFF

ROBERT CALLAHAN, JR.

AARON S. GROSSMAN

CHARLES DUGAN

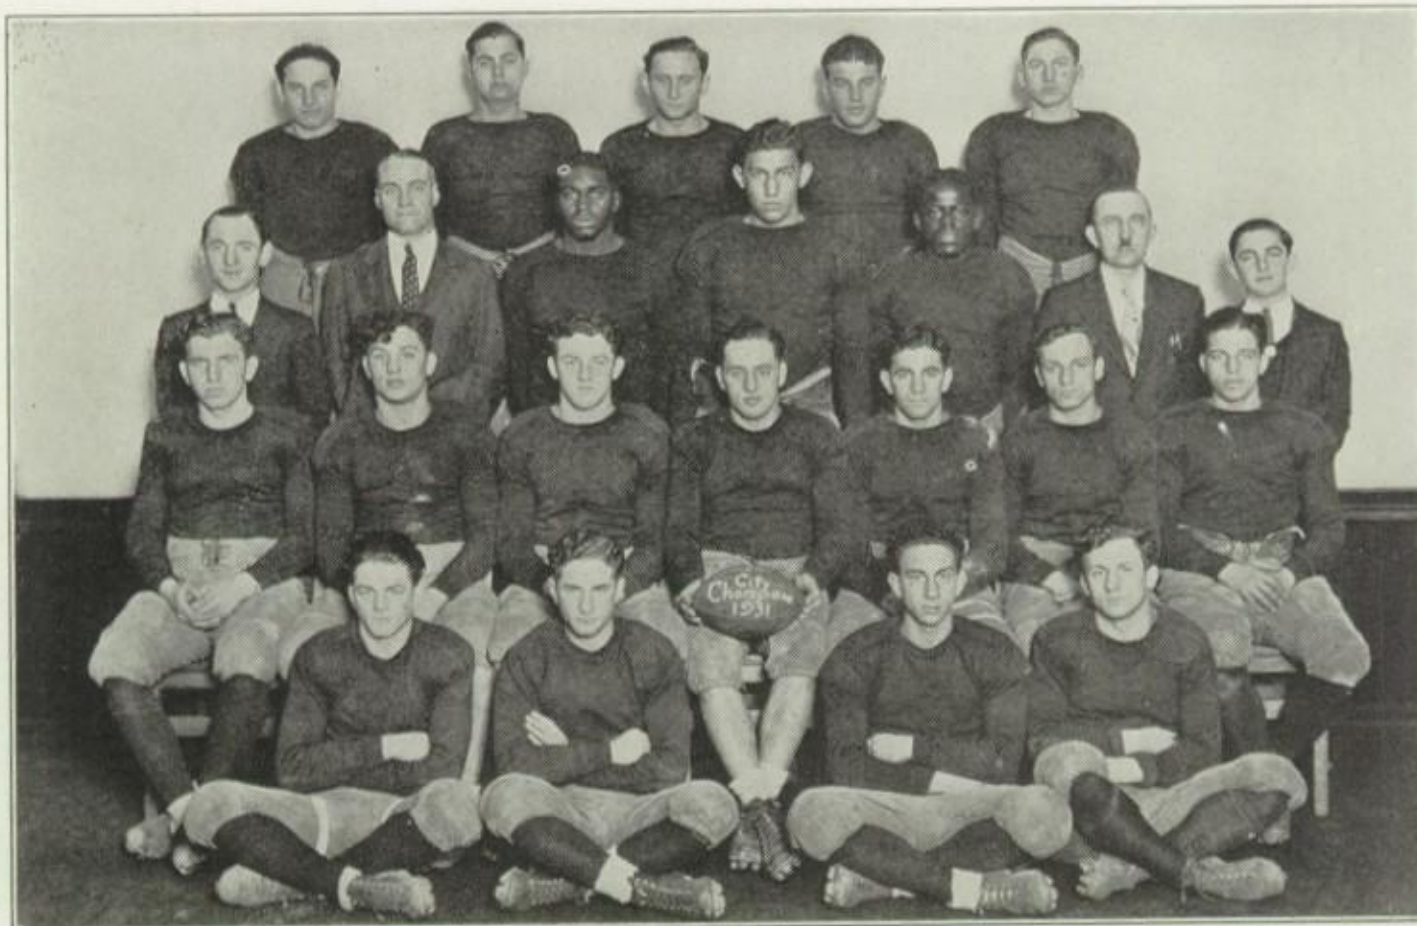

JULIUS GROSSMAN

LEON FELD

LOUIS LIPMAN

SAMUEL L. FEINSTEIN

MILTON J. STANDER

FOOTBALL TEAM

CITY CHAMPIONS

ALBERT OCHROCH, 157.....Captain
 HERBERT LEWIS, 159.....Manager
 PROF. BARRON.....Coach
 ROBERT DALLAS.....Trainer

MORRIS YERMISH, 157
 BERNARD FLETTER, 157
 HARRY LEABMAN, 157
 OSCAR HIRSCH, 157
 JACK PERTNOY, 157
 SEYMOUR RUSH, 157
 FRANK ARDITTO, 157
 MORRIS KATZ, 161
 MARTIN DEWALT, 160

HERMAN BASSMAN, 158
 OSLEA COOK, 158
 ETTORE MARCANTUONO, 158
 JACK BLECKER, 159
 PAUL YERMISH, 159
 SAM BROWNSTEIN, 159
 HARRY SUGARMAN, 159
 FRANK BONETTI, 160
 HYMAN LEABMAN, 160

RECORD

Captain.....ALBERT OCHROCH
 Manager, 1932.....HERBERT LEWIS
 Manager, 1931.....JULES SCHWARTZ
 Coach.....ALBERT BARRON
 Trainer.....ROBERT DALLAS

SCHEDULE

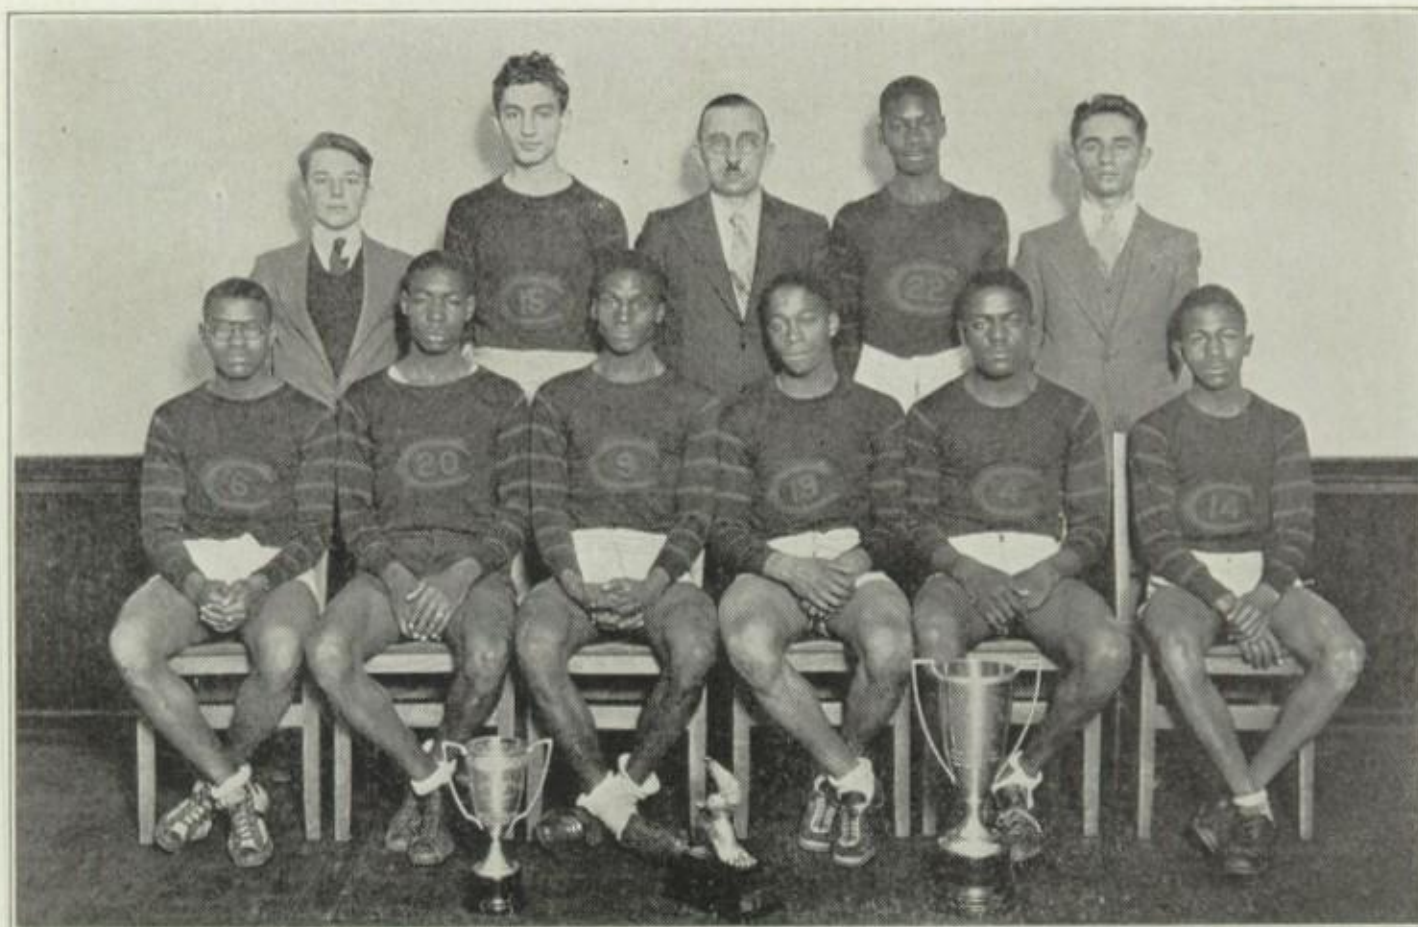

Central 20	— St. Josephs 0
Central 39	— Southern 7
Central 41	— Overbrook 0
Central 13	— Germantown 0
Central 12	— Frankford 0
Central 6	— West Philadelphia 0
Central 12	— Simon Gratz 6
Central 26	— Roxborough 0
Central 25	— Northeast 13
Central 9	— West Catholic 0

CITY CHAMPIONS

THIRD CONSECUTIVE CHAMPIONSHIP

TWENTY-SEVEN STRAIGHT GAMES, UNDEFEATED

CHS

CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM

CHAMPIONSHIP

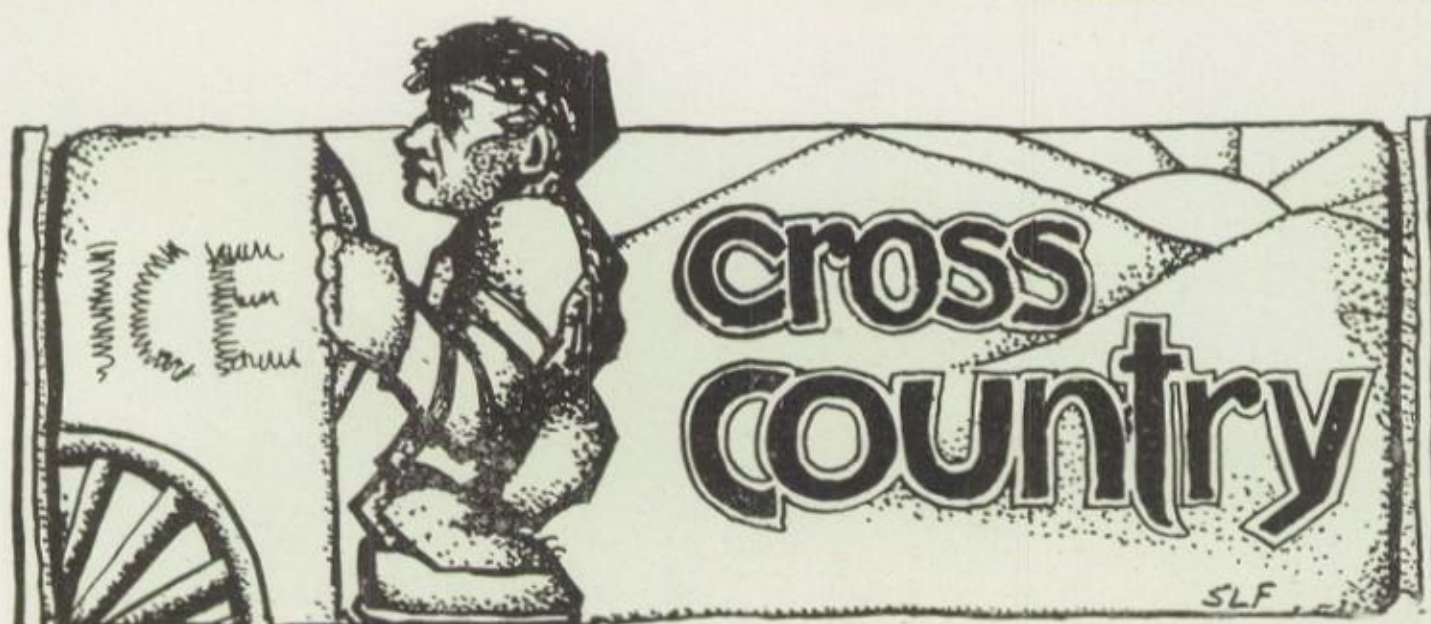

LAFAYETTE POWELL.....Captain
 LEONARD VICKERS.....Manager
 SAMUEL L. FEINSTEIN.....Assistant Manager
 PROF. VICKERS.....Coach

EDWARD CANNON, 163
 SIMON LEVIN, 163
 CHARLES WILSON, 162

ERNEST WILLIAMS, 161
 WILLIAM BURGETTE, 161
 JOHN SEARLES, 161

ALBERT THREADGILL, 160

RECORD

Captain.....LAFAYETTE POWELL
 Manager.....LEONARD VICKERS
 Coach.....DAMON P. VICKERS

SCORES

Central Invitation

Central	76
Northeast	111
Germantown	217
West Philadelphia.....	320
Olney	363
Southern	383
Gratz	400
La Salle.....	407

Second Team Championship

Central	86
Northeast	163
West Philadelphia.....	248
Overbrook	261
Simon Gratz.....	368
Germantown	412
Southern	520
Olney	579

VARSITY CHAMPIONSHIP

Central	79	West Philadelphia.....	320
Northeast	155	Simon Gratz.....	359
Germantown	224	Southern	415
Overbrook	252	Olney	529
Frankford	636

WON THE VILLANOVA INTERSCHOLASTICS

WON ALL OTHER MEETS

PERFECT SCORE IN TRI-SCHOOL MEET

CHAMPIONSHIP

CHS

RECORD

BASKETBALL TEAM

CHAMPIONSHIP

CLIFFORD ANDERSON, 159.....Captain
 JULES SCHWARTZ, 158.....Manager
 PROF. LEWIS.....Coach

ALBERT OCHROCH, 157
 SAMUEL BROWNSTEIN, 159
 MORRIS KATZ, 161
 WILLIAM IONA, 163
 BERNARD FLITTER, 157

ALBERT KLINK, 159
 LOU LAUTMAN, 163
 DON SHIELDS, 160
 ARTHUR MOSKOWITZ, 160
 JACK SILVER, 160

CHS

RECORD

Captain.....CLIFFORD ANDERSON
 Manager.....JULES SCHWARTZ
 Coach.....HOWARD LEWIS

SCHEDULE

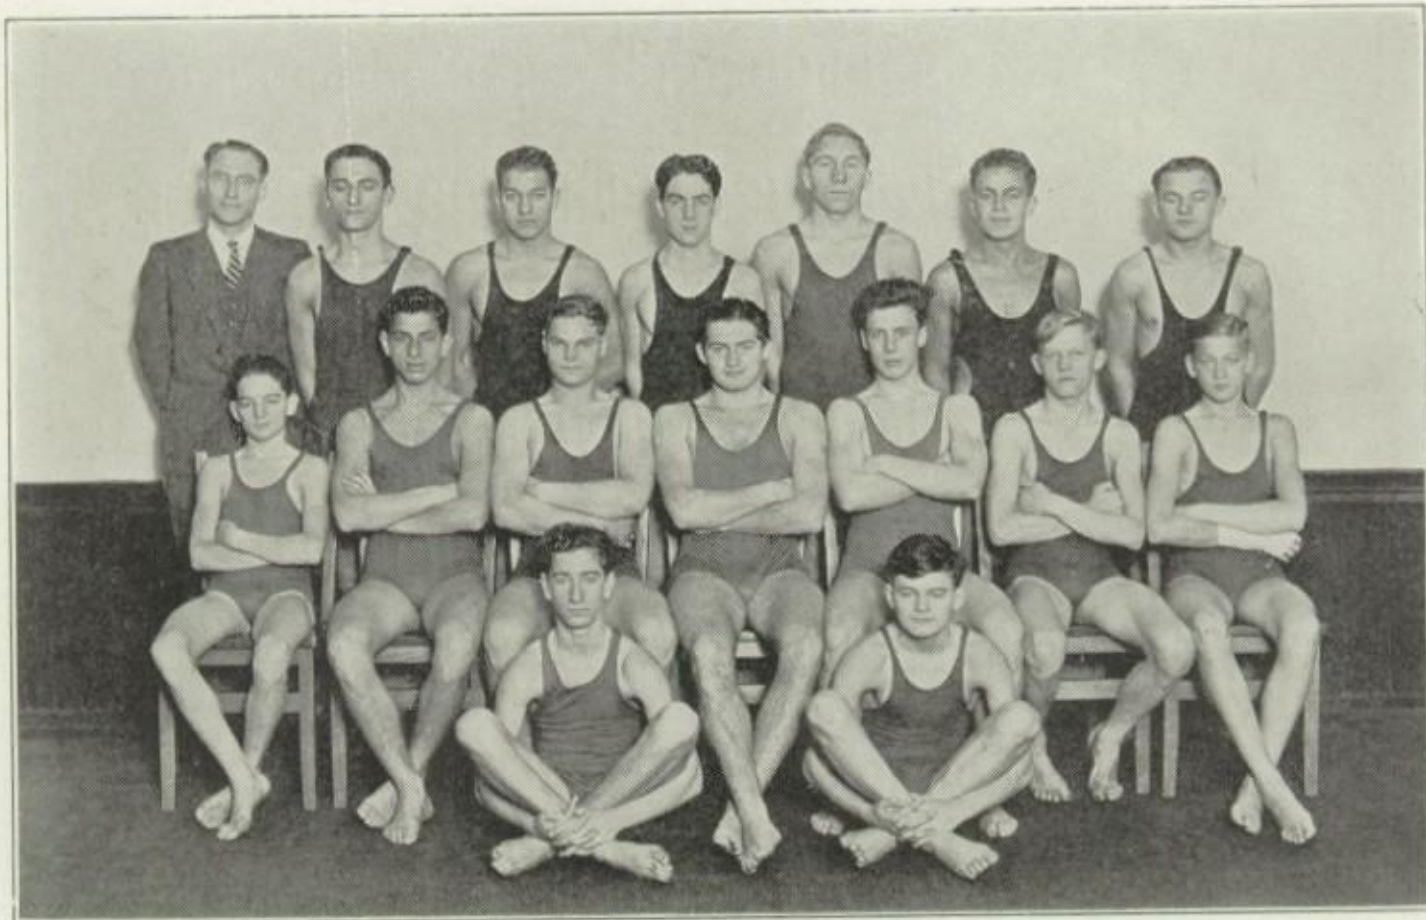

Central	32	—	Peirce School	23
Central	58	—	Roxborough	27
Central	35	—	P. I. D.	13
Central	32	—	Friends' Central	12
Central	54	—	Darby	23
Central	35	—	West Philadelphia	21
Central	21	—	Perkiomen School	30
Central	45	—	Germantown	14
Central	45	—	Northeast	21
Central	29	—	Southern	21
Central	27	—	Overbrook	25
Central	60	—	Radnor	38
Central	70	—	Olney	19
Central	30	—	West Philadelphia	22
Central	52	—	Northeast	19
Central	34	—	St. Josephs	20
Central	41	—	Olney	19
Central	33	—	Southern	16
Central	35	—	La Salle	13
Central	30	—	Overbrook	25

Play-off Series With "A" League Champions

Central	28	—	Germantown	21
Central	32	—	Germantown	12

CHAMPIONSHIP

CHS

SWIMMING TEAM

SCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONSHIP

JOHN TOMKEWITZ, 158.....Captain
 SAM A. SOPENOFF, 158.....Manager
 PROF. FISCHER.....Coach

JULIUS GROSSMAN, 158
 MARTIN MOLDOFF, 158
 BOHDAN KOCIUBINSKY, 158
 CARL KLINE, 157
 BERNARD MORROW, 163
 MORTON KRAFTSONE, 160

RICHARD HUHN, 162
 ROBERT HACK, 164
 WALTER BUKATA, 162
 JOHN MACIONIS, 160
 MICHAEL NAPOLIELLO, 161
 WILLIAM KRUPSKY, 164

STEPHAN SILVASI, 160

RECORD

Captain.....JOHN TOMKEWITZ
 Manager.....SAM SOPENOFF
 Coach.....OTTO FISCHER

SCHEDULE

Central	46	—	Northeast Catholic	20
Central	31	—	Girard College	28
Central	25	—	West Philadelphia	34
Central	37	—	Simon Gratz	22
Central	48	—	Olney	11
Central	30	—	Northeast	29
Central	32	—	Germantown	27
Central	40	—	Overbrook	19
Central	23	—	Lawrenceville	43
Central	50	—	Southern	9
Central	45	—	Frankford	14

WON THE U. OF P. CHAMPIONSHIPS

PUBLIC HIGH CHAMPIONSHIP

CHS

SOCCER TEAM

JACK MEINSTER, 158.....Captain
 MILTON J. STANDER, 158.....Manager
 NATHAN SALNER, 160.....Assistant Manager
 PROF. NASSAU.....Coach

PHILIP WOLF, 159
 SAMUEL BRATMAN, 157
 PETER PAPPAS, 158
 JOSEPH GRENSTEIN, 159
 JOSEPH NELSON, 157
 SAMUEL FINKELSTEIN, 160

RICHARD RUDOLPH, 158
 ROBERT MARTOIA, 159
 FRANCIS MEGRAIL, 162
 ISAAC TAYLOR, 157
 DIKRAN HOVSEPIAN, 159
 LOUIS LIPMAN, 160

RECORD

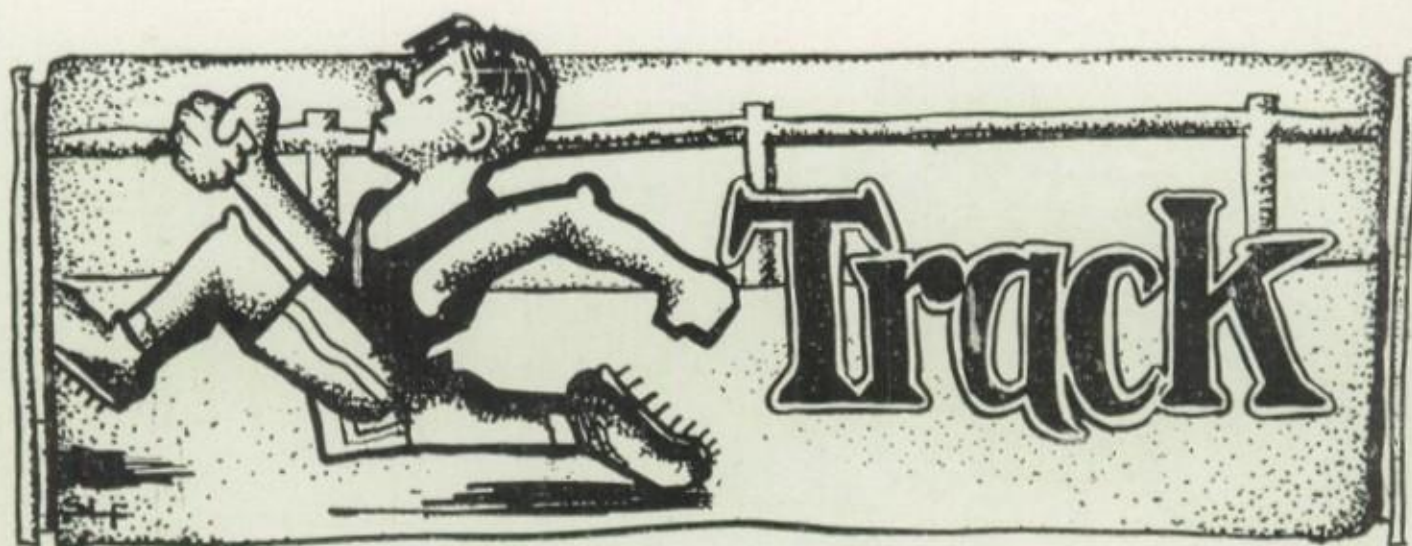

Captain.....JACK MEINSTER
 Manager.....MILTON J. STANDER
 Coach.....WILLIAM NASSAU

SCHEDULE

Central	0 —	Germantown Friends	1
Central	3 —	Northeast Catholic	4
Central	3 —	West Philadelphia	1
Central	2 —	Germantown High	0
Central	2 —	Frankford High	3
Central	1 —	Northeast High	3
Central	2 —	Swarthmore J. V.	0
Central	1 —	Overbrook High	2
Central	0 —	Southern High	3
Central	1 —	Simon Gratz High	1

CHS

RECORD

CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Captain.....AL THREADGILL
 Manager.....JULES SCHWARTZ
 Coach.....PROF. GENTILE

RECORD OF SEASON

WON NORTHEAST RELAYS

PENN RELAYS—880 Freshman Relay.....Second Place
 1-mile Public High Relay.....Third Place
 1-mile Class Relay.....Second Place
 (DeWitt Clinton, of New York—First)

TRIANGULAR MEETS

Central, 64 1/6; Northeast, 35 5/6; Frankford (no entries).
 Central, 106 1/2; Overbrook, 42; Gratz, 16 1/2.
 Central, 86; West Philadelphia, 51; Germantown, 26.
 Central, 80; Southern, 59; Olney, 26.

CLASS CHAMPIONSHIPS—Won by Central

INTERSCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONSHIPS—Won by Central

1st, Central, 49 1/2; 2nd, West Philadelphia, 32; 3rd, Southern, 31.

CHAMPIONSHIP IN NORRISTOWN OPEN INTERSCHOLASTICS

INDIVIDUAL HONORS

Al Threadgill—Individual high score at Columbia Interscholastics
 Increased record to 6 ft. 1/2 in.—high jump at Meadowbrook.
 Increased record to 6 ft. 1 1/2 ins.—Public High Schools high jump.

INDIVIDUAL HIGH SCORE, NORRISTOWN INTERSCHOLASTICS

Matt Williams—Lowered 220 record to 22 1/5 seconds.

CHS

Co-Captains.....	{ SAMUEL BROWNSTEIN, 159 MORRIS KATZ, 161
Manager.....	SAMUEL SOPENOFF, 158
Assistant Manager.....	CYRIL GROSS, 158
Coach.....	OTTO J. FISCHER

SCHEDULE

Central	17	—	Girard College	2
Central	13	—	North Catholic	3
Central	2	—	Olney	14
Central	21	—	Germantown	8
Central	1	—	Northeast	2
Central	11	—	West Philadelphia	4
Central	6	—	Frankford	10
Central	10	—	Gratz	6
Central	2	—	Overbrook	7
Central	3	—	Southern	5
Central	7	—	Faculty	5

A specialized two-year college training is offered to high school graduates in:

Accounting (CPA) Merchandising
Advertising Salesmanship Business Administration Finance

Shorter Courses offered in Office
Training Department:

Stenography Secretarial
Bookkeeping Typewriting

Write for Illustrated Catalogue

160 NORTH FIFTEENTH ST.

or Call Rittenhouse 5971

Compliments of

THE SPORTS CENTRE

527 MARKET STREET

Philadelphia

Branch Store: 5533 North 5th Street (Olney)

SPORTING GOODS
of
EVERY DESCRIPTION

COSTUMES

Wigs and Accessories for Operas, Plays, Minstrels and Bal Masque of Superior Quality and

ACADEMIC CAPS AND GOWNS

FOR COMMENCEMENTS ON A RENTAL BASIS

WAAS & SON

COSTUMERS TO THE NATION

123 South Eleventh Street

PHILADELPHIA

ELECTRICITY is cheap.

For every dollar of the family budget, ninety-nine cents goes for food, clothing, housing and the like. Only one penny is used to pay for electricity. For the cost of a newspaper, an electric vacuum cleaner will clean your rugs for a week. For the price of a package of cigarettes, electricity will cook three meals for a family of five. Use electric servants; they will help you economize.

Magazines Books Stationery

WHOLESALE ONLY

The Central News Company

So. Washington Square
Philadelphia, Pa.

Poplar 0711

Smith's
Hotel and Restaurant

N. E. Cor. 15th and Spring Garden Streets

Theodore B. Smith

M & H
Sporting Goods Co.

512 Market Street

Official Outfitters to Central High School

Tennis Track Football
Golf Baseball Fishing

Everything for the Athlete and Sportsman

FIDELITY-PHILADELPHIA TRUST COMPANY

Capital
$6,700,000

Surplus $21,000,000

Individual Trusts
Over $940,000,000

135 South Broad St. 325 Chestnut St. 6324 Woodland Ave.

COMMERCIAL PHOTO-ENGRAVING COMPANY

ENGRAVERS DESIGNERS

34 North Fifth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Sittings by Appointment

Telephones:
PENnypacker 6190
" 8070

ZAMSKY STUDIO

INC.

902 CHESTNUT STREET

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS year we have completed the photographic work for over a hundred schools and colleges, and the photographs in this book are an example of our uniform quality and fine workmanship.

A telephone call will bring our representative to your school, or, if you prefer, write for particulars about our special school rates, and contracts for school publications.

Sittings may be made at home, at school, or at the studio, by appointment.

MARCUS-MAYER COMPANY

Printers - Publishers - Advertisers

DAY and NIGHT SERVICE

Publishers of the "Centralizer" and Record Book

THE RECORD BUILDING

317 NORTH BROAD STREET

